

LU DIGITAL COMMONS AND BEPRESS WORKS INTEGRATION

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 29, 2007

ProQuest Selected Works

Bepress Selected Works

Present

- Users can create Selected Works sites in Bepressworks.com with a separate login
- Any material previously submitted to the LU Commons will be automatically pulled into the new Bepress Selected Works site
- Note: Cannot have Selected Works sites in both places using the same email address

Integration Begins

Phase 1: Mid-September

- Bepress Selected Works sites will be created and displayed within the LU Digital Commons
- Series editors can move items from Selected Works sites to particular series
- Single login; Bepress Selected Works is integrated with the Digital Commons (except for the search function)

Phase 2: January 2008

- Digital Commons search results will identify Selected Works sites as such
- Will be able to “showcase” a limited number of authors within a particular series
