DESCRIPTION

A study of the relations between sovereign nations with special emphasis on the causes of war, security and peace issues, and international political economy.

REQUIREMENTS

1. Each student is responsible for assigned readings and should keep a looseleaf notebook of class materials.
2. Regular attendance and class participation are essential. Reading assignments should be completed before the class meets. Be prepared to discuss textbook material, readings, and current events.
3. Exams must be taken at the scheduled date and time.
4. Students will be tested on the lecture, reading, and discussion material through a series of objective quizzes and two short answer and essay exams. The top four quiz grades represent 40% of the grade. Each exam represents 25% of the grade.
5. Each student will make an oral presentation (7-12 minutes) on a historical or contemporary topic and will draw upon at least two scholarly articles. Presentations will be scheduled between October 5 and November 16 and are to be accompanied by a 4-6 page brief (or abstract), typed and double-spaced. (10%)
6. Each student will take a pass/fail political geography quiz.
