In essence, 2 Chronicles includes the following unique features:

2. The final of five instances where supernatural fire from God consumed the offering. Those are:
   - As seen by Moses and Aaron (Lev. 9:24)
   - As seen by Gideon (Judg. 6:21)
   - As seen by Elijah (1 Kings 18:38)
   - As seen by David (1 Chron. 21:26)
   - As seen by Solomon (2 Chron. 7:7)
3. The second occasion when the Glory Cloud filled the house of God (2 Chron. 5:14). For the first, see Exod. 40:34.
4. The first official announcement that Jerusalem (mentioned over 750 times in the Bible) was the city God chose to place His name (6:6). See also 12:13; 33:1.
5. Three of the most desperate prayers regarding the threat against Jerusalem and God’s subsequent answer are recorded in this book:

10. The greatest conversion story in the Old Testament (33:18, 19)

COMPARISON WITH OTHER BIBLE BOOKS

Exodus:

- Among the numerous parallels between the building of the Tabernacle and the building of the Temple:
- As Bezalel was designated by name to build much of the Tabernacle (Exod. 31:2), so Solomon was designated by name to build the Temple (1 Chron. 28:6).
- Both Bezalel and Solomon were from the tribe of Judah.
- Both Bezalel and Solomon were guided by the Spirit in their work (1:1-12; Exod. 31:3).
- The glory of God appeared at the dedication of both Tabernacle and Temple (7:1; Exod. 40:34).
