Ergun Caner speaks at Xtreme Conference

January 03, 2008 | Tara Maxwell

President of Liberty University's Theological Seminary Dr. Ergun Caner brought his charismatic and inspiring style of evangelism to the Xtreme Winter 2007 conferences in Gatlinburg and Pigeon Forge, Tenn., in late December.

Over 28,000 students attended the youth conferences, coordinated by Jake Carswell. Dr. Caner preached on the book of Jude, in a sermon titled, "Immortal Combat."

Other speakers included youth speakers David Nasser and Dave Edwards; pastor of First Baptist Church in Woodstock, Ga., Jonnie Hunt and founder of TNT Ministries, Tony Nolan. Musical performers included by tobyMac, Chris Tomlin, Newsong, Skillet, Stellar Kart, Britt Nicole and Unhindered.

Xtreme Winter, produced by Xtreme Conferences, is a series of Christ-centered youth-oriented conferences featuring top Christian artists and renowned Christian leaders.
