Liberty senior Remi Harvey receives award for community service

April 23, 2008

Liberty University senior Remi Harvey received the Volunteer of the Year Award for Christian Community Service at Wednesday's convocation in the Vines Center.

Harvey, a business major specializing in marketing management, has been a faithful volunteer through Liberty's CampusSERVE and Big Brothers Big Sisters in Lynchburg, among other organizations.

Lew Weider, director of Christian Community Service at Liberty, presented her with the award.

Liberty requires all students to complete Christian Community Service hours. For more information on service opportunities offered and criteria, go to www.liberty.edu/academics/religion/ccservice/
