School of Aeronautics flight team wins regional honors

November 12, 2008

The Liberty University School of Aeronautics' Precision Flight Team took home the first-place trophy in the NIFA Region X Competition, held in Lynchburg, Va., Oct. 29-Nov. 1.

“This has been a great year for the flight team as we have won, for the fourth straight year, the Region X competition. This gives Liberty the longest win streak in Region 10 history and this year has been our most convincing win by far,” said Liberty’s NIFA Coach, Jonathan “Stork” Washburn.

The team will compete in nationals May 13-20, 2009, in St. Louis, Mo.
