The Fulbright U.S. Student Program is the largest exchange program in the United States. Students and young professionals alike can apply for grants to undertake graduate research, or to teach—at universities, primary schools, or secondary schools worldwide.

Fulbright is looking for leaders who are ready to share their knowledge and culture, are open to new ideas, and are committed to international engagement.

Is there a Fulbright grant in your future?

- Come and hear LU students discuss the benefits of serving overseas.
- Learn from LU's Fulbright Liaison and Fulbright Committee members about the application process, travel logistics, and living abroad as a Fulbright Scholar.
- Get advice on selecting countries for application and making contacts abroad.
- Get practical tips on how to prepare the Fulbright student application.
