Who Should Attend Fulbright Week Events?

Fulbright offers a range of scholarship opportunities, but the process is rigorous, and preparation is essential. Freshmen, seniors, grad students, faculty—anyone interested in eventually pursuing a Fulbright grant is encouraged to attend Fulbright Week events. Learn how to prepare an application for a grant that will put your career on an upward path!

Questions between sessions? The Fulbright Corner in the library will be staffed all week.

STUDENT PROGRAMS

Research/Study Grants

Applicants for research/study awards design their own projects and typically work with advisors at foreign universities or other institutions of higher education. These awards are available in about 140 countries.

English Teaching Assistant Grants

The English Teaching Assistant (ETA) programs place Fulbrighters in classrooms abroad to provide assistance to local English teachers. ETAs help teach English while serving as cultural ambassadors for the United States.

National Geographic Digital Storytelling Fellowship

A component of the Fulbright U.S. Student Program, this program provides opportunities for U.S. citizens to participate in an academic year of overseas travel and storytelling in one, two, or three countries on a globally significant theme.

FACULTY PROGRAMS

Fulbright U.S. Scholar Program

The U.S. Scholar Program sends American scholars, professionals, and artists abroad to lecture and/or conduct research for up to a year.

Fulbright Specialist Program

The Fulbright Specialist Program also sends American scholars, professionals, and artists abroad to lecture and/or conduct research, but these are short-term grants lasting from two to six weeks.

Come join LU Fulbright Committee's first-ever Fulbright Week!

The Fulbright Program is the most prestigious U.S. international exchange program for students, faculty and international administrators. Benefits for all Fulbright U.S. Student and U.S. Scholar grants include

- Round-trip transportation to the host country;
- Funding to cover room, board, and incidental costs, based on the cost of living in the host country; and
- Accident and sickness health benefits.

The Fulbright Week at Liberty will give you the opportunity to

- Learn about research, study, and English-teaching scholarship opportunities in more than 140 countries;
- Get advice on study abroad opportunities through Fulbright affiliate programs — Boren, Whitaker, and Gilman scholarships;
- Select countries for application and learn how to make contacts abroad;
- Get tips on how to prepare the Fulbright student application;
- Meet one-on-one with a Fulbright committee member about the evaluation process at Liberty;
- Strategize on how to apply and be successful;
- Participate in information sessions on Fulbright, Boren, Whitaker, and Gilman awards;
- Meet with Liberty University's Fulbright Program advisor regarding strategies on country selection, the application process, and designing a winning application; and
- Learn about Liberty University's Provost's Award for Excellence in Research (PARE) for graduates and undergraduates.

Do you have a Fulbright grant in your future? Please check out the schedule for Fulbright Week on the previous page and RSVP for the sessions that interest you.
