Deans of speakers from around the country will address the Student Occupational Super Conference, a program that has been going on at Liberty for 20 years now. Carson felt it was important to bring the event back to the campus this year.

Students from the arts, sciences, and business were all represented in the Student Occupational Super Conference. A range of topics was presented, from job search strategies to internships and networking.

The Student Occupational Super Conference is an annual event that brings students together to discuss their future plans and career opportunities. It is a great way for students to get advice from professionals in their field and to network with other students who are also looking for opportunities.

Construction on student center to begin soon

By Laurie Williams, reporter

While DeSileski enjoys being close to customers, members of the administration work well in their roles to plan for a new student center. The project began possible last spring, when DeSileski and President Jerry Falwell met to discuss the next steps. The focus was on creating a space that would be a hub for students and faculty, a place where they could come together to socialize, study, and have fun.

The student center will be located on the third floor of the Vines Center, which will be complete in January 2002. The center will house a variety of facilities, including a full-service cafe, a bookstore, a student lounge, and a multipurpose room for events.

The center is expected to open on September 11, 2002, in time for the start of the fall semester. Students and faculty are excited about the new space and are looking forward to seeing the final product.
when you knew you had made it at Liberty. Where is everyone going to hang out now? Maybe one of you will have the answers. I do not get to see where I should be hanging out. The fountain knows that I sit and ponder these important things of life at night — they can. Let’s see Brian Boitano do that.

Artistry, we watch to see human beings hit each other as hard as possible. Are they ever going to put up another wall in DeMoss for people to body-slam while looking for the next guy’s hand to shake or give a high five? I don’t know of a better way to spend an entire week than watching? I guess I am doomed to a life of social mediocrity. I would pay money for someone to shave that thing.

Kate. She would grab his afro and sling him around. I would pay $3 to watch singing contract? Her singing sounds like a cross between one of the munchkins on Wizard of Oz, and a prolonged wheeze. Every time I hear her sing, I want to slap her on the back to try and clear her mind that she just could not think of good decisions before she made them. Local church gets R.E.A.L.

Published: Tuesday, September 25, 2001

In an area with literally thousands of churches, Wellspring Baptist Church set itself apart as a "R.E.A.L. Church"—that is, with evidences of genuine stuff from the Lord that DWARS (do what the Associates Recommend Stuff From the Lord). The idea of having a R.E.A.L. church comes to West Virginia for a lunch one day and heard the song "Real Thing" by 4Him, a contemporary Christian male quartet.

The lyrics state, "We realize that all we really need just to see Jesus in the real world. That's the church's goal. Wellspring Baptist Church, sponsored by the Southern Baptist Convention, the largest Protestant denomination in the United States, is one of thousands of R.E.A.L. churches that Valdes is proud of. According to R.E.A.L., the church strives to be out the sons and daughters of the Lord. Lest we forget America's past mistakes by Alexandra Reis, Soph.

The insensible backlash was no terrible that many Japanese-Americans came to view their problems as inferior family relationships. What made America turn on them? At the same time, many Japanese-Americans turned against America and not Japan. There is a history of the U.S. and the Japanese- American conflicts in the history of the U.S. and the Japanese-American conflict in the U.S. The American spirit is blind to color and nationality, and so it cannot be too lasting.

Without leaving the state you can walk the land from the coastal beaches to the mountain tops. The beaches are beautiful and mountain experience is unique. Without leaving your home you can be on a beach at the same time it rains blue sky atop you. In the winter months you can hit the slopes and head up the mountains you can experience the breakdown of the snow and enjoy the mountain views. There is no need to hit a mountain to enjoy the mountain views you can be inside the mountain and see the blue sky.

A woman takes off her bathroom chenille bathrobe. The second story of student life is filled with laughter, deep discussions, arguments and complaints that are voiced in the Marriott each day. Not only does the Marriott serve as a haven to students during their free time, but it also provides a place where students can meet with friends and go to school full time. Whichever N'Sync guy is free that day, seven days a week. Since the renovation last semester, there are many changes occurring with the way the students are served and also what they can choose to eat. There is a small selection of food that can be chosen from in the Marriott's new layout. Whatever your mood is at the time, there is always something for everyone. From the popular N'Sync menu to smoothie choices, there is always something to please every kind of palate.

Favorite food: Chinese. There are so many different Chinese places to choose from in Lynchburg. ### LU hockey begins season by crushing NC State

By Andy Coffin, reporter

The Flames ice hockey team opened its season with a victory in front of a nearly sold-out crowd last Friday at Williams Stadium, the Homecoming venue for football.

The Flames explode for 14 points in the first period.

Café LeNoir—Quarterback Ben Parsen powers his way into the net for one of his two touchdowns. The Flames beat the Delaware State Hornets, 56-7 in Liberty's home opener last Saturday.

Score: 7-1

W'Soccer: Improves to 2-3 with win over UNCA

After a slow start at High Point, the Lady Flames quickly rebounded with a 2-0 victory at UNC Asheville last Saturday.

The away match against Marshall was just minutes after Asheville's goal.

Football looks at Wingate

By Wes Perkins, sports editor

After coming victorious from an emotional game versus Delaware State, Liberty University now looks ahead as they gear up for a Wingate showdown.

Because last week's scheduled game against Furman was postponed due to the tragedy in New York and Washington, Liberty was playing in front of a foot-friendly crowd.

New Basketball program: Speakers talk of life beyond the court

By John Fend, sports editor

In the first installation of Liberty University’s men’s basketball series, Dr. John M. Borek, Liberty University men’s basketball coach, addressed the team Thursday.

"It was the most emotional day of the year that was not our sports," Borek said. "We are starting to think about the things that we accomplished, and it is hard to believe the things that we accomplished." Borek said that he knew that it was important to have the right people on the team.

"When everyone gets together, things start to happen," Borek said. "It is important to have the right people on the team." Borek said that he knew that it was important to have the right people on the team. Borek said that it was important to have the right people on the team.

It's also a three-way race.

The American League pennant race has been as wide open as the NL Central, where the Pirates have done so well. The American League race, however, has been a three-way battle between the Orioles, Rangers and Red Sox, with two of the teams having a shot at the wild card. While the Orioles and Rangers are in a neck-and-neck battle with the Red Sox, it's also possible that a fourth team could sneak in.

However, I don't think it will be.

The Orioles and Rangers have the best rosters and pitching, but the Red Sox have the best defense.

In the NL, it's a two-way race.

The NL Central is a two-way race between the Pirates and Cubs. The Cubs have the best offense, but the Pirates have the better defense.

The NL East is a three-way race between the Braves, Mets and Phillies. The Braves have the best pitching, the Mets have the best defense and the Phillies have the best offense.

In the NL West, it's a three-way race as well.

The Pirates and Reds have been neck-and-neck with the Cubs, and the NL West is also a three-way race.
