Dear Friend,

thank you ever so much for your good letter and the Czech who was nit a Slovak ! I am very much moved by the prompt payment. You have no idea in what diffuculties I sometimes run in collecting my fees !

I have very few copies of my own books ,but I will send you one I can really spare. The title sounds difficult : Amerika - Leitbild im <sup>w</sup>Zwielicht (Zwielicht is NOT Dämmerung, but rather "indis-<sup>n</sup>trict light.) One half deals with the US, the other half with Latin-America. Much of it is passé, obsolete, no longer true. Of the "Founding Father Book" I have no longer a spare copy. * )

The Intelligent American's Guide to Europe MUST be obtainnable through the College exchange system. (The center of this computer outfit is in Columbus, Ohio and I would be surprised if Marion is not in touch with it "electrinically" ). There is a good chance that it will be reprinted (with a lot of changes) by Devin Adair. Arlington House went to pieces almost immediately after its publication.

Articles of mine should come out in THE FREEMAN, as well as in Chronicles.

I really hope to see you all again - if not, <sup>here</sup> so somewhere in the United States.

Yours ever gratefully

Erik v.K-L-

Love to your entire family !

* ) The book was published by the Johannes-Verlag which is owned by Faber Haus-Von Balthasar who is our leading conservative theologian !
