SB 0310-05 New Course Proposal (Government) Effective Fall 2010

GOVT 492 Senior Seminar

3 hours

Prerequisite: Senior standing.

The capstone course in Government provides – in the context of a biblical worldview – an overview, discussion, and evaluation of leading figures, theories, subfields, and schools of thought within the broad field of political science.

SB 0310-05 passed.

SB 0310-06 New Course Proposals (Health Sciences) Effective Fall 2010

EXSC 101 Introduction to Exercise Science

1 hour

This course is an overview of the professions in the field of exercise science. Career opportunities within exercise science and allied health will be investigated, which include various aspects of careers, determining requirements for advanced study and learning what coursework would be appropriate for the different career paths.

EXSC 351 Biomechanics Lab

1 hour

Prerequisites: Junior standing, must currently be enrolled in EXSC 350

This lab course provides students with the application of basic mechanical principles in analyzing movements of the human body. The course uses an integrated balance of qualitative and quantitative applications to illustrate the mechanical principles discussed in EXSC 350 Biomechanics.

SB 0310-06 passed.

SB 0310-07 New Course Proposal (Family & Consumer Sciences) Effective Fall 2010

FACS 333 Exercise and Sports Nutrition

3 hours

Prerequisites: BIOL 213, 214, 215, and 216

This course focuses on nutrition with an emphasis on its role in exercise and sport performance. Topics include: macro/micronutrient metabolism in relation to exercise, hydration, body composition, ergogenic aids, disordered eating, and current nutritional recommendations.

SB 0310-07 passed.

SB 0310-08 New Christian Music Artist and Songwriter Specialization (Worship & Music Studies)

Effective Fall 2010

Rationale: A significant paradigm shift has emerged in publishing and recording of Christian music. The creation and publishing of music is moving to the church. Local churches are starting music publishing and recording ministries for the sole purpose of presenting new music to their congregations and making music available to the body of Christ at large. These churches are writing their own music, producing their own Christmas and Easter programs with in-house songwriter/arrangers, recording their own CDs and sending out their own artists. This is the place where young artists and songwriters will find work.

The goal of this specialization clearly reflects and supports the mission of the university through the equipping and training of “Champions for Christ” as future artists, songwriters, worship leaders, and worshiping musicians. Currently, reports indicate that there are approximately 25,000 professional, independent, and amateur Christian artists ministering to and through local evangelical churches. This specialization is designed to impact the current and future Christian music industry culture and ultimately the local church through intentional, quality, biblically-based training. The exciting long-term and potential outcome of this specialization is that Liberty University students trained in this specialization would have a significant impact and influence in shaping evangelical worship worldwide. The obvious implications of Liberty University having that kind of influence are significant from both a Kingdom perspective and a university advancement perspective.

SB 0310-09 Changes to Theatre Arts Minor (Theatre) Effective Fall 2010

Rationale: Now that the major has been revised, the minor must be revised to stay current with the courses and prerequisite requirements. The original upper-level courses in the minor require the prerequisites of THEA 250 and 312, which forces students to take an extra 6 hours beyond the required courses in order to complete the minor. Requiring 250 and 312 will still give students the depth needed without requiring more prerequisites. Also, 250 and 312 do not require the Sophomore Hearing. The Sophomore Hearing was intended for majors only, not minors. THEA 250 and 312 are not new courses.

Current Requirements:

THEA 200	Play Production (2 semesters)	2
THEA 220	Basic Acting	3
THEA 211	Foundations of Theatre History I	3
OR
THEA 212	Foundations of Theatre History II	3
THEA 310	Basic Acting II
Choose one:		3
THEA 420	Advanced Acting
THEA 422	Classical Acting
THEA 450	Musical Theatre Performance
Choose one:		3
THEA 320	Directing
THEA 350	Writing for the Stage
THEA 410	Drama in the Church
THEA 411	Stage and Theatre Management
Total Credit hours:		17

Proposed Requirements:

THEA 200	Play Production (2 semesters)	2
THEA 211	Foundations of Theatre History I	3
OR
THEA 212	Foundations of Theatre History II	3
THEA 220	Basic Acting	3
THEA 250	Voice for the Stage	3
THEA 310	Basic Acting II	3
THEA 312	Script analysis	3
Total Credits hours:		17

SB 0410-01 Changes to Minor in Aviation (Aeronautics) Effective Fall 2010

Present requirements.

AVIA 102-	Aviation Orientation	1 credit hour
AVIA 210-	Private Ground I	2 credit hours
AVIA 215-	Private Ground II	2 credit hours
AVIA 220-	Private Flight I	3 credit hours
AVIA 225-	Private Flight II	3 credit hours
AVIA 300-	Aviation Safety	2 credit hours
AVIA 305-	Airplane Aerodynamics	3 credit hours
AVIA 310-	Instrument Ground	3 credit hours

AVIA 315- Commercial Ground	3 credit hours
AVIA 320- Instrument Flight	3 credit hours
AVIA 325- Commercial Flight	3 credit hours

Proposed requirements

The change will delete the following courses:

AVIA 315- Commercial Ground	3 credit hours
AVIA 320- Instrument Flight	3 credit hours
AVIA 325- Commercial Flight	3 credit hours

Rationale: The current aviation minor requires 28 (normal is 17-20) credit hours, which includes all of the flight training required for the aviation major. No students have obtained this minor because of the flight training cost. Inputs from prospective students are that they want the minor to consist of a private pilot certificate and the current required aviation ground classes. With this change, they will be able to use their aviation licensure for their personal business travel or for pleasure. By reducing it to private pilot certification only, the cost for the flight training will be reduced by approximately $32,000.
