Convo gains new equipment, audience

By Heather Wehr, reporter

Conversation at Liberty University shouldn’t be a one-sided monologue. Researchers have documented the importance of a student’s role in the advancement of Liberty into a multimedia generation.

“Students must be able to be part of that conversation,” said Whitney Browning, one of the chief audio technicians of the services department.

The 2002-03 fall semester is one that long sing a direction from the valley of the Yoder project center the worlds in the wrong songs and also for announcements before and after Convos.

During the service, a system known as I-Mag projects the speaker’s video image onto screens, allowing students who once again new to view Dr. Bruce Bell, dean of the school of business and government, said. Groome visit her. She has two daughter, one in high school and one in college. Bruce Bell, dean of the school of business and government, said. Groome because of her extremely weak immune system. Bell said that many are...

In the 1990s, Liberty has managed to step gracefully into a more competitive position in the world of college radio.

By Mariel Williams, news editor

“Preparing for war was... mail to 140,000 churches east of the Mississippi.”

World War II, the Greatest Generation is the theme of the upcoming WinterFest. According to Chief of Police Randall Smith Jr., Liberty added a new bicycle patrol and a K-9 unit linkley said, the bicycles have been used for special events and crowd control. "At events" there are 40-50 officers on bicycles, Smith said. "The bicycles have been used for...”

“...students were complaining that they couldn’t hear well, and this...”

Browning explained that before the addition of this new technology, Liberty has managed to step gracefully into a more competitive position in the world of college radio.

I was hired for all of the planning, promotions, production and follow-up," Stewart said. "I hired talent and contacted the artists. We had to..." Stewart and Liberty are still in the process of..."...

Convo adds bike patrol K-9 unit

By Mark Williams, news editor

LUPD adds bike patrol K-9 unit

LUPD adds bike patrol K-9 unit and to host their first spring services. According to Chief of Police Ronald Smith Jr. the bicycle patrol enables LUPD officers to more quickly move around and have quicker access to parts of camp. The K-9 unit will assist in search and rescue efforts and drug detection.

"I get a lot more direct contact," Hinkley said. "We’re able to talk to and help people." Stewart and Liberty use the K-9 unit for..."...

Some LU students that have already heard about the event are disappointed that they couldn’t hear well, and this...”

"Overall everything has improved," Browning said.

"I think the services have been very successful," Whitney Browning, student assistant, said. "When you’re facing a life and death situation, that’s an amazing way..."
Flags adorning the stadium waved in the breeze while Lynchburg residents gathered to honor those who died Sept. 11, 2001. A sea of red, white and blue flooded the bleachers as more people arrived. The event, which honored the spirit of this nation, Celebrate America-Let Freedom Ring, was held at the Merritt Hutchinson Stadium Wednesday evening, Sept. 11.

After months of organizing and planning for 10,000 people, the weather held out and the ceremony went on without a problem. According to the WSET-TV website, thousands showed up to honor America.

The program began with the joining of hands for a prayer by James Whitaker, Lynchburg police chaplain.

"Courage is being afraid, but going on anyhow," Len Stevens said. The WSET-TV anchor briefly touched on the ongoing theme for the evening. As the other speakers stood up to give words of encouragement, they continued to remind the spectators of the promises that America holds.

In his presentation, Lynchburg Mayor Carl Hutcherson named Sept. 11, 2002 as Patriot Day. "Let us honor those who died by being of service to others," Hutcherson said. He asked that Lynchburg residents reflect on what the people of New York and Washington, D.C. lived and died for.

"Everything we know, live and love was put under attack that day," WSET-TV anchor Noreen Turyn said. "We Americans realized truly what we had lost.

During the service, Kendra Cook Penii sang "The Star Spangled Banner". There was also a mix of readings, patriotic songs and dance performances.

A presentation of wreaths tailored the service to the Lynchburg community. One wreath was displayed for fire, police, military and civilian heroes from the area.

With the sun setting over the stadium,bugler Brian Farrell played "Amazing Grace" and the names of over 3,000 who died were displayed on a large screen that was set up.

As Buddy Martinette, Lynchburg fire chief, made his remarks, the service gained a positive tone. "It is like we are being led, as we are being reminded by the Portuguese recovery efforts.

Stephen Newman, Virginia senator, shared his thoughts on the day and then introduced the keynote speaker, Attorney General Jerry Kilgore. "Today a nation has remembered, a nation has recovered and a nation has shown it will not forget," he said before handing over the microphone to Kilgore.

Kilgore's speech encouraged Americans not to forget, but to still move on and heal from the tragedy. He also emphasized the importance of honoring the lives of each American. "Our wars are raged by ordinary Americans doing extraordinary things," Kilgore said.

Some LU students joined the community at the service. Overall, the reaction was positive. "It was really good to get involved with the community and show the tragic events that happened," student Beth Brokaw said.

Senior David Pitts agreed. "The evening brought the events of Sept. 11 into perspective by getting the community involved," he said.
Sure, you can quit, or stick around and [learn] now how not to.

Take an Army ROTC course and you'll learn a lot about yourself. Stay with Army ROTC and you'll develop skills you can use throughout your life and career. Stuff like thinking on your feet, making smart decisions, taking charge. Of course, you can always quit. But we're pretty sure once you see how much you learn, you won't want to. Come talk to us at the Army ROTC department. We'll stick around for you.

ARMY ROTC

Unlike any other college course you can take.

For more information, contact Captain Jeff Neumann at jseunneum@liberty.edu or call 582-7335.
New broadcasting scholarship awarded

By Bethany Cox and Mattel Williams

A new scholarship for female broadcasting students was announced to recognize contributions of students Clarissa Rucker. A donation from an anonymous U.S. source made the Spirit of Liberty Scholarship possible.

'Buffalo Five' received terrorist training

Five suspected terrorists arrested in Buffalo, N.Y., were personally recruited by Osama bin Laden, according to federal authorities. The那人 were veterans in the U.S. military in Afghanistan who helped other women connected to Al Qaeda. The U.S. military had no indication they fell into the investigation.

Four of the five were arrested last Wednesday after agents raided several homes and a motel in Lackawanna, which is five miles south of Lake Erie. The fifth was arrested Friday morning.

Election workers in Broward County, Fla. have found uncounted ballots in a change in the vote.

Reno trailed Bill McBride by over 8,000 votes in unofficial counts the donor gave some of the money earned for the scholarship. A donation for the scholarship. The scholarship showed her that her discouragement was premature, and that her belief in the power of hard work was justified.

The donor gave some of the money earned for the scholarship. “I am very pleased that she won,” Troxel said. “I have always pushed myself to do more, and to take advantage of all the opportunities available. Sometimes a gift like this is the only thing that allows you to step into your finish line. We certainly are happy to have a servant of God meeting the needs of our students,” Troxel said. They also hope that this story will touch other people and show that they could add to the world.

“Buffalo Five" received terrorist training

Five suspected terrorists arrested in Buffalo, N.Y., were personally recruited by Osama bin Laden, according to federal authorities. The那人 were veterans in the U.S. military in Afghanistan who helped other women connected to Al Qaeda. The U.S. military had no indication they fell into the investigation.

Four of the five were arrested last Wednesday after agents raided several homes and a motel in Lackawanna, which is five miles south of Lake Erie. The fifth was arrested Friday morning.

Election workers in Broward County, Fla. have found uncounted ballots in a change in the vote.

Reno trailed Bill McBride by over 8,000 votes in unofficial counts the donor gave some of the money earned for the scholarship. A donation for the scholarship. The scholarship showed her that her discouragement was premature, and that her belief in the power of hard work was justified.

The donor gave some of the money earned for the scholarship. “I am very pleased that she won,” Troxel said. “I have always pushed myself to do more, and to take advantage of all the opportunities available. Sometimes a gift like this is the only thing that allows you to step into your finish line. We certainly are happy to have a servant of God meeting the needs of our students,” Troxel said. They also hope that this story will touch other people and show that they could add to the world.
HEALTHY MAN—Dr. Gibson displays a certificate he received for his swimming accomplishments.

“Professor swim 2,000th mile on Sept. 11”

By Rachel Coleman, reporter

While many students are still adjusting to their new bowl, Dr. Dale Gibson, chairman of sports management, is already up and swimming laps every day. Gibson is the former Director of Athletics and the longest serving faculty member currently at Liberty University. After nine years of coaching laps at the Bedford YMCA, on Sept. 11, Gibson swam his 2,000th mile.

Almost every “T” program has someone whoVIDLIAY has seen many masters, “Gibson said. “He swam so many times, 2,120 miles, in a 25-yard pool in which a swimmer would have to do 56 laps to swim a mile. When Gibson swam on his side, he almost doubled the length of the pool (975) times, which would mean he had pulled and kicked his way across the length of the pool 144,000 times over the last nine years.

Gibson’s plans to reach a goal of 3,000 miles, which would equal swimming across the United States. However, this was not something he had originally planned on.

“Continued from page 1

Gibson’s plans to reach his goal of 3,000 miles, which would equal swimming across the United States. However, this was not something he had originally planned on.

“Continued from page 1

Gibson’s plans to reach his goal of 3,000 miles, which would equal swimming across the United States. However, this was not something he had originally planned on.

“Continued from page 1

Gibson’s plans to reach his goal of 3,000 miles, which would equal swimming across the United States. However, this was not something he had originally planned on.

“Continued from page 1

Gibson’s plans to reach his goal of 3,000 miles, which would equal swimming across the United States. However, this was not something he had originally planned on.

“The combination between coaching basketball here and having done this has helped put me in a different mood. I’ve had four knee surgeries and two ankle surgeries. I was looking for something that would bring less trauma to my knees,” Gibson said. “I was introduced to swimming in 1991, and it didn’t take long until I became somewhat of an addict.”

Gibson believes the length of the water, and his admiration of swimming, is why he decided to jump in the pool. Gibson is the former Director of Athletics and the longest serving faculty member currently at Liberty University. After nine years of coaching laps at the Bedford YMCA, on Sept. 11, Gibson swam his 2,000th mile.

Almost every “T” program has someone who...
Champion or Unchanged post Sept. 11

Ways to put off doing homework
1. Check your email
2. Go to “late-night”
3. Play video games
4. Call your mom
5. Work for the Champion
6. Do laundry
7. Get on Instant Messenger
8. Take a nap
9. Play guitar
10. Go for a run

By Brittany Reuter, Sr.

"It’s very distracting having a discussion in the room when someone is talking on their phone," said one student.

"I think it’s great for other people to be able to join in, but it can be distracting," said another.

"I don’t really think it matters. I think it’s great for other people to be able to join in," said another.

"I think it’s great for other people to be able to join in," said another.

"I think it’s great for other people to be able to join in," said another.

"I think it’s great for other people to be able to join in," said another.

"I think it’s great for other people to be able to join in," said another.
West Nile challenges scientific thought:

"Sometimes we think that nature is the same, but the more we learn about the effects of the environment on the health of our bodies, the more we realize that this is not the case. As we continue to learn more about the effects of climate change, we must be prepared to adapt our lifestyles and our medical practices accordingly."

West Nile virus outbreaks:

"It is a disease that we cannot ignore. We must continue to monitor its spread and work together to control it."

AIDS epidemic:

"The AIDS epidemic has been a tragedy that has claimed millions of lives. It has also highlighted the importance of public health and the need for continued research on HIV and other diseases."

Blood donations and West Nile virus:

"The question of whether blood donors should be tested for West Nile virus is one that needs to be addressed. It is important to ensure the safety of blood donors and to protect the health of those who might receive the blood."

Evolutionary idealism:

"Evolutionary idealism is a theory that suggests that evolution is driven by a desire for perfection. This theory is often criticized for its lack of empirical evidence. However, it is important to consider the role of human agency in the shaping of our environment."

The easy life pleads Christianity:

"Christianity offers a path to a better life, where one can experience a sense of peace and tranquility. It is a way of life that is centered on the teachings of love, compassion, and forgiveness."

Discourse on the benefits of Christianity:

"Christianity has provided a framework for understanding the world and our place in it. It offers a sense of community and belonging, as well as a moral compass to guide our actions."

The use of Christianity in modern society:

"Christianity is still relevant today, as it offers a source of inspiration and guidance in a world that can be confusing and chaotic. It provides a way to connect with others who share similar values and beliefs."

A plea for Christianity:

"Let us not forget the importance of Christianity in our lives. It offers a path to a better understanding of ourselves and the world around us. Let us remember the teachings of love, compassion, and forgiveness, and let us strive to live our lives accordingly."
• 9/17-18 Blood Drive

The opportunity to give up to three lives! The American Red Cross Bloodmobile will be visiting the LU Campus in Tuesday and Wednesday beginning at 11:30 a.m. each day. Pizza and cookies will be served to the donors.

• 9/18 See You at the Pole

We would love to see you all paying for our sneakers and for our country by joining students at the Flagpole on Wednesday at 7 a.m. There will be a special prayer service where students can pray collectively with others from their home state.

• 9/17-18 Marines Recruitment

If you are interested in joining the Marines, there will be a recruiter with a table set up in the Odell Hall atrium. The recruiter will be available beginning at 11 a.m. on Tuesday. Stop by for more information on how to get involved with the Marines.

• 9/22 Movie Magic and More

The Lynchburg Symphony Orchestra will be performing on Friday at 7:30 p.m. at the LC. For more information call 458-5700. Tickets are $20 for students.

KRISTIN HIOII

GUY MADISON

Hometown: Canaveral, Va.
Major: Biblical Studies
Favorite day of the week: Saturday
Favorite movie: Rocky
What do you do when no one is watching?: I listen to weird '80s music
Least favorite chocolate: Suck it up the colon
Accomplishment: you are most proud of: becoming friends with D.H. and John Crow
Most treasured material possession: my car.
What is your worst habit?: Sleeping
Describe your ideal Saturday afternoons: hanging out with my nephews
What do you do when no one is watching?: I listen to weird '80s music
Pet peeves: I hate when people talk to me while I'm on the phone.
First thing I notice about people: Whether or not they're wearing glasses
Something I collect: Wristwatches from the '80s and '90s
What do you do when no one is watching?: I listen to weird '80s music
Where I see myself in the next 10 years: Married and owning my own business
If I could be anyone for a day I would be: Tim Rice, my roommate

DSC_0013.jpg

bySys, reporter

There are definitely some do's and don'ts of fashion that have been trusted by our ancestors and will remain valid no matter how much rebellion. Liberty students may fight it.

Ladies, Sept. 2 (Labor Day) has passed; check your calendar. Now, check your wardrobe... are your white shoes still viable, or how about those white pants? Don't care how cute they are, make sure they're the right shoes. The same can be said about the rules for your undergarments; it really doesn't matter how cute they are, they shouldn't be seen. Low-rise pants are great, a must for the fall season, but let's not rule the effect by showing what is underneath. Do wear a classy bag, your clothes can be from anywhere. Classics include jeans, khakis and solid shirts. These are not meant to be worn for more than one season, year or occasion. Classics include jeans, khakis and solid shirts.

Don't buy in accorance to what it will be like when you are able to stand before the Creator of the Universe, and hear, "My child, I am so proud of you. You remember who you are." It is so important that every one of us who are in the room and who remember who we are, that going to be?

As students at Liberty University, whether we are a sophisticate, surfer, grunge, funky or classic trends? Buy in accordance to what is underneath. Do wear your potential outfits, get more for your money, and never be out of style; grasp those simple rules.

• Decide your style. Who are you? Who do you want to be? Are you a sophisticate, surfer, grunge, funky or classic trends? Do you prefer - gorgeous, funky or classic trends? Do you have anything like it already? If it does not make sense to make the purchase, then don't.

• Shop for long-term relationships. Brshes physically having to be as true, stay think. Figure out when and where you will be able to wear it (is it within class dress code?). Think if you have anything like it already. If it does not make sense to make the purchase, then don't.

• Spend on classics, save on fads. Don't shop for long-term relationships. Brshes physically having to be as true, stay think. Figure out when and where you will be able to wear it (is it within class dress code?). Think if you have anything like it already. If it does not make sense to make the purchase, then don't.

• Be brainwashed by saving money, it is easy to have yourself in sales and outlets. Just because the bargain seems too good to pass up, does not mean you have to take it. Shop for long-term relationships. Brshes physically having to be as true, stay think. Figure out when and where you will be able to wear it (is it within class dress code?). Think if you have anything like it already. If it does not make sense to make the purchase, then don't.

• Don't forget the accessories. If you have a great-looking shoes and are carrying a classy bag, your clothes can be from anywhere. A smart belt or a little jewelry goes a long way. A few carefully chosen additions can create or complete an outfit.

• Shop for classics, save on fads.

• Spend on classics, save on fads.

• Don't be brainwashed by saving money, it is easy to have yourself in sales and outlets. Just because the bargain seems too good to pass up, does not mean you have to take it. Shop for long-term relationships. Brshes physically having to be as true, stay think. Figure out when and where you will be able to wear it (is it within class dress code?). Think if you have anything like it already. If it does not make sense to make the purchase, then don't.

• Spend on classics, save on fads.

• Don't be brainwashed by saving money, it is easy to have yourself in sales and outlets. Just because the bargain seems too good to pass up, does not mean you have to take it. Shop for long-term relationships. Brshes physically having to be as true, stay think. Figure out when and where you will be able to wear it (is it within class dress code?). Think if you have anything like it already. If it does not make sense to make the purchase, then don't.

• Spend on classics, save on fads.

• Don't be brainwashed by saving money, it is easy to have yourself in sales and outlets. Just because the bargain seems too good to pass up, does not mean you have to take it. Shop for long-term relationships. Brshes physically having to be as true, stay think. Figure out when and where you will be able to wear it (is it within class dress code?). Think if you have anything like it already. If it does not make sense to make the purchase, then don't.

• Spend on classics, save on fads.

• Don't be brainwashed by saving money, it is easy to have yourself in sales and outlets. Just because the bargain seems too good to pass up, does not mean you have to take it. Shop for long-term relationships. Brshes physically having to be as true, stay think. Figure out when and where you will be able to wear it (is it within class dress code?). Think if you have anything like it already. If it does not make sense to make the purchase, then don't.

• Spend on classics, save on fads.
Football preps for Appy State

In case you were wondering what to do with your Saturday afternoon, we've come up with a little list of reasons why Saturday afternoon in Appalachian State should not be missed. With apologies to Dwayne Wayne, we're not using some kind of solemn or serious atmosphere to build us up. We've a pretty sweet deal going here, so why not take advantage of that?

#5 The ESPN/USA Today Division I-AA coaches poll. Specifically, I am talking about the previous week in that poll, which just happens to be the top 10 teams. I am not saying that BYU-San Diego State game on Saturday is not going to be missed during the day. Is the reason, and of course I am talking about the general college football just for rivalry games. We've a pretty sweet deal going here, so why not take advantage of that?

#4 The West Liberty State and the Mountaineer rivalry games. The way we see it, we owe the Mountaineers in the first place for that sweet victory last fall against West Liberty State. Individual efforts in a big game can put a team over the top. In this case, I am talking about the Appalachian State versus West Liberty Mountain game as well.

#3 This is a rivalry game, and of course I am talking about the Appalachian State versus West Liberty Mountain game as well.

#2 You're going to hear Aventis Bio-Services ads. With apologies to Dwayne Wayne, we're not using some kind of solemn or serious atmosphere to build us up. We've a pretty sweet deal going here, so why not take advantage of that?

Aventis Bio-Services

Make A Difference

Give a little. Gain a lot.

The little time it takes to donate plasma means children like Ricky, who suffer from life threatening blood disorders, can lead healthy normal lives.

That's a rewarding reward. Aventis Bio-Services adds to that reward by giving you a reimbursement for taking the time to help these children.

Call your local Aventis Bio-Services today to make a difference in a life. Fort Hill Shopping Center (Besse דורסן General Store)

(434) 289-0769 open Mon – Sat 8:00 – 6:00. Receive at least $20 per donation!!!

Donate Plasma. It’s A Powerful Thing.
The Liberty Flames cross country teams competed at the Lou Onesty Cross Country Invitational this past weekend. The men’s team had a fourth place finish out of 12 teams competing, with 140 points. The women finished fifth out of 12, accumulating 165 points. Overall, Dale won both the men’s and women’s competitions. Junior Dan Ruhe led the men’s team, finishing 21st with a time of 25:46.20.

By Ethan Dubravsky, reporter

TOLSMA: finishes second at double-decathlon

Tolsma’s primary goal, the real success of his book—on the surrendered Christian, is to have the right poles for me.” Tolsma said.

Championship. He finished out the remaining four events strong, and was dejected by 62 points, despite retaining his personal record by 82 points. “I lost in (Karkkainen) in 12 of the 20 events but he beat me so much in the distance running events,” Tolsma said.

Tolsma would take home a cup for second place, but he is determined to take back his title. “We’re looking to host a USA championship here, maybe in Mac.” Tolsma would also like to participate again in next year’s World Track Championships in Austria. However, Tolsma said he was disappointed with not qualifying as well. “If the truth be told, I was there with a goal of breaking the world record, which I did, but I lost it. I should have gone there with my primary goal to have a positive impression for the Lord...and I guess that’s my primary goal, but nevertheless it’s easy to let your real purpose slide to the back seat,” Tolsma said.

While that may or may not have been Tolsma’s primary goal, the real reasons of his trip may not be seen until years from now. Tolsma was able to pass out five of his books—on the surrendered Christian life—to five athletes, four of whom were Christian. “I’m praying that it will spark an interest and they’ll open their hearts to the Lord...even as an athlete it’s a challenge to keep things in the right perspective.”

In Army ROTC, you’ll get to do some pretty challenging stuff. Start that builds character and disciplines, not to mention muscles. In this class, you’ll learn “failures are not an option.” You’ll also learn how to think on your feet and be a good leader and decision maker. Talk to your Army ROTC advisor to find out more. And get ready to sweat a little.

WELCOME BACK, STUDENTS!
CLEAN LUBE SERVICE CENTER
Lynchburg’s #1 Oil Change
3014 Memorial Ave, Lynchburg 24501

WELCOME BACK, STUDENTS!
CLEAN LUBE SERVICE CENTER
Lynchburg’s #1 Oil Change

1 visit $5
5 visits $25
10 visits $45
3 months unlimited $60

Lowest Prices Guaranteed!
American Garage Gift Card: Only $15.99 and a month no contracts no down payment.

18 Point Inspection - UP TO 5 Qts Oil - Not good with any other offer

Mon-Fri 8-6
Sat 8-4

For more information, contact Captain Jeff Neumann at jneumann@ liberty.edu or 582-7335.
The definition of the true fan and their role in LU athletics

COMMENTARY

Championships may be won and lost in the playing fields, but the destiny of a school rests in the hands of those who do not play at all. These are the people who do not suit up, wear a game, or ever go to practice. They are the fans. As the saying goes, "You don't have fans until you win a championship," but we have never won a championship. Why do so many people complain that programs at Liberty are sparse? Why, when we are winning programs, do we overlook all the hard work these athletes put in and the dedication they have shown? Why do we take it for granted that the home opener but travel hours just because they want to support their team? They are the fans.

Feminists have the Augusta issue wrong

COMMENTARY

There was a little headline on ESPN's Sportscenter Tuesday night that read: "Novak denies Kournikova at Masters." On the surface, it would appear that there's some sort of rivalry between Novak and Kournikova. The truth is, however, it's much different. It's much more complicated. It's much more interrelated. Stories are actually interrelated. Believe it or not, those last two questions can be answered by a simple explanation. The key is to ignore those transgressions, to play by the rules, to move on. To use our extensive education to move forward. To run your business, to promote it, and hold end-of-season meetings. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members. Meanwhile, women all over the country are still being exploited for their looks, with anachronistic rules that some people's careers or lifestyles, affecting women from the National Masters tournament due to the fact that the host course, Augusta National, has no female members.
Volleyball takes second

By Deb Pickett, reporter

Liberty hosted the Banana Jam Volleyball Invitational this weekend at the Vines Center on the campus of Liberty University.

The Lady Flames won two of their three matches. The tournament began on Friday, Sept. 13 and wrapped up on Saturday the 14th. Teams in the tournament consisted of Delaware State, College of Charleston and USC Wilmington.

"The Lady Flames started off well in their opening game against Delaware State in Friday night," Becky Rudnick (St. Hildegard, Ill.) said.

In college basketball, instead of fighting able to follow your favorite team. It's tough to go to all the games, but all five of us take a long bus trip from the mainland to Tampa every year, which is a two-hour drive. The games may be more expensive and the sleep is usually bad, but it's worth it for the chance to see the games and cheer on your team.

In high school football, fans are often located in some of the most remote places in the country. They may have to drive for hours to get to the game, but they wouldn't miss a chance to see their team play. The atmosphere is electric, and the passion for the game is unmatched.

In conclusion, sports bring people together from all walks of life. They allow us to connect with others and share a common passion. Whether it's a little league game or a professional championship, sports provide a sense of community and belonging that is hard to find elsewhere.