Dear friend,
Thank you for your letter! What a troubled life you have! I am enclosing a 2nd personal letter that you might use here and there, but do not forget that my name is a red rag! Some people boil over when they hear my name! (Yet I heard upon good authority that Serge F. Kennen considers himself to be one of my disciples. I only met him once and talked with him 15-12 minutes!) To be a professor in the USA ain't funny - especially not from a material point of view. Over here it is extremely difficult to lead because you are a civil servant and have tenure until you are 65 to 67 years old and then get your final salary until you die. (It all goes with a big social prestige!!!) A foreigner gets a professorship if he is VERY famous and heavily becomes an Austria citizen! All very complicated!
I hope to get my Lib or Ego reprinted this year and 2 new books over here.

My love to your family;

Yours ever and ever

Ernst F. Kennen

An effort to produce an EKL bibliography is made by Prof. Spacale of SUNY in Albany (Fennell Dept.) Hopewell! The books can be completed but not the whole - maybe 3000!!!
