October 24, 2008

Liberty's student-run radio station, 90.9 FM The Light, is conducting its annual Light-a-thon fundraiser through Saturday, Oct. 25. The station is raising money for student scholarships and other operational expenses. Most of the station's student workers rely on these scholarships as the only compensation they receive for the hours of work they put in on a weekly basis.
