I. Course Description  Techniques for managing and resolving conflict in international relations. Emphasis is on current international issues like U.S. arms policy and U.S. policy in the Middle East.

II. Rationale  This junior level course is designed to encourage students to apply a Biblical Christian worldview and a limited government/free market philosophy to a study of the relations between sovereign states and other international actors, such as intergovernmental organizations (IGOs) such as the United Nations and non-governmental organizations (NGOs) such as the International Red Cross. Special attention will be given to the causes of war, security and peace issues, and the operation of the international political economy.

II. Prerequisite Statement  GOVT 200, GOVT 210, or GOVT 220

It is the student’s responsibility to make up any prerequisite deficiencies, as stated in the Liberty University Catalog, which would prevent the successful completion of this course.

IV. Materials List

Each required book and/or reading will be represented on one or more tests as shown on the Class Schedule. The Nye, Mosher, Mead, and Gold texts are noted on the Class Schedule by an abbreviation: N. 1 = Nye, chapter 1.

V. Learning Outcomes

1. Students will memorize and apply a variety of social science concepts and analytical tools to the study of international relations.
2. Students will recognize and be able to locate approximately 170 countries on outline maps.
3. Students will distinguish competing approaches to and schools of thought within the academic discipline of international relations.
4. Students will appraise key actors, events, and strategic factors at the systems, state, and individual levels of analysis related to the practice of international relations.
5. Students will compare the history, geography, economies, governing institutions, and political behavior of contemporary nations, states, and international entities as major factors that shape international decision-making.
6. Students will demonstrate their knowledge and comprehension of the readings, lectures, and study aids through a series of objective tests and essay questions.
7. Students will thereby become better equipped to understand, participate in, and evaluate international political processes.

VI. Assignments/Requirements

1. Reading: Each student is responsible for completing reading assignments prior to class. The emphasis is on close and careful reading of the texts. Keeping a loose leaf notebook of class materials is highly recommended, as is bringing the workbook to class. Collateral reading is for honors students, graduate students, and others who are interested.
2. Workbook Purchase of the workbook is mandatory. Chapter outlines provide a summary of the structure and important points. Review items are related to specific test questions. Study questions are designed to help stimulate analysis. Bold-print calls attention to key concepts. Bracketed words, phrases, and sentences are inserted into the text to provide definitions, translations, contexts, and/or commentary. All of the readings and study aids are designed to elicit the learning outcomes described above.
3. Class Participation is an essential part of class. Textbook chapters, collateral readings, and current events will be the subject of class commentary and discussions. It is recommended that students follow http://www.stratfor.com/, particularly George Friedman’s analyses, and http://www.atimes.com/, particularly the pieces by David P. Goldman, a.k.a. “Spengler.” The full Stratfor service is obtainable on campus through the library’s database links under S. Students should come prepared to discuss textbook readings as well as current events. If students wish to have more discussion and less lecture, they should come prepared with articles to share, especially after we complete the Nye textbook.
VII. Grading Policies

1. Tests (840 points): a) Students will be tested on the lecture and reading material through a series of seven regular tests and a comprehensive final exam composed of test questions from the first six tests. b) At least seven regular tests, including the final exam, must be completed in order to complete the course. The final exam score will replace the lowest test score. If the final exam score is the lowest, the next lowest score will be dropped instead. c) The final grade will be calculated on the combined total of seven recorded test scores, including the final exam, plus the map test score. d) In preparing for objective tests, please note the review section for the readings. The major readings in the workbook, those posted on Blackboard, and those linked to the syllabus have review sections at the end of the study aids for each reading or chapter. Each review item represents a specific question that may be on the test (and most likely will be on the test). e) One short essay each will be required on the second, fourth, and sixth tests, and be optional on the final exam. Essay topics will be posted about a week in advance of each test. The questions will be drawn primarily from designated short readings (posted on Blackboard or on the syllabus). They are noted under Short Essay for each particular test. f) Tests must be taken at the scheduled date and time in the scheduled classroom. In exceptional cases – due to an excused university event, documented illness or family emergency – special arrangements must be made with the department secretary within two days of returning to class. g) Students who participate in University-sponsored events that conflict with the test schedule may make arrangements with the department secretary to take the test at the Testing Center early or, only if necessary, within two days of returning to class. h) Tests that have been missed due to absence or tardiness must normally be made up during the final exam period (but such make-ups are strictly limited to one). i) It is always wise to check Blackboard or e-mail for possible schedule changes.

2. A world map test (160 points) is scheduled for Friday, September 24. Students will identify by number 80 countries shown on a collection of four maps that will accompany the test. The raw score, ranging from 0-80 will be doubled and recorded on Gradebook. Map Exercises

3. Test Scores and Final Grades: a) Raw scores for the tests, including any extra points given to compensate for problematic questions and 0-3 points for short essays, will be multiplied by four and recorded in the Gradebook section of Blackboard. Raw scores for the short essays range from 0=Poor or No Answer, 1=Fair, 2=Good, and in rare cases 3=Superior. b) Each objective question worth is four points. Regular tests are composed of 35 questions (or 32 objective questions and one short essay) and are thus worth 105 points. d) Short answer points are included in the recorded score.

4. Optional: There is no extra credit, but a student may take a test on the first five chapters of Power, Terror, Peace, and War by Walter Russell Mead during the final exam period and substitute it for a low test score, but no more than one substitution is permitted.

5. Students seeking Honors credit should read one of the suggested books or one on the bibliography and pass a special essay and short answer test (in some cases, an objective test is available) on it at the end of the term. Honors students are also strongly encouraged to follow the Collateral readings, which further develop some of the major themes of the course.

6. Grades: The grading scale is 1000-900=A, 899-800=B, 799-700=C, 699-600=D, 599 and below=F.

VIII. Attendance Policies
a) Regular and punctual attendance is required and expected.
Students are allotted no more than (3) unexcused absences. After these initial absences, students’ scores will lowered by one letter grade for every two unexcused absences (50 points each time for classes that meet 3 times per week). b) For an excused absence, please e-mail the professor in advance each time you are to absent. Documentation must be provided afterwards each time. Documents will be kept on file. c) Excused absences include all Liberty University sponsored events, to include athletic competition or other provost-approved event. In addition, absences due to medical illness that are accompanied by a doctor’s note will be excused. Students will not be penalized for excused absences. d) Students are responsible for all the material covered in all scheduled class meetings. e) A prolonged absence of three weeks without notice to the professor will result in an FN without notice. f) Three tardies will count as one absence.

NOTE: Although you may not currently be concerned about it, in the near future you will need faculty members to give letters of reference, recommendations for employment, or letters of recommendation for graduate school. Your attendance, punctuality, appearance, and attitude will be areas of interest to those requesting these letters. In addition, some of you will need a security check for your future job. Be aware that cheating and plagiarism are causes for a permanent record being placed in your student folder, which will be consulted during a background security check.

IX. Other Policies

Dress Code
Students are expected to come to class dressed in a manner consistent with Helms School of Government Dress Code and the Liberty Way. Failure to comply may result in being dismissed from class, and submission of the student’s name to the Office of Student Conduct. For more information please visit http://www.liberty.edu/index.cfm?PID=19739.

Honor Code
We, the students, faculty, and staff of Liberty University, have a responsibility to uphold the moral and ethical standards of this institution and personally confront those who do not.

Academic Misconduct
Academic misconduct includes: academic dishonesty, plagiarism, and falsification. See The Liberty Way for specific definitions, penalties, and processes for reporting.

Disability Statement
Students with a documented disability may contact the Office of Disability Academic Support (ODAS) in DH 2016 to make arrangements for academic accommodations. For all disability testing accommodation requests (i.e. quieter environment, extended time, oral testing, etc.) the Tutoring/Testing Center is the officially designated place for all tests administered outside of the regular classroom.

DROP/ADD POLICY
A Fall/Spring course may be dropped without a grade, tuition, and fee charges within the first five days of the semester. From the sixth day until the end of the tenth week, a Fall/Spring course may be withdrawn with a grade of W or WF.

Classroom Policies
The inappropriate use of technology, such as cell phones, iPods, laptops, calculators, etc. in the classroom is not tolerated. Other disruptive behavior in the classroom is not tolerated. Students who engage in such misconduct will be subject the penalties and processes as written in the Liberty Way.
Food is not permitted. Students who are not in appropriate campus attire will not be admitted to class. Caps may not be worn in class.

School Policies
Plagiarism and Multiple Submissions of Papers:
Plagiarism is a serious offense and utilizing the work of others without proper citation is a clear violation of University policy. However, no clear directive has been established within the Helms School of Government as to the permissibility of a student submitting substantially the same paper to satisfy writing requirements in different courses. Effective spring 2007, any writing assignment required for a Helms School of Government course must be an original composition drafted specifically for the individual course. When a course requirement in an upper division course builds upon a previously researched topic, and the student desires to utilize his/her prior submission as a foundational document for the new course assignment, he/she may bring a copy of the previous paper to the current professor. The professor will review with the student the additional research and writing elements needed to complete the current assignment without violating this policy.

Christian Service:
For those students not already involved in Christian Service, see the professor for details and other information if interested. NOTE: I have need of students who can do highly precise editing and correction of files that have been scanned using Optical Character Recognition (OCR). Good spelling and spelling skills are required.
