Yes you have full permission! I was in South Korea 3 years ago speaking. Loved it there!

Dear Dan Kimball

My name is Kihun Choi, a student of Liberty University.

I am studying in the degree of Doctor of Ministry.

I send this email to ask your help.

I am writing Thesis of D.Min, and the title is that "21st Century Evangelistic Worship Strategy for the Emergent Generation in South Korea."

For a case study of this Thesis, I want to use a content of your book "Emerging Worship".

The content is a picture of "Emerging Worship" p.175 about relationship between VFC and SCBC.

Can I receive your permission for using the picture in my Thesis?

If you give me the permission for using this, I will be honored, and will receive a huge help from you.

Let me know the result of request to use that.

Thank you.

In Christ,

Kihun Choi

Hi Kihun,

It's fine to quote the declaration in your thesis as long as you give proper credit to the quote listing the following:

Passion Conferences is a collegiate movement that calls people around the world to live Godly lives. The aim of Passion is spiritual awakening in this generation, an emerging wave that proclaims, "Your name and renown are the desire of our souls." (Isaiah 26:8) For more information about Passion, see www.268generation.com.

Thanks so much for connecting and requesting permission.

For His fame,

Gina

Hello

I am Kihun Choi.

I emailed at last week for requesting the quotation of 268 generation declaration in my thesis.

But I haven't received any reply from church or passion conference.

Let me know how I get the permission for quotating that in my thesis.

I wrote my thesis with the title "21st century evangelistic worship strategy for the emergent generation in South Korean" for the degree of D.MIn in Liberty University. I quated the 268 generation declaration in my thesis. Before deposing my thesis to the library, I need Passion's permission.

Let me know the acceptability.

Thank you.
