Ananías

CHRONOLOGICAL SUMMARY

I. Ananías and God
   A. The revelation to Ananías—“And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananías; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananías. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord. And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, of Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth, And hath seen in a vision a man named Ananías coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight” (Acts 9:10-12).
   B. The reluctance of Ananías—“Then Ananías answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem: And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on thy name” (Acts 9:13-14).
   C. The reassurance to Ananías—“But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel: For I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake” (Acts 9:15-16).

II. Ananías and Saul
   A. His message for Saul—“And Ananías went his way, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Ghost” (Acts 9:17).
   B. His ministry to Saul—“And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized” (Acts 9:18).
      1. Pastoring (Acts 9:19)
      2. Predicting—“And he said, The God of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldst know his will, and see that Just One, and shouldst hear the voice of his mouth. For thou shalt be his witness unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard” (Acts 22:14-15)
