DESCRIPTION

A study of the development of the power, the influence, and the limitations of the chief executive, including the President of the United States, state governors, and other executives in the American System.

REQUIREMENTS

1. Each student is responsible for assigned readings and should keep a looseleaf notebook of class materials.
2. Participation is an essential part of class. Reading assignments should be completed before the class meets. Be prepared to discuss textbook material, readings, and current events. Each student will lead discussion of specific assigned readings.
3. Regular attendance is required.
4. Students will be tested on the lecture, reading, and discussion material through three short answer and essay exams. (30% apiece)
5. Each student will make an oral presentation (10-20 minutes) on a topic related to the presidency. Presentations will be scheduled between April 17 and May 1, and must be accompanied by a 5-7 page brief, typed and double-spaced. (10%)
6. Students are encouraged to visit one of the presidential libraries as a source of ideas and research materials. The Johnson Library is located on the University of Texas campus in Austin and the Bush Library is at Texas A & M in College Station.
