Dear Friends and Parents,

Welcome to the first edition of Liberty Frontlines! Liberty Frontlines is the biannual newsletter of the Liberty University Intercollegiate Debate Team and is our way of keeping you connected to the team. To read about the victories of the current team turn to our section called 3NR. The 3NR is the non-existent third negative rebuttal which would give negatives the final word. Our column accounts recent tournaments where Liberty has had the "final word." This edition's 3NR is a synopsis of the whole season up to this point. On the Road is our traveling schedule. If we travel to a tournament near you, we would love for you to come visit! Check Rankings to see how our team compares overall to the other teams listed in the ADA and NDT debate associations. We have also created a section called The Backfiles to reunite you with former Liberty debaters. Finally, the Strategy Session gives you opportunities to participate in the team's success through spiritual and financial support.

Liberty Frontlines is our way of saying "Thank you" for supporting the debate team and encouraging you to keep us in your prayers.

I hope you enjoy reading about the team's progress as much as I enjoy being a part of it.

Editor and Assistant Coach

Liberty Debate: A Hub of Activity

Its hard to believe how God has blessed the Liberty Debate Team and how the activities and success associated with our team have increased in such a short time. Since 1994 Liberty has won six national championships in debate, reached the elimination rounds of the National Debate Tournament, won numerous varsity, junior varsity, and novice tournaments, started a high school debate institute, hosted the National Debate Tournament and the American Debate Association National Tournament, hosted one of the largest annual college tournaments in the country, successfully bid to begin hosting the Virginia State Debate Championships, produced students who have graduated from major graduate and law schools, and produced several debate coaches. Along the way we have impacted and developed the lives of the students on the team while reaching members of the debate community for Christ.

I am proud to be associated with our program because of its unique vision as a Christian debate team that is as competitive as the top universities in the country. I am also proud of our alumni who continue to represent Liberty Debate across the country in an outstanding way in both their professional and private lives. I hope that you will continue to pray for our team that God will continue to bless us and that He will provide the necessary resources for the team and send us individuals like yourself to carry on the fine tradition of Liberty Debate. In the future we are planning alumni gatherings for past team members in association with Liberty's Homecoming and our college debate tournament.

Director of Debate

The Liberty University Intercollegiate Debate Team is about to conclude a very successful season. Though young, the team is only four points behind the highly competitive Emory University squad in the nationwide NDT rankings, while ranking first place in the ADA district with only three tournaments remaining in the season.

Liberty's skilled debaters have worked hard winning the Varsity Division at the George Mason University Tournament. The Junior Varsity squad was represented in the final round at eight out of nine tournaments and won five Junior Varsity Divisions at Cornell University, the US Naval Academy, the US Military Academy, John Carroll University, and the University of Richmond.

Shanna Twigg tops Liberty's JV squad winning two First Place individual speaker awards with Devin Chwastyk winning one. Liberty's novice squad has also performed well winning six Novice Divisions at George Mason University, the US Naval Academy, the US Military Academy, John Carroll University, the University of Richmond, and King's College. Top Novice speakers include David Cooper who has won three First Place individual speaker awards and Rebekah Meador and Julie Sorge who have each won one.

Keep up with the team's progress online at www.Liberty.edu/debate

With three tournaments remaining, including two national tournaments, the team is gearing up to finish the season hoping to finish first in both rankings. Please keep us in your prayers. --HHH

Spread the Word!
 The Debate Team is looking for intelligent, hardworking, Christian students who are interested in debating while in college. We offer opportunities for students of all experience levels with scholarships offered to qualifying advanced debaters.
 If you know any students who fit this description, have them e-mail Brett O'Donnell at bodonne@liberty.edu, or call (804) 582-2080.

Endowment Campaign Successful--The Liberty Debate Team initiated a fund drive to start the Liberty University Debate Endowment Fund. I am pleased to announce that the goal of raising $30,000.00 to start the fund was exceeded as we raised $35,000.00 through alumni and corporate support. The entire amount was deposited into an endowment account strictly for the benefit of the Liberty Debate Team under the management of Fidelity Investments. This fund will eventually underwrite scholarships for members of the debate team and in the distant future underwrite a substantial amount of the operational budget for the team.

Thank You!

Initially, all revenue generated by the fund is being reinvested to produce rapid growth of the account. All future donations (unless otherwise earmarked), L.U. Debate Alumni Association membership fees, and corporate donations will be deposited into this fund. Additionally, our growing summer high school debate workshop (The Liberty Debate Institutes) will produce revenue that will be deposited into the fund. THANKS TO ALL OF YOU WHO CONTRIBUTED TO THE ENDOWMENT DRIVE!!! --B.O.D.

Liberty Debate Alumni Association Officially Launched

With this first edition of Liberty Frontlines, we are also launching the Liberty University Debate Alumni Association (LUDAA). The membership fees from the association (100%) will be deposited into the debate endowment account to help underwrite scholarships for future debaters. Scholarships are critical to the competitiveness of our program as we use them to recruit against other major universities for advanced high school debaters and to reward debaters for their hard work at Liberty. Membership fees allow us to make regular deposits into the endowment account in addition to our special fundraisers.

STRATEGY SESSION

In order for you to be a part of the LUDAA we are offering several levels of giving including Regular, Varsity, Honorary Coach, and Honorary Director as detailed on the membership form below. As an Honorary Coach you will receive an official Liberty Debate T-shirt, while as Honorary Directors you will receive an official Liberty Debate hat in addition to the T-shirt. Plus, anytime we travel to a tournament near you, Honorary Directors are invited to take Brett's place! Seriously, these are small tokens of the enormous gratitude we feel to all of you who support us, and you will all be named as contributors in our next edition. Your giving provides incredible competitive and educational opportunities for aspiring debaters. So, fill out the membership form below and join the Liberty Debate Alumni Association today!
