DON'T ARGUE ON SUNDAY!

“Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered” (1 Peter 3:7).

Is this writer the only one to have observed that if a sudden disagreement develops between pastor and wife, or a church leader and his spouse (Sunday school teacher, choir member, etc.) it often occurs en route to the church building? This surely is no accident. If the enemy can cause even a very brief domestic problem, then the planned sermon, Sunday school lesson, or song will not accomplish that which God had intended.

P.S. May I ask you to tell someone about Emmaus Bread?
