Dean Staver welcomes Class of 2011 to LU's School of Law

August 13, 2008

Mathew D. Staver, Dean of Liberty University's School of Law, welcomed the Class of 2011 to campus on Tuesday. He introduced members of the faculty and administration and presented the school's educational philosophy and mission-driven, practice-oriented focus.

About 110 new students were expected for fall 2008 — the largest-ever entering class. The school has seen a 100 percent increase in enrollment since its inception five years ago.
