

10-2017

Was the Conception and Birth of Jesus Christ the Only Supernatural One in the Bible?

Harold Willmington

Liberty University, hwillmington@liberty.edu

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.liberty.edu/second_person

Part of the Biblical Studies Commons, Christianity Commons, Practical Theology Commons, and the Religious Thought, Theology and Philosophy of Religion Commons

Recommended Citation

Willmington, Harold, "Was the Conception and Birth of Jesus Christ the Only Supernatural One in the Bible?" (2017). The Second Person File. 38.

https://digitalcommons.liberty.edu/second_person/38

This The Incarnation of Jesus Christ is brought to you for free and open access by the Theological Studies at Scholars Crossing. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Second Person File by an authorized administrator of Scholars Crossing. For more information, please contact scholarlycommunications@liberty.edu.

Was the conception and birth of Jesus Christ the only supernatural one in the Bible?

No, but it was indeed the only truly unique one. To explain:

- The supernatural conception and birth of other sons of man—God touched the barren wombs of the following women:
 - A. Sarah, who gave birth to Isaac (Gen. 21:1-3)
 - B. Rebekah, who gave birth to Esau and Jacob (Gen. 25:21)
 - C. Leah, who gave birth to Issachar (Gen. 30:9, 18)
 - D. Rachel, who gave birth to Joseph (Gen. 30:22)
 - E. Manoah's wife, who gave birth to Samson (Judg. 13:3, 24)
 - F. Hannah, who gave birth to Samuel (1 Sam. 1:2, 11, 19, 20)
 - G. Elisabeth, who gave birth to John (Luke 1:7, 13, 24, 25)
- The unique conception and birth of the Son of God:
 - A. This was the only birth where the baby had previously existed (John 8:58).
 - B. This was the only birth where no earthly father was involved (Luke 1:35).
 - C. This was the only birth where the mother was a virgin (Luke 1:34).
 - D. This was the only birth where God took upon Himself human flesh (John 1:14).
 - E. This was the only birth where the baby was infinitely older than its mother.
 - F. This was the only birth where the baby was as old as its Father (Jn. 3:16).
 - G. This was the only birth where the baby had already died!
"All who dwell on the earth will worship him, whose names have not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world" (Rev. 13:8).
 - H. This was the only baby born with two natures.
 - I. This was the only birth where the baby had no sinful nature.