    - c. Europe of Christianity

- d. Middle East of Islam
  - 1) Ultimate unstable transition zone
  - 2) Precursor of Hodgson's Oikoumene
- 9. Geographical Pivot: The Steppe Lands
- 10. Columbian Epoch [Western Europe Covered the Oceans with Its Fleets]
  - a. Discovery of a sea route to India [Portugal's Vasco da Gama, 1498]
  - b. End run around a geopolitical cage
- 11. Russian Expansion on Land
  - a. Siberia
  - b. Granary of the southwestern steppe [Ukraine]
  - c. Russia outflanked the Islamic Iranian world
  - d. Liberal sea power vs. reactionary land power
    - 1) Similar to Athens vs. Sparta
  - e. USA: An island nation bordered by two oceans
- 12. Steam and the Suez Canal [c. 1870]
  - a. Mobility of sea power around the southern rimland of Eurasia
  - b. Railways [a major factor in the Civil War and wars of German unification]
- 13. The Pivot Region's Location: Vast Area of Euro-Asia Inaccessible to Ships
- 14. Centrality of an Expanded Russia
  - a. Gates of the marginal regions of Eurasia
  - b. Tectonic forces of geography and technology
  - c. Russo-Japanese War
- 15. Rise of the Soviet Union
  - a. Struggles for Mackinder's rimlands
  - b. Expansion of Soviet railways
  - c. Rimland bases and the containment strategy
  - d. Chinese migration
- C. MACKINDER'S DEMOCRATIC IDEAS AND REALITY (69-74)
  - 1. His Limited Imperialism
  - 2. Limited Geographical Determinist
    - a. Human agency can overcome the dictates of geography
    - b. Aron defended Mackinder: Geography can be conquered through technological innovation
  - 3. Human Victory Consists in Our Rising Superior to Mere Fatalism
  - 4. Geography Must Be Treated with the greatest Knowledge and Respect
  - 5. Niccolò Machiavelli's *The Prince
    - a. "Instructional guide for those who do not accept fate and require the utmost cunning to vanquish more powerful forces"
    - b. It is a challenge to rise above predetermined reality
  - 6. Mackinder Was the Opposite of a Determinist
    - a. He was open to the ironies of history as they unfolded
  - 7. Mackinder's Anticipation of a Global, Not Merely Continental, System
    - a. The Continental System was dying in 1904
      - 1) It had been a product of the Congress of Vienna
    - b. Struggle for the Heartland
    - c. 1919 Warning: Unresolved Duel between Sea Power and Land Power

    - c. Challenge of Persian land power
    - d. Macedonian landmen and mountaineers
    - e. Macedonian conquest turned the Aegean into a closed sea
    - f. Roman and later Saracen [Arab] conquests
  - 9. Petersburg vs. Moscow
  - 10. Dry-Land Area [of the World-Promontory] as a Vast Cape
    - a. Closed System

- b. World Island
    - c. Eurasia
  - 11. Old World Has Become Insular
    - a. British sea-power encompassed the World Promontory
  - 12. Indian Ocean: Vascular Center of the World Economy
- D. HEARTLAND THESIS (74-78)
  - 1. Simplistic Dictum
  - 2. Collapse of Empires: Austro-Hungarian, Ottoman, [German, Russian]
  - 3. Tier of Independent Buffer States
    - a. Eastern Europe: key to the Heartland
    - b. James Fairgrieve's idea of a crush zone
    - c. Bolshevik Russia: A Jacobin [French Revolutionary] Czardom
  - 4. Mackinder's Miscalculation
    - a. Arnold Toynbee recognized that German dominance would result from national self-determination
    - b. German conquests in Eastern Europe became Cold War Soviet satellites
    - c. Mackinder's Wilsonian idealism
    - d. Ideal of a league of democracies
  - 5. Location of the Heartland
    - a. "Heartland" was originally Fairgrieve's term
    - b. Tibetan and Mongolian uplands added to the Pivot area
    - c. So was the belt of countries from Scandinavia to Anatolia [Turkey]
    - d. Middle East: passage-land from Europe to the Indies
    - e. Arabia, like Europe, is heavily influenced by the Heartland
    - f. Iranian plateau connects the Heartland to Arabia
  - 6. Greece
    - a. Only buffer land that did not fall into the Soviet orbit after WWII
    - b. Part of the strategic southern ridgeline of NATO
  - 7. Relative Insularity of the Monsoon Lands of India and China
  - 8. Use of the Eurasian Center as a Referent Point
    - a. Wealth in oil and strategic minerals and metals
    - b. Heartland: a register of power around the World-Island
    - c. Soviet Union: preeminent land power
    - d. Soviet quest of sea power led to its Afghanistan misadventure
    - e. Principal geopolitical dilemma of our time: Russia's current effort to reconsolidate the Heartland

CHAPTER FIVE: THE NAZI DISTORTION

Outline

- A. HEIRS TO LAND POWER (79-80)
  - 1. Russia's Historically Deep Insecurity
  - 2. Germany
    - a. Unification under Otto von Bismarck
    - b. Wilhelm II's abjuration of Bismarck's caution
    - c. Discrediting of geopolitics and geography
- B. GEOPOLITIK
  - 1. Friedrich Ratzel
    - a. Lebensraum
    - b. Friedrich List
    - c. Charles Darwin
    - d. Idea of the organic-biological state
  - 2. Rudolf Kjellén
    - a. Sweden's past grandeur: Gustavus Adolphus and Charles XII
    - b. Greater Germany
    - c. German railway to Mesopotamia [the link to Baghdad was completed in 1940]
    - d. Volkstaat [people's state] would require a large amount of Lebensraum
    - e. Annihilation of the individual
  - 3. Karl Haushofer
  - 4. Robert Strausz-Hupé
    - a. Foreign Policy Research Institute
- C. STRAUZ-HUPÉ'S CRITIQUE OF NAZI GEOPOLITIK
  - 1. Karl Haushofer
    - a. Rise of Japan
    - b. Rudolf Hess
    - c. Adolf Hitler
    - d. Mein Kampf
    - e. Mackinder on Land-Locked Peoples
  - 2. Mackinder on the Limits of Sea Power
    - a. Threat of German naval development
    - b. Industrial Revolution meant a world of big states
    - c. Haushofer's mystical view of the Heartland
      - 1) Strategic citadel [fortress] into which vital industries could be withdrawn [An analogy may be made with the ancient walls from Athens to Piraeus]
  - 3. Haushofer's Inversion of Mackinder's Thesis
    - a. Call for the extinction of the independent states of Eastern Europe
    - b. Goal: Dissolve the British Empire and break up the Soviet Union
      - 1) One-third of German people were seen as living under alien rule
    - c. German New World Order: presupposed Greater East Asia and Pan America
  - 4. Mackinder's Edwardian Viewpoint
    - a. Fear of Russia [cf. the Crimean War and threats to India]
    - b. Fixation on buffer states
    - c. Strausz-Hupé absolves the more individualistic Mackinder of the Germanic yearning for "Wagnerian finality" [reference to Richard Wagner's Ring of the Nibelungen cycle that ended with the Götterdämmerung, "twilight of the gods"]
  - 5. Haushofer's Crazy and Dreamy Ideology
    - a. Coherent doctrine of empire
    - b. Overthrow of the balance of power [the League of Nations had already overthrown it in the name of collective security]
    - c. Perversion of Lord George Curzon's lecture on frontiers
      - 1) Decadent nations seek stable borders; virile ones build roads instead [Versailles Treaty fixed western borders but left eastern borders fluid]
    - d. Nihilistic warfare for space
  - 6. Haushofer's Lack of Fixed Principles
    - a. Molotov-Ribbentrop [Russo-German] Pact, August 1939 [Germany invaded Poland on September 1 and the Soviet Union invaded on September 1]

- b. Invasion of Russia, June 1941
- c. Haushofer's fall from favor
- d. Postwar double suicide of Haushofer and his wife
- D. STRAUZ-HUPÉ GETS THE FINAL WORD (86-88)
  - 1. Geopolitik Regarded as the Master Plan for Conquest
  - 2. Strausz-Hupé's Aim [He Later Coauthored Protracted Conflict]
    - a. Postwar U.S. role
  - 3. Industrial Age Technology
    - a. Air power
    - b. Advantage of big states
    - c. Postindustrial age
  - 4. Frontiers
    - a. Origin of the sovereign state in war
    - b. Curzon: Frontier wars will increase as "the habitable globe shrinks"
    - c. Crowding of the planet
    - d. Result: Crisis of room follows from Mackinder's idea of a closed system

Review

Russia's deep insecurity	Otto von Bismarck	Geopolitik
Friedrich Ratzel	Rudolf Kjellén	Karl Haushofer
Robert Straus-Hupé	Rudolf Hess	Adolf Hitler
alien rule	German New World Order	doctrine of empire
balance of power	Lord Curzon	Molotov-Ribbentrop Pact

CHAPTER SIX: THE RIMLAND THESIS

Outline

- A. NICHOLAS J. SPYKMAN (89-90)
  - 1. Background
  - 2. "Most Favored Nation from the Point of View of Location"
  - 3. State of International Anarchy
    - a. Safety of balanced power, not domination
    - b. Power configurations of the postwar world foreseen
- B. WESTERN HEMISPHERE (91-95)
  - 1. History Is Made in the Temperate Latitudes of the Northern Hemisphere
    - a. Southern hemisphere
    - b. Relative lack of solar energy compared to the tropics
    - c. Polar regions
    - d. Mackinder's wilderness girdle
      - 1) United States as the last great, relatively empty tract
    - e. Spykman: America prospered due to its favorable locations for harbors
  - 2. United States as Hemispheric Hegemon [Hegemony Is Leadership]
    - a. Power to spare for activities outside the New World
    - b. South America
  - 3. American Mediterranean: Greater Caribbean Sea
    - a. Comparison with Athens and Rome
    - b. Spanish-American War
    - c. Caribbean basin
    - d. Amazonian divide [cf. the Sahara as a divide]
  - 4. Southern Cone
    - a. Andes

- b. Chile and Peru
    - c. Yawning distances
  - 5. Negative Flip Side: An Unstable Latin America
    - a. Drug war
    - b. Hugo Chavez [and his Bolivarian Revolution]
    - c. Globalization has meant an uncomfortably closer relation
  - 6. Worldwide Nazi Threat
    - a. U.S. had no geographical advantage in the Southern Cone
    - b. Equidistant zone
    - c. American dilemma: Potential Nazi encirclement strategy [United States secretly negotiated to purchase the Danish West Indies, 1915-1916, to avoid possible German annexation]
  - 7. Foreign Inroads
    - a. Europe, Japan, and China
- C. HEARTLAND AND RIMLAND (96-98)
  - 1. Mackinder's Influence
    - a. Russia's attempt to break through the encircling ring of border (buffer) states
  - 2. Geography of the Heartland
    - a. Soviet empire
    - b. Heartland lies to the north of the belt of mountain and tableland [Anatolian and Persian plateaus]
  - 3. Demographic Giants of the Outer Marginal Crescent: The Rimland
    - a. Maritime-orientation
  - 4. Convergence of Their Thinking
    - a. Dream of the Soviet Union
  - 5. Spykman's Explanatory Advantage
    - a. Threat by Axis powers
  - 6. Cold War
    - a. George Kennan's Containment Strategy
      - 1) Long Telegram
      - 2) Containment = Encirclement
    - b. Kennan's Rimland focus
    - c. Henry Kissinger on limited war
    - d. Battlegrounds along the periphery of communism
- D. SPYKMAN'S FUTUROLOGY (98-102)
  - 1. Germany Seen as a Counterweight to Russia
  - 2. Japan Seen as a Counterweight to China
    - a. Thus serving a similar function as Britain
  - 3. Asiatic Mediterranean: Sea of Japan, East and South China Seas
    - a. Chinese air power
  - 4. Opposition to a United Europe
    - a. Balance of power is more advantageous to American interests
    - b. Dilemma posed by a federal Europe: it would weaken American significance as an Atlantic power and weaken its position in the Western hemisphere
    - c. European superstate would compete for influence over the Southern Cone
  - 5. Spykman's Difference from Kennan's Containment Policy
    - a. Kennan put his faith in the Western way of life
    - b. Spykman's cold-blooded analysis
    - c. Strategic thinking in terms of a round earth and three-dimensional warfare
  - 6. Mackinder's Closed System
    - a. World of multiple hegemonies
      - 1) Regional behemoths
  - 7. Northern Polar Map [cf. Alexander de Seversky]
    - a. Concentration of northern land masses
    - b. Starfish-like southern dispersion
    - c. Northern baselines of world politics

- d. South America and Africa
- e. Polar routes
  - 1) Arctic warming will give new meaning to sea power
- f. Effects of global warming
- 8. Northern Hemisphere
  - a. World Island
  - b. North America as its most significant satellite
  - c. Rimland
  - d. Check on Russian Heartland
  - e. Arctic: Hub of planes and ships
  - f. Indian Ocean as a maritime interstate highway
- 9. World of Subtle Power Arrangements

Review

Nicholas J. Spykman	wilderness girdle	hegemony
American Mediterranean	Amazonian divide	Southern Cone
Hugo Chavez	Nazi encirclement strategy	Rimland
maritime-orientation	George Kennan	containment strategy
Henry Kissinger	balance of power	dilemma posed by a federal Europe polar routes

CHAPTER SEVEN: THE ALLURE OF SEA POWER

- A. ALFRED THAYER MAHAN (1857-1914)
  - 1. Indian and Pacific Oceans as the Hinges of Geopolitical Destiny
  - 2. Russia's Vulnerability
    - a. Dissatisfaction and aggression
    - b. The debatable ground: Rimland
  - 3. Eurasian Heartland
    - a. China
    - b. Afghanistan and Iran
    - c. Middle East
    - d. Indian Ocean littoral
  - 4. Flaws in the Sea power Doctrine
    - a. Germany seized the opportunity to organize and mobilize for total war
  - 5. Sea Power Expansion of the United States around the World
    - a. Mahan's lusty imperialism
    - b. Concentration of naval power
  - 6. Multinational System of Maritime Alliances [particularly with Britain]
  - 7. Influence of Sea Power upon History, 1660-1783
    - a. The sea is the "wide common"
  - 8. Need for Far-Sightedness
    - a. Weakness of despotism and fierce avarice
    - b. Ignorance of both tragedy and the sea
  - 9. Control of the Seas
    - a. American victory in war for independence due to France's control of the seas
    - b. Second Punic War: Roman sea power forced Hannibal to cross the Alps
    - c. Navy as a light corps
  - 10. Possession of Overbearing Power on the Sea Is Crucial
  - 11. England and America
    - a. American disadvantage: distance from Eurasian ports
    - b. Isthmian canal
    - c. Transformation of the Caribbean

12. Panama Canal
  - a. Factors that led to its construction
13. Mahan's Call for Global Sea Power
  - a. Spanish American War [American Anti-Imperialist League opposed annexation of the Philippines]
  - b. Mahan recognized that America would be drawn into power struggles
14. Norman Angell
  - a. His critique of Mahan's supposed determinism
  - b. A defense
15. Angell's Flawed Treatise: The Great Illusion
16. Latter-Day Mahanians: Indian and Chinese Strategists
17. Julian Corbett
  - a. Need for a "fleet in being"
  - b. Subsequent downsizing of the Royal Navy
18. Current Downsizing of the United States Navy [cf. "penny-wise, pound-foolish"]
  - a. Naval allies
  - b. World is interconnected in pulsing demographic ganglia
  - c. Spirit of collective security
19. Two Military Realities in the World-Promontory
  - a. U.S. Navy
  - b. Rising power of China and India
  - c. John Mearsheimer on the security benefits of hegemony

Review

Alfred Thayer Mahan	debatable ground	littoral
imperialism	Second Punic War	Hannibal
distance from Eurasian ports	Panama Canal factors	Spanish American War
Norman Angell	Julian Corbett	collective security security benefits of hegemony

CHAPTER EIGHT: THE "CRISIS OF ROOM"

Outline

- A. FIRE IN THE EAST (114-19)
  1. Paul Bracken
    - a. Conceptual map of Eurasia
    - b. "Crisis of room"
    - c. John von Neumann [mathematician who was a pioneer in computer science, games theory, and quantum mechanics]
    - d. Finite size of the earth
  2. Appeal of Nationalism and Growth of Military Power
    - a. Technologies of war and wealth creation
    - b. The Army: an instrument of mass indoctrination
      - 1) Initially focused inwardly: nation-building
    - c. Gradual shift to an outward focus
    - d. Geography is no longer a cushion; it is a prison
  3. Multipolar Balance of Terror
    - a. Death of distance
    - b. North Korean missile launch over Japan, 1998
    - c. Concept of Asia created by western powers starting with the Portuguese
      - 1) It was deconstructed into separate regions during the Cold War

- d. Pacific Basin
- e. U.S. Military hegemony is receding
- f. Asia enlarges as subunits collapse
  - 1) It is becoming a claustrophobic and volatile conglomeration [cf. René Girard on the crisis of degree or loss of differentiation, making rivalry more destructive. See A Theater of Envy, pp. 164-65]
- 4. Alliances Did Not Matter Much in Asia [Unlike the Situation in Europe]
  - a. Now it is missiles and WMDs rather than infantry forces that are being built
  - b. Naval and marine patrols
  - c. India vs. China
  - d. Consequence: a shrinking Eurasian chessboard
- 5. Disruptive Technologies
- 6. Extension of Iran to Israel's Doorstep
  - a. Vulnerability of U.S. forward bases
  - b. A more unstable multipolar management is likely to follow
  - c. Preservation of the asymmetric situation depends on arms control
  - d. Cold War uses of nuclear weapons
  - e. "Detachment and rationality" characterized superpower rivalry during Cold War
  - f. This may not be the case in Bracken's second nuclear age
- 7. Analogy with the Spread of the Six-Shooter
  - a. "Poor man's nukes" upset the global balance of power
- 8. World Is Becoming Less Eurocentric
  - a. Europe's traditional balance of power politics
  - b. The stability of mutually assured destruction (MAD) is unlikely
  - c. Closed geography requires Metternichian balance of power statecraft [Austrian Prince Klemens von Metternich allied Austria with Russia and presided over the Concert of Europe]
- 9. World of Multidimensional Brinkmanship
  - a. Obliteration of obsolete area studies programs
  - b. Pivot and rimland rendered less distinct
  - c. Interconnectedness due to telecommunications
  - d. Naval power projection at great distances along the navigable rimland
- B. MAPS OF EURASIA WILL BECOME MORE CLAUSTROPHOBIC (119-28)
  - 1. Thomas Malthus
    - [The modern eugenics movement was promoted a century by Neo-Malthusian societies]
    - a. Youth bulge [Gunnar Heinsohn's concept]: Angry young criminals and fanatics
    - b. Demography of the Greater Middle East
    - c. Diminishing supplies of groundwater [a specter of future resource wars]
  - 2. Crowded Megacities
    - a. Fertile petri dishes for spreading democracy and radicalism
  - 3. Urban Growth in Developing Countries
  - 4. Dynamic in Favor of Urbanization
    - a. Ibn Khaldun
      - 1) Luxury and decay
    - b. Group solidarity erodes and Individuals weaken executive power
    - c. Fragmentation
    - d. Breakup of sprawling concentrations
    - e. Radical Islam is the story of urbanization
    - f. Demonstrators for democracy
    - g. Impersonal quality of urban life accounts for intensified religious feeling
    - h. Reinvention of religion
  - 5. Constantly Enraged Crowds [cf. Gustave Le Bon and José Ortega y Gasset]
    - a. Rumors and half-truths
    - b. Shelter from dander and an effort to escape loneliness
    - c. Breakdown of traditional authority [cf. Max Weber]
  - 6. Society of Strangers [cf. Roger Scruton's The West and the Rest]

- a. New urban geography: a map of intense, personal longing
- b. George Orwell: tyranny rests on a human proclivity to trade human freedom for group identity [identitarianism or what might be called congregariousness]
- c. Protection of a virtual crowd
- d. Media amplify the rage, ecstasy, and virtue of presentness
- e. Obliteration of past and future
- 7. Crowd Psychology
- 8. Megacities
  - a. New and dangerous ideologies
  - b. Mass education: badly educated people liberated from fatalism
- 9. Role of the Media
  - a. Oswald Spengler
  - b. Animosities up close and personal
  - c. Religious and ethnic disputes inflamed by the mass media
  - d. Political logic that seeks foreign scapegoats for domestic problems
