Faculty focus: Dr. Gary Habermas, Research Professor of Apologetics & Philosophy

February 01, 2009

Dr. Gary Habermas has been teaching at Liberty since 1981 in both the School of Religion and at Liberty Baptist Theological Seminary. He is a Distinguished Research Professor and Chair in the School of Religion's Department of Philosophy and Theology and also teaches in the Ph.D. program at LBTS.

"The best-kept secret (about the School of Religion and the Seminary) is the faculty, because they're not just good people and very well prepared, but they have multiple graduate degrees, and they are in it for the ministry ... They love the students; and most of all, they love the Lord; they love the kingdom of God and the church, and they want to minister. They have that unique combination of head and heart."
