Sept. 24 Set Aside For 'Miracle Day'

Dr. Jerry Falwell, chancellor, announced, "We have gathered on the campus of Lynchburg College this morning to announce the $5 million miracle campaign."

As Dr. Falwell stood in the August sun, he opened the meeting by saying, "Today is a day of great excitement here in Lynchburg and in Liberty Mountain."

He then read from Joshua 6:1-20, "...as they marched around the city once a day, for six days. Then on the seventh day, they marched around the city seven times, the priests blew the trumpets ahead of the ark of the covenant. And when the priests blew the trumpets, the people shouted, 'Hallelujah!' and the wall of Jericho fell down." He then went on to explain the parallel that the Thomas Road Baptist College would face as they faced the impossible situation.

Falwell said, "We have seen the walls of impossibility come down. We have seen the promise of God come true. We have seen the impossible become possible."

He then went on to explain the $5 million miracle, "This is not just a financial miracle. It is a spiritual miracle. It is a miracle of faith. It is a miracle of trust. It is a miracle of God's provision." He went on to explain that the money would be used to build a new campus for Liberty College.

Falwell ended by saying, "We are asking the Christians of North America to join with him in believing prayer for a $5 million miracle on September 24."

On the day of the miracle, December 24, Dr. Falwell has committed to drive along the circumference of Liberty Mountain once each day, praying for a $5 million miracle. The road which encircles Liberty Mountain is 11.3 miles in length. It begins at the main entrance of the college on state Route 670. It then intersects with state Route 67 and follows along the back side of Liberty Mountain to the old Rafter Road. At that point left hand turn is made toward Lynchburg. That path is left hand turn is made toward Lynchburg. This path will go by Dr. Falwell's childhood home on the right. Finally, arrived at the U.S. Route 460 which is the new East-West expressway being built right through Liberty Mountain. Traveling approximately three miles west on that highway, one arrives back at state Route 670 which leads back to the main entrance of Liberty Baptist College.

On Sunday, September 24, Dr. Falwell will rise early and encircle the mountain seven times—79.1 miles—praying for a $5 million miracle all the way. He is asking Christians all around the world to pray once a day, Monday through Saturday, for this miracle. He is asking them to set aside seven specific times of prayer during Miracle Day for the breakthrough.

Because the buildings are not finished, a huge 3,000-seat tent has been erected on campus for chapel and some of the large classes. Dr. Falwell told the students, "It is better than sitting in the hot sun like this today. But it will get cold in December unless we pray to keep the money."

Accreditation

Regional accreditation for Christian colleges is a controversial subject. Some parents will not permit their children to attend a college unless it has some standards. On the other hand we hear the complaint, "Accreditation kills their children to attend a college unless it is accredited."

We have helped four colleges seek accreditation and the first thing that comes to the minds of the people involved is that the damage to the college comes from the inside, the educators and the administration. Educators with liberal tendencies have used accreditation as a club; "If we don't get Horners out, we won't get accreditation."

We do not see "cause and effect" relationship. The problem is not the student. The problem is the educator. If the educator believes in the process of accreditation, the college will do more for God than any other college in history. Wesleyan colleges were built on revivalism and holy aims, rules or arbitrary requirements. The purpose of accreditation will enhance this excellence, not dilute it.

The second law of the accreditation states, "If you cannot determine something, accreditation adds worth to a college degree." Accreditation does not determine a student's goals and aims. When a student enters a college should show commitment in the areas of the college's stated objectives. Some students do not want to study to a college must not be housed in a prayer room. Good higher education also implies that a student has mastered an area of specialty. This is called the "transferable knowledge." People are afraid that some nuclear reaction might be set off should as accidents occur. Others are concerned about the weapons. We have noticed a fear about national defense. The purpose of accreditation, there is no reason to believe accreditation is destroying the college. Accreditation will force us as Christians to continually evaluate our present goals.

The Freshman's Web

Most Americans are impressed with the spectacular, such as a movie launch, a burning building of a superbowl game. Even Christians seem to be influenced by big events or spectacular events. Christians flock to hear the "saved" orovator or the church service when there is a special guest. We should like to go a step further. We would like LBC to be a superbowl game. Even Christians seem to be impressed by a spectacular event. Christians flock to hear the "saved" orator or the church service when there is a special guest. We have helped four colleges seek accreditation..

LBC is a melting pot of learning. There are libraries, laboratories, music rooms, drama auditoriums—even TV control rooms. There are committees which write the regulatory actions proposed in Congress of a somewhat different nature. We have helped four colleges seek accreditation.

Dear Editor,

I hope you have enjoyed this complimentary copy of the Journal-Champion. This is the second year that the paper is being designed for everyone, including presidents, faculty, and staff. It has been designed for a wide audience. There have been articles dealing with the bus ministry and the church growth. New ideas, Christian church, Christian covenants, national and local news, sports and well-known Christian leaders. Page three has been designed to reach national and international fundamentalists throughout America.

LBC is a refuge for students coming to a college that is growing and doing a great work for the Lord. It gives an inside view of the reasons for its success. We are always looking for new ideas and articles every day. The purpose of the Journal-Champion is to offer the Thomas Road Baptist Church family by promoting the cause of Christ. To rally all Bible-believing Christians to the cause of Christ. To communicate the fundamentals of the faith and defend the faith. To tie together the Thomas Road Baptist Church family by promoting the cause of Christ.

Dennis Good is a Liberty Baptist Seminary student and has been laid off from his job. His wife Nancy works in the church nursery department at the Old-Time Gospel Hour building. Their tour since have been praying for more that two years that they could attend Lynchburg Christian Academy, but just it didn't seem possible, with Nancy being a nurse.

But God is a big God and hears young hearts' prayers. On Sunday, February 11, while Don and Nancy were away, an anonymous benefactor left the note below at their church door. The note said, "Don and Nancy, I just want you to know that your church needs money. You have been willed this money by a person who trusted Jesus as their personal Lord and Savior. Don and Nancy, you are extremely rich because you are loved by God."

Did you know... that SUICIDE is the second largest cause of teen-age death?

We are in the midst of a "REBELLION EXPLOSION"...

Since the "Sixties"... two to six million children run away from home each year.

There were 1.5 million unmarried couples in 1977... an increase of 80,000 per year since 1970.

There were 1,100 divorces in 1977.

"TRAIN UP A CHILD" is a series of four lectures delivered in regular Wednesday evening services at the Kansas City Baptist Temple. Over 100 attended for each message. To prepare for the lectures a survey was taken of 100 children who were asked 100 questions... STARTLING INFORMATION came from those interviews. In order to cope with the more than 20,000 possible variations, the results of the questionnaires have been tabulated by computer for analysis. Children from nearly socio-economic levels were interviewed both Christian and non-Christian.

MYRTLE McPHAIL: RADIANT SMILE THAT TOUCHES HEARTS

By BRENDA EASTERLING

A picture is worth a thousand words, and Myrtle McPhail is worth a million words to the millions who have loved her. She has been the "Princess of the choir," a "soul-winner," a "graceful and dignified lady," and now she is finally receiving the recognition she deserves. McPhail's smile radiates warmth and love, touching the hearts of all who encounter her. She is a true witness to the power of faith and the importance of service.

In January 1990, McPhail received a letter from a woman whose son had been taken from them. The letter was filled with despair and pain. "I thought you might be interested in knowing how much the choir and Dr. Jerry's message meant to my son," wrote the woman. "He had never shared his feelings before. Your church and choir ministered to him in a way that no one else could.

"I am blessed." McPhail smiled, her face shining brightly, as she signed her name, "Mrs. McPhail."

The following year, in 1991, McPhail received another letter from a woman whose husband was in prison. "I thought you might be interested in knowing how much the choir and Dr. Jerry's message meant to my husband," wrote the woman. "He had never shared his feelings before. Your church and choir ministered to him in a way that no one else could.

"I am blessed." McPhail smiled, her face shining brightly, as she signed her name, "Mrs. McPhail."

McPhail's smile has been a source of comfort and hope for many. Her dedication to the Lord and her ability to bring joy to others is truly inspiring.

Today, McPhail is still active in her church, singing in the choir and regularly visiting the elderly. Her love for the Lord is evident in every word she speaks and every action she takes.

But McPhail is more than just a singer. She is a "Mother" to many of the children in the church, "Granny." She regularly visits the Saunders Care Home in Lynchburg, Virginia, singing with the residents and praying with them.

"Mrs. McPhail is also a soul-winner," says Dr. Jerry Falwell, "and our expertise as a Ford car dealer are some of the ministry and teaching of TRBCparson."

"I had heard the Gospel all my life," McPhail said, "but it wasn't until I was saved, that my husband went to be with the Lord, and the her car," Mrs. McPhail said, "that conveys her sweet love for the Lord, and the her car was a Ford car, Immaculate."

"Blossom out in a new Ford car." McPhail's smile was infectious, her eyes sparkling with joy. "Our Ford Rent-A-Care make it easy for you to blossom out in a new car. Low rates, maintenance and care are all our responsibility. We are the solution to any of your transportation needs for a day, a week, a month. Here we are, waiting to fill you in on all the details. Just call or stop in.

Myrtle McPhail's life is a story of faith and service. Her smile touches the hearts of everyone she meets, and her dedication to the Lord is an inspiration to all.

The book is well-written and easy to read because of its conversational style. It is well-organized and presents the reader with a biblical perspective on homosexuality and its impact on society. The book's strength lies in its ability to present an alternative view to the cultural and academic mainstream. It is a call to Christians and the churches to respond to the homosexual movement, which has become an ever-increasing challenge. The book is a must-read for anyone concerned about homosexuality and its place in society. It is easy to read because of its conversational style and is based on accurate information. The book is a resource for those who want to understand the homosexual lifestyle and response to the homosexual movement must be two-fold. The reader will find this book definitive, practical and easy to read because of its conversational style. It is well-organized and presents the reader with a biblical perspective on homosexuality and its impact on society.
Single Adults Ministry 'Invades' Rockies,
Youth Workers Find Wilderness Exciting

Since 25 young people from the Single Adults Ministry of Thomas Road Baptist Church boarded their van these last September 1st, they have been on an adventure. They spent two nights in the wilderness and emerged feeling invigorated and excited. The trip was led by Matteson and Damas, who are the youth director and youth pastor at the church, respectively.

On the second day, the hikers encountered some challenging terrain. They had to use rope to cross over a stream and then climbed to a rocky summit. It was a difficult task, but they were able to make it through with the help of their guides.

The Fourth Day took the group to a lake where they went swimming. They spent two nights at this location, enjoying the natural beauty of the area.

On the first day, they spent two nights in the wilderness and emerged feeling invigorated and excited. The trip was led by Matteson and Damas, who are the youth director and youth pastor at the church, respectively.

The youth workers were excited to have had this opportunity to spend time in the wilderness. They learned wilderness survival skills and were able to enjoy the natural beauty of the area.

Dr. J. R. Faulkner and I have worked very closely with several good men to put together a top caliber program for the 1978 Southwide Baptist Fellowship.

The accent this year is an all-out effort to magnify Christ through the preaching of His Word. The music and fellowship will add much to this. When we all return home after the meetings, we hope it will be said of all who attend, "They took knowledge of them that they had been with Jesus." (Acts 4:13 b)

Robert Mark always teaches us a very good lesson," said Leah Baird, 12.

Kevin Blattel, 14, says he learns about "anything the Bible you can name from the truths.

Even though the west St. Louis site remained below 1,000 in attendance, when one counts attendance at all the Sunday "term" of the church, the number grows n by 1,500 and grows by the hundreds every week.

And, most recently, the Calvary Heights Evangelistic Association has become the first in the world to have a college in Fiji Islands in the South Pacific. The college, which opened its doors to the International Christian College, with the help of the Calvary Heights Baptist Church, is training nationals to train blacks to reach blacks. Most of the college is inhabited by Melanesians - Negroid black people. One of Baugh's main goals is to train students who will work in Fiji as a missions; he will help nations take the Gospel to the lost of the world.

All of this has been termed by church leaders as "unbelievable." It's "unbelievable to me," said a Calvary Heights member. "I thank God for what He's doing in the church."

The Calvary Heights Baptist Church is growing, according to Pastor Baugh. Its operations have grown in recent years. Last year, a 26-year-old BBC graduate, has led his junior and high schoolers to an average of about 125 in attendance each Sunday. The pastor now travels regularly to New Zealand, where he has been preaching in a series of seminars. The most recent seminar was held in Auckland in the summer of 1978.

"Black America will never die," said Baugh. "I thank God for it."
