Tanning salon open at Campus North

April 23, 2008

Liberty University's campus is quickly becoming a one-stop shop for students' personal needs – including getting that quick tan in time for graduation parties and summer break.

In Campus North, just down the hall from the Arte' Dei Capelli hair salon that opened in the fall, is TAN STATE, a new tanning salon.

The salon opened last week and has five tanning beds. It also sells body tanning lotions and a line of diet products for hair, skin and nails.

The private business caters to college students by offering already-discounted rates. There are also discounts for Liberty University employees.

For prices and salon hours, go to www.tanstate.com or visit Tan State on Facebook.
