Men's hockey victorious over West Chester University

November 10, 2008

Friday, November 7:

West Chester 1 - Liberty University 2

On Friday, Liberty came away with a win in the lowest scoring game played thus far at the Lahaye Ice Center. Finding themselves down 1-0 early, Liberty tied the game just before the first intermission with a goal by Dave Semenyna. In the second period, Kevin Hendrix received a pass from Luke Aitken to give Liberty the lead for good. Goaltender, Colin Way stopped 35 of 36 shots that went his way. Despite being 0 for 6 on the powerplay, Liberty managed to score just enough to overcome West Chester. Aitken was the only player on the ice for both of Liberty's goals. He also contributed with 2 assists. Mackenzie Bauman led the team in blocked shots with 6, and Hendrix put up the most shots with 6.

Saturday, November 8:

West Chester 1 – Liberty University 2

Saturday's game almost was a mirror image of the previous night's. Both Liberty and West Chester put up tallies in the first period. Dave Semenyna scored for the second straight night, with a powerplay goal assisted by Kevin Hendrix and Jonathan Chung. In the second period Semenyna scored his third goal of the weekend to put Liberty ahead. Kyle Dodgson and Joe Smith got the helpers for that goal. Colin Way stopped 35 of the 36 shots he faced. Liberty had an astounding 49 shots on goal led by Semenyna with 11 and Eric Reynolds with 8. Jon Langabeer had 14 hits, which also led the team.
