Adventures in Honors: VHCS Call for Papers

The Virginia Collegiate Honors Council invites proposal for papers or posters to be presented at its annual spring conference. Participants typically present results from an Honors project, an independent undergraduate research project, or an original work (i.e art, dance, literature, instrumental or vocal music, or poetry) as an individual oral presentation, a group presentation, or within the poster session. This year's conference will be held at Old Dominion University from April 7 through 8. We encourage Honors students to present. Honors will pay for all travel expenses, and transportation will be provided. Dr. Nutter will lead the group this year. If you are interested, proposals are due March 1, but send them before in advance for help to jhnutter@liberty.edu. Info is at <http://vchc.net/conferences.html>. This is a tremendous opportunity for you to showcase your work, compete for prizes, and network with other Honors students throughout Virginia and West Virginia. A presentation will bolster your vita.
