Quiz bowl team wins conference championship

April 12, 2010

Liberty University's Quiz Bowl team took first place in the Big South Conference Quiz Bowl Tournament held at LU on Jan. 30. This is Liberty's fourth conference championship win in five years.

Other teams competing were Gardner-Webb, Coastal Carolina and Winthrop universities. Liberty finished the tournament with a 5-1 record. At LU, Quiz Bowl has been called the "varsity sport of the mind." Teams play games consisting of two, nine-minute halves by answering a variety of questions on literature, history, geography, government, the sciences, math, art, popular culture and sports.

Liberty's team consists entirely of Honors Program students.
