By BYRON SWENSON
Champer Reporter

It sounded like a giant tornado ripped through campus last night, but don't worry—it was just the song "Twister," playing on a giant screen on the lawn.

Dean of Student Mike Lawver first saw the large screen set up while attending a band show where vendors displayed their products to various organizations. A company called Auburn Moon Agency worked with the university to produce a movie screen and surround sound speaker system.

Student Government President Brett O'Donnell said, "The reason we decided to do this is because of Super Conference, on Oct. 14." He continued, "It will be a great opportunity for students to come out and enjoy a movie in a safe environment."
Floor Hockey Tournament:
For more information call Student Life at 434-846-3150 or visit the Student Life Homepage at www.liberty.edu/~studlif.

Graduate Fellowship: The Pew Younger Scholars Program is accepting applications for graduate fellowships in the humanities, social sciences and theological disciplines. To be eligible, students must be in their final year of study at an eligible Christian liberal arts institution. Performance and fine arts students are not eligible. Professional degree programs such as medicine and law are not eligible. Foreign students are also ineligible. See your department chair or president for an application.

AU-USA Academic Team: The USA Today is in cooperation with five higher education associations. Nominations must be received by Nov. 30.

Wagner receives award for exemplary leadership

Many know him as the voice of men's basketball when he serves as the public address announcer. Some make his acquaintance as he hands out 7 pints for a CLEP test. A number of students have him as a hall parent, and football fans line up to see the scoreboard he builds.

Besides these activities, Coordinator of Testing James D. Wagner is an active member of the Southeastern Testing Association. His hard work was recognized Sept. 24 at the group's annual conference in Williamsburg.

Wagner is a member of SETA, as well as the group's main board, which serves as president of SETA. Wagner has been involved with the association since it began seven years ago. He was chosen for the award because he has played an active role in conferences and has been a member of the board for three years.

During the conference, only two awards were given out. The award which Wagner received is one for which many SETA members are nominated, and he was said he was honored just to be considered.

"If you can make a big surprise," Wagner said, "This is not an award for the faint of heart. There's a lot of thought that goes into it. It was very gratifying to talk in members of the board who thought that I was a worthy recipient." This year Wagner is president-elect/vice president of SETA.

As coordinator of testing at Liberty, Wagner serves in a liaison between the school, testing agencies and students. His responsibilities include standardized and assessment tests, establishing proper procedures in selecting and analyzing the data from the tests. He also hires associate supervisors and proctors for testing and trains them.

Another important part of his job is inventory control. "We're entrusted with very confidential material," Wagner said. Tests administered include the CLEP test, senior assessment exams, and standardized tests which all students are required to take at the end of the spring semester. Assessment tests are important, Wagner said, so students know where the school is academically on a national level. "If you're doing a good job it shows that," he said. "If you're not, it shows that."

As president-elect of SETA, Wagner is in charge of coordinating next year's three-day conference in Atlanta.

Debate wins big at toomeys

Contest continued from Page 1

"I am younger this year so we can't expect to win every tournament we meet," said O'Neal Vanzant.

In the Varsity division of King's, Dick Jennings and Bob D'Ambrosio in the elimination rounds, although Phelps could not reach second place. In the Junior Varsity division, Dick Evans and Larry Suggs finished the preliminary rounds with six wins and no losses. They lost in the semifinals to New York University. Suggs entered as second seed in the JV division.

In the Novice division, Jessica Daniels and Shelley Vick advanced to the semifinals, Daniels received the third speaker award. Also, Diana Hall and Tim Myrtree advanced into the non-elimination rounds with Myrtle named in eighth place.

Wagner is in charge of organizing a conference in Atlanta that will bring SETA together with two other regional testing associations from across the nation.
The Noise invades GMA

By WENDY WARRINGTON
Christian Home

Following in the footsteps of Just Clay and Reality Check, the Noise has been invited to the guitar, Jason Christian on rhythm, launched by Phillips/Greenlight ally in February.
ning the best bands from Virginia
and the Carolinas.

Gaudio announced that the Noise's
next CD, for which they have already the band has played on eight secular radio sta-from Maine to Georgia.

The Noise is currently being

February. The only original mem-and bring in other local bands.

The Noise is a group of LU seniors who hope to become big-time professional musicians. Micah Gaudio led by Phillips/Veggie on lead piano, Jason Christian on drums, Bubba Ayres on bass guitar.

GMA is a talent competition for beginning artists. It was at GMA that Just Clay, Seth Hahn and Reality Check broke into the Christian music industry. Noise hopes to do the same. Academy spokesperson Michael W. Smith describes GMA as "a great starting opportunity to meet your of this

The Noise is being invited to the regional competition in Academy of Gospel Music Arts (GMA) regional competition in Washington, D.C., this month.
Noise is one of eight bands chosen of the 200 entries from the Virginia region which stretched from Maine to Georgia.

Gaudio said he hopes they "can carry on the tradition of bringing great music to the Christian industry from Liberty University."

"I think our music is as good as anyone's out there — secular or Christian — and I'm just glad we got this opportunity, because it's hard to get a start in the industry," Vaughn said. "If Reality Check can win the whole thing, I'm confident in what we're doing."

The Noise has been together for two years. The only original member, Micah Gaudio, has been involved since these years, when the band was just a group of amateur Coffee House performers.

"We started the band just as LU students having fun. We never thought we would be playing the biggest clubs from Charlotte to Virginia Beach," said Gaudio. GMA is an tee to prayer. While the secular industry will
carry on the tradition of bringing the best bands from Virginia
and the Carolinas.

Gaudio announced that the Noise's
next CD, for which they have already recorded eight tracks, should be out in February.

"We try to write songs that
Christians will hear and know we're Christians and that won't turn off secular listeners," Gaudio said.

"We're reaching people that are coming to church but are not yet
Christians," said lead singer,
Micah Gaudio.

"Some vans, cars, or whatever just as LU students having fun. We never thought we would be playing the biggest clubs from Charlotte to Virginia Beach," said Gaudio. GMA is an answer to prayer. While the secular
industry will
carry on the tradition of bringing
the best bands from Virginia
and the Carolinas.

Gaudio announced that the Noise's
next CD, for which they have already
recorded eight tracks, should be out
in February.

"We try to write songs that
Christians will hear and know we're
Christians and that won't turn off secular listeners," Gaudio said.

"We're reaching people that
are coming to church but are not yet
Christians," said lead singer,
Micah Gaudio.

"Some vans, cars, or whatever just
as LU students having fun. We never thought we would be playing the biggest clubs from Charlotte to Virginia Beach," said Gaudio. GMA is an answer to prayer. While the secular
industry will
carry on the tradition of bringing
the best bands from Virginia
and the Carolinas.

Gaudio announced that the Noise's
next CD, for which they have already
recorded eight tracks, should be out
in February.

"We try to write songs that
Christians will hear and know we're
Christians and that won't turn off secular listeners," Gaudio said.

"We're reaching people that
are coming to church but are not yet
Christians," said lead singer,
Micah Gaudio.

"Some vans, cars, or whatever just
as LU students having fun. We never thought we would be playing the biggest clubs from Charlotte to Virginia Beach," said Gaudio. GMA is an answer to prayer. While the secular
industry will
carry on the tradition of bringing
the best bands from Virginia
and the Carolinas.

Gaudio announced that the Noise's
next CD, for which they have already
recorded eight tracks, should be out
in February.

"We try to write songs that
Christians will hear and know we're
Christians and that won't turn off secular listeners," Gaudio said.

"We're reaching people that
are coming to church but are not yet
Christians," said lead singer,
Micah Gaudio.

"Some vans, cars, or whatever just
as LU students having fun. We never thought we would be playing the biggest clubs from Charlotte to Virginia Beach," said Gaudio. GMA is an answer to prayer. While the secular
industry will
carry on the tradition of bringing
the best bands from Virginia
and the Carolinas.
Telephone cards are not the easy way out

There have been a number of complaints about the cost of UX phones, and students who have never had to deal with seeing real live money go into a phone office and not come out of it feel that the fees are not always true. Sure, the fees are between 15 and 45 cents a minute to call out-of-town is not as much as they seem.

This seems to be one reason for the explosion of telephone cards on campus. The AT&T business cards cost an extra fee, and its fees are unwrapped every time that a new card is purchased with the card's balance opened. However, students should keep a wary eye on such easy answers as phone cards for the telephone service.

Even if you decide to pay the phone service fee, there is a Skeet offer on some cards. A Skeet operator called on to explain the telephone cards was unable to tell when the phone card was first offered or when the Skeet service was added as a new charge. He offered refunds to those who had "missed" the notifications.

For those who are unfamiliar with the Skeet phenomenon, the average Moonlight Madness call would have to last nearly quarter of an hour for the student to reach the entire student body until days after the event, leaving a lot of students feeling left out.

Even if you decide to pay the Skeet fee, there are many things which prevent one from knowing, especially the obscurity of the phone office.

"Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. For where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is Liberty." 2 Corinthians 3:17.

Last Wednesday U.S. District Judge Thomas Hathaway ruled that Sarena Beasiey, of the Department of Communications, had to call on students to explain that they would have to take part in the presidential debate process. That process had been set for two weeks ago. The judge had to rule on the phone service fee to explain the telephone cards was unable to tell when the phone card was first offered or when the Skeet service was added as a new charge. He offered refunds to those who had "missed" the notifications.

For those who are unfamiliar with the Skeet phenomenon, the average Moonlight Madness call would have to last nearly quarter of an hour for the student to reach the entire student body until days after the event, leaving a lot of students feeling left out.

Even if you decide to pay the Skeet fee, there are many things which prevent one from knowing, especially the obscurity of the phone office.

"Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. For where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is Liberty." 2 Corinthians 3:17.

Last Wednesday U.S. District Judge Thomas Hathaway ruled that Sarena Beasiey, of the Department of Communications, had to call on students to explain that they would have to take part in the presidential debate process. That process had been set for two weeks ago. The judge had to rule on the phone service fee to explain the telephone cards was unable to tell when the phone card was first offered or when the Skeet service was added as a new charge. He offered refunds to those who had "missed" the notifications.

For those who are unfamiliar with the Skeet phenomenon, the average Moonlight Madness call would have to last nearly quarter of an hour for the student to reach the entire student body until days after the event, leaving a lot of students feeling left out.

Even if you decide to pay the Skeet fee, there are many things which prevent one from knowing, especially the obscurity of the phone office.

"Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. For where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is Liberty." 2 Corinthians 3:17.

Last Wednesday U.S. District Judge Thomas Hathaway ruled that Sarena Beasiey, of the Department of Communications, had to call on students to explain that they would have to take part in the presidential debate process. That process had been set for two weeks ago. The judge had to rule on the phone service fee to explain the telephone cards was unable to tell when the phone card was first offered or when the Skeet service was added as a new charge. He offered refunds to those who had "missed" the notifications.

For those who are unfamiliar with the Skeet phenomenon, the average Moonlight Madness call would have to last nearly quarter of an hour for the student to reach the entire student body until days after the event, leaving a lot of students feeling left out.

Even if you decide to pay the Skeet fee, there are many things which prevent one from knowing, especially the obscurity of the phone office.

"Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. For where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is Liberty." 2 Corinthians 3:17.

Last Wednesday U.S. District Judge Thomas Hathaway ruled that Sarena Beasiey, of the Department of Communications, had to call on students to explain that they would have to take part in the presidential debate process. That process had been set for two weeks ago. The judge had to rule on the phone service fee to explain the telephone cards was unable to tell when the phone card was first offered or when the Skeet service was added as a new charge. He offered refunds to those who had "missed" the notifications.

For those who are unfamiliar with the Skeet phenomenon, the average Moonlight Madness call would have to last nearly quarter of an hour for the student to reach the entire student body until days after the event, leaving a lot of students feeling left out.

Even if you decide to pay the Skeet fee, there are many things which prevent one from knowing, especially the obscurity of the phone office.

"Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. For where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is Liberty." 2 Corinthians 3:17.

Last Wednesday U.S. District Judge Thomas Hathaway ruled that Sarena Beasiey, of the Department of Communications, had to call on students to explain that they would have to take part in the presidential debate process. That process had been set for two weeks ago. The judge had to rule on the phone service fee to explain the telephone cards was unable to tell when the phone card was first offered or when the Skeet service was added as a new charge. He offered refunds to those who had "missed" the notifications.

For those who are unfamiliar with the Skeet phenomenon, the average Moonlight Madness call would have to last nearly quarter of an hour for the student to reach the entire student body until days after the event, leaving a lot of students feeling left out.

Even if you decide to pay the Skeet fee, there are many things which prevent one from knowing, especially the obscurity of the phone office.

"Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. For where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is Liberty." 2 Corinthians 3:17.

Last Wednesday U.S. District Judge Thomas Hathaway ruled that Sarena Beasiey, of the Department of Communications, had to call on students to explain that they would have to take part in the presidential debate process. That process had been set for two weeks ago. The judge had to rule on the phone service fee to explain the telephone cards was unable to tell when the phone card was first offered or when the Skeet service was added as a new charge. He offered refunds to those who had "missed" the notifications.

For those who are unfamiliar with the Skeet phenomenon, the average Moonlight Madness call would have to last nearly quarter of an hour for the student to reach the entire student body until days after the event, leaving a lot of students feeling left out.

Even if you decide to pay the Skeet fee, there are many things which prevent one from knowing, especially the obscurity of the phone office.
W oman was a baby, he would cuddle. He would let me in the air to make me smile. When I was small, he would hold me by the hand and we would walk through the hills. When he was a little boy, he would play baseball with me in the yard. He would go out on the porch and sit and talk. He would always get his hands on me and say, "Oh, isn't that little girl beautiful?"

He was my hero. He was so smart and he could accomplish anything. He was always laughing. He would look at the sky and say, "Oh, look at the stars."

I get to hear the whole long, involved story every year on my birthday. Mom made me sit down and listen to it. Dan said, "Yes, it's not — it can't be."

But sure enough, minutes later they jumped into their '69 Corvette and Dad replied after looking down at the small bundle, "I guess so."

"Is this your baby?" To which Dad replied after looking down at the small bundle, "I guess so."

Musicians pay tribute to Petra

Welcome to a new development in The Liberty Champion. I will be bringing you a music review column that will talk about hot Christian CDs newly released. I will tell you whether you should buy it, ask for it at your CD player, play it more than once, or open your time and money to something better.

I'm happy to announce that the first CD in this series is definitely a hit. It's a tribute to Petra, featuring a Hopeful's first ever old songs in the lineup by some of today's hottest Christian rock and alternative artists who together gave us listening to Petra.

Each band breaks up one song in its own unique style. Audio Adrenaline starts off the lineup with the bridge of "I Can Be Your Best Friend." Then Introducing this band is the Creation of the ensemble called "Your Best Friend." If you like this CD, it's for you, and it's a good thing that you never can come across "I Can Be Your Best Friend." If you like this CD, it's for you, and it's a good thing that you never can come across "I Can Be Your Best Friend."

The next track will amaze you. It comes from the point across "Psalms." It's in its own words, "A few songs were thrown out because they didn't play along with any of the CD's. The song that expresses the urgency of Hartman's lyrics in 'Petra's' sphere." The next track will amaze you. It comes from the point across "Psalms." It's in its own words, "A few songs were thrown out because they didn't play along with any of the CD's. The song that expresses the urgency of Hartman's lyrics in 'Petra's' sphere."

In its own words, "A few songs were thrown out because they didn't play along with any of the CD's. The song that expresses the urgency of Hartman's lyrics in 'Petra's' sphere."

Get what you want

A boy looks out the window, with tears in his eyes. "I can't have my dream," he thought. "I was living my dream."

He woke up, realized that he had a dream, and decided that he would make his dream come true. He got dressed, and the next day he started his journey.

The boy then started his journey. He walked for hours, and finally reached his destination. He was so tired, but he decided to keep going.

He arrived home, and his old friends were mocking him. "I'm sorry," he said. "I was just too tired to continue."

Flowing through the hills

Natural Bridge: a beautiful place to watch the leaves change colors

Golden Path

A couple of days after I was born, Dad was sent down to the nursery to fetch me. "Daddy, how's our baby?" he asked. "Biggest thing I've ever seen!"

As he held me, he whispered, "I guess so."

He had a finger around Dad's pinky and whispered, "I guess so."

"That's one privilege I'll never lose."

It all started almost 23 years ago (and maybe the rest of my life). Mom looked over at me and said that I was fine, but Dad was so upset that he insisted we go home.

Billy the Kid

``If you like this CD, it's for you, and it's a good thing that you never can come across "I Can Be Your Best Friend.""

But sure enough, minutes later they jumped into their '69 Corvette and Dad replied after looking down at the small bundle, "I guess so."

The bridge is situated at the beginning of a trail that winds its way along the mountains. The bridge begins just past the bridge and crosses the second River. This is so named because of the second River, which was highly built into small mountainous terrains. To this day, no one is sure where the river gets its name.

The bridge is situated at the beginning of a trail that winds its way along the mountains. The bridge begins just past the bridge and crosses the second River. This is so named because of the second River, which was highly built into small mountainous terrains. To this day, no one is sure where the river gets its name.

If you like this CD, it's for you, and it's a good thing that you never can come across "I Can Be Your Best Friend.""

Never Say Dinosaur

NEVER SAY DINOSAUR

If you like this CD, it's for you, and it's a good thing that you never can come across "I Can Be Your Best Friend.""

Never Say Dinosaur

If you like this CD, it's for you, and it's a good thing that you never can come across "I Can Be Your Best Friend.""

I immediately stopped crying.

The next track will amaze you. It comes from the point across "Psalms." It's in its own words, "A few songs were thrown out because they didn't play along with any of the CD's. The song that expresses the urgency of Hartman's lyrics in 'Petra's' sphere."
V-ball splits B.S.C games
By KERRY RODRIGUE Champion Reporter
Champion Reporter against Big South Conference fight against the Costal Carolina
Detroit to take out Raiders in shootout; Niners to down Pack LU in three games to win the fell short. The Chanticleers swept Sherwood said, "Coastal Carolina
By JOSH HOWE
est victory over the Eagles shows they still have what it takes to get it Bears are looking forward to this detroit and Green Bay the past Bettis, spells trouble for Cincy.
LU volleyball team tallied a
The Lady Flames put up a good first kill of the match. Ashley comeback, putting down some key plays, including two aces in the first set. Ashley Donovan led Fletcher then put down two aces.

IRONICALLY, THE TIME TO START SAVING FOR RETIREMENT IS WHEN IT LOOKS LIKE YOU CAN LEAST AFFORD IT.

Chinese Buffet Restaurant
• Dine-In or Carry Out
• Hunan, Szechuan & Cantonese Cuisine
7701 Timberlake Rd, Lynchburg, VA 24502
(Timberlake Station) 237-0088 - 237-2223
Open 7 Days a Week
Sun. - Thurs. 11 a.m. - 9 p.m. Fri. & Sat. 11 a.m. - 11 p.m
We Cater To Parties At A Low Rate
Please Order By Phone, It Will Be Ready When You Arrive.
Regular Menu Available.
All Day Buffet • 7 Days A Week Buffet To Go Order
Lunch 11 am - 4 pm $4.95
BEST BUFFET WE HAVE IT ALL!
Dinner 4 pm - Close $6.95

PRINCIPLES OF SOUND RETIREMENT INVESTING

Café: $5.00 a week...is not enough; $50.00 a week...is too much. An even allocation of savings for retirement is the best way to go.

Even if you are not planning the greatest of retirements, you can still use an SDCRD to help you build the savings you desire.

For more information or to find an SDCRD, call 1-800-368-2261.

Ensuring the future for those who shape it.
Tuesday, October 8, 1996

67:00 UVa. Mike Fisher from Virginia 0—2
78:06 UVa. Matt Leonard from Tim Wood

Yellow Cards: UVa. 1, Drew O'Donnell 70:00, Liberty none.
Red Cards: None

Liberty 1 3—4

24:20 LU Troy McLean from Barrington and Johnson
68:28 LU from Mike
35:00 LU James MacLean Rohrer from Brownlee
79:44 WU Scott Rawlins

Yellow Cards: LU 2, Mike Rohrer
Grey Cards: LU—3

Saves: LU—3

7:00, Ben Johnson 86:00. Winthrop

WU—3

Bawlins 86:34, Derek Skea 86:34.
3, Richard Golzi 35:39, Scott

Transportation available, van leaves your own schedule, min. 3 days, lent wages. Up to $6.50 per hr. Plan for students. Mon-Fri, 5:30 to 9 p.m., Sat., 10:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Call 582-

Lynchburg, VA 24502.

Individuals and Student Organizations to Promote SPRING BREAK TRIPS. Earn MONEY and FREE TRIPS CALL INTER-CAMPS—EARN EXTRA INCOME* with an ingrown toenail of BIG toe. Males & Females, Age 18 & over with 10-25 sun damaged spots. These spots may be reddish, scaly areas. STUDY PAYS $100 for 5 visits over 7 weeks. Call for more info. ext. C53442.

EARN EXTRA INCOME—Get paid for studies!!! Jamaica, Cancun, Bahamas, Sunsplash!-800-426-7710.

CHRISTIAN PIANO TEACHER HAS IMMEDIATE OPENINGS—ALL AGES. OLD FOREST ROAD AREA—11 YEARS EXPERIENCE. CALL 845-4163.
LU blasts Winthrop 4-1

Tuesday, October 8

The Liberty Flames fell behind early, but they mounted a comeback in the second half to win the game. Liberty's defense was solid, limiting Winthrop to just one goal. LU's offense was led by Mike Rohrer, who scored the first goal of the game.

LU and Winthrop played an intense game, with both teams putting in a lot of effort. The Flames' defense was particularly strong, holding the Eagles to just one goal. LU's offense was also effective, with Rohrer scoring the first goal and leading the team to victory.

LU Head Coach Bill Bell was pleased with the performance of his team. "This is one of the best games the team has played this year," Bell said. "They stayed disciplined and worked well with each other, which was the key to this game.

LU's next game is Tuesday, October 8, at home versus VCU at 4 pm.