Editor's Welcome

Dr. Marilyn Peyton and I with the support of other editorial board members, Dr. Tamra Rasberry and Dr. Dana Woody, have developed this edition of the Kabod entitled "The Harvard Edition". Dr. Jim Nutter, Honors Director and Professor provided scholarly work from Liberty University Honors Students who presented their work at the National Collegiate Research Conference at Harvard, January 2023.

The board is enthusiastic about this issue, being the first one since the Covid 19 Pandemic.
