LU hockey team rising in rankings

December 17, 2007

Liberty University's men's ice hockey squad is the fastest rising team among the leaders in the recent American Collegiate Hockey Association Division One rankings.

The Flames rose from eighth to fifth in the association's sixth ranking this season.

Top-ranked University of Illinois received 45 out of a possible 47 first-place votes.

Second-ranked Penn State received the other two first-place votes.

Lindenwood was ranked No. 3 and was followed by No. 4 Oklahoma.

The rankings have expanded this season to include the Top 25 teams, up from 20. The seventh ranking of the regular season will be released on Friday, Jan. 18.
