LU Alumnus employed by Fox News

April 01, 2009 | Teresa Dunham

Liberty University Class of 1993 graduate Shannon Bream isn't the only familiar face at FOX News Channel.

She's been working at FOX's D.C. bureau as a Supreme Court reporter since Nov. 2007 — and another LU alumnus passes her in the office from time to time.

Chris Becker, 38, a 1992 LU communications graduate, is a satellite truck operator for the D.C. bureau, up-linking live events for reporters and helping broadcast at remote locations and Presidential events.

Now in his eleventh year at FOX, Becker has seen some of the nation's most-watched news events unfold, and he's thankful that LU and ABC 13 in Lynchburg gave him his start.

"I graduated on Saturday and started work on Monday, and I haven't been unemployed since," he said, emphasizing the value of his degree from LU.
