Singing Ambassadors

December 01, 2008

With five distinct sounds and one clear mission, Liberty University's Ministry Teams perform at events and church services throughout the country to praise God and act as ambassadors for LU.

The Sounds of Liberty

The Sounds of Liberty is the university's premier traveling ministry team. The group — with six vocalists, a five-piece band, and an audio technician — performs a wide repertoire at nearly 100 concerts each year.

Crimson Flood

One of LU's more recently formed ministry teams, Crimson Flood just added a band to its all male trio. Their fresh Southern pop sound, similar to the music of 33 Miles, is quickly becoming a favorite of all ages.

Exodus

Exodus is a contemporary worship band that ministers primarily in youth and college settings, as well as contemporary churches. The six-member team travels extensively through the U.S. and Canada, using today's Christian music to boldly lead others in worship. They served as the in-house band for 10 weeks at Hume Lake Christian Camp in California this summer, recruiting hundreds of West Coast campers to attend LU in the future.

Light

New to the Department of Ministry Teams, Light is a coed band performing in the tradition of other Christian groups such as Casting Crowns and Hillsong United. They deliver a unique message of obedience and personal surrender to God.

Campus praise Band

The Campus Band is an eight-member team that leads worship at Liberty University's Campus Church and plays regularly at weekly convocations. This team deeply influences the spiritual climate of our students through their heartfelt worship.
