

Christian Perspectives in Education

PEER REVIEW REPORT (EXAMPLE ONLY)

You may submit your review through the preview link provided in the previous email(s) regarding this review or login to your Digital Commons account. The first option takes you directly to the reviewer's page. If the second option is used, you will see a "Submissions for Review" link under the Christian Perspectives in Education heading (blue bar). Click on the title of the manuscript to see the reviewer's page.

Part 1. Quantitative Review

(Please be prepared to answer the following Quantitative Review questions when you login to submit your narrative review.)

Please rate each indicator on the following 5-point scale.

4=excellent / 3=very good / 2=acceptable / 1=weak / 0=not present

1. The content is appropriate for the CPE audience and specifically addresses Christian perspectives related to education.
2. The focus and content of the article is relevant to educational practitioners and/or researchers.
3. The purpose of the article is clearly stated.
4. The rationale and conclusions of the article are supported by citations of relevant research and/or published practice.
5. The organization of the article follows a logical organization and/or appropriate research design/methodology.
6. The organization, language, and style of the manuscript are clear.

Part 2. Narrative Review

(Prepare this as a Microsoft Word document. You will submit it online.)

Please provide specific comments to support the ratings above.

Part 3. Reviewer Recommendation

(You will check off your recommendation online.)

Please indicate one of the recommendations below when submitting your report.

- a. Accept with minor (or no) revisions
- b. Encourage major revisions
- c. Reject this article without an option to resubmit

Cover Letter

(Prepare this as a Microsoft Word document. You will submit it online.)

This will be your chance to communicate privately with the editors of CPE. It will not be shared with the others.