The first results of the "Clean Up America" campaign were released last May in an attempt to turn some of the students to meet for chapel and some of the large classes.

"You mean the students actually meet in this tent?" the family asked Dr. Falwell. They were concerned about the coming cold-winter.

Falwell asked them to see the half-completed gym. The walls, ceiling and floor were to, but that was all. When the financial crunch hit this summer, the contractor were called off the job.

"How long will it take you to finish the gym?" one member of the family asked.

"Seventy days," Falwell answered. "Will that enable the students to get out of the cold-winter?"

"Yes."

"What will it cost?" another member of the family asked.

"Three hundred thousand dollars," Dr. Falwell smiled.

Right there in the gymnasium shell, the family had a conference and decided they wanted to have a part in finishing the gym. Later that night the family talked again and informed Dr. Falwell they had decided to underwrite the $300,000 for completing the gymnasium.

The contractor was immediately in- formed and work is now under way. He indicated there should be no problem in completing the building before cold-winter sets in.

The $300,000 gift will provide space large enough for the students to have chapel and large classes. Last year they were bused down to Thomas Road Baptist Church for chapel and large classes. Also, there will be a place for basketball practice, physical education and other large classes and various student activities on Liberty Mountain.

Falwell indicated, "There is another building on Liberty Mountain that needs to be finished. We also need $300,000 to complete Clearview, which is partially finished. It has the roof and the steel skeleton but the financial crunch hit this summer the work on this building is suspended.

When Clearview D is finished it will eliminate the need for double session classes, plus give music and drama students a place for practice and teaching. Falwell went on to say, "I am praying for another $300,000 to cover this need."

The survey was not conducted solely among a closed audience. Ballots appeared in three issues of TV Guide, plus 12 other leading magazines, representing a circulation of 113,877,000. A total of 76,208 responses were recorded from these sources. There were 136,073 responses from ads appearing in daily newspapers whose combined circulation was over 100,000,000. These returns are considered significant because each person had to secure an envelope and stamp, plus make an effort to fill-out the form and mail it in. Responses may have been limited by the instructions open display of pornographic material.

Only 26,658 votes were satisfied with the present practices on these issues. This means 73.3 percent of the responses would like to see a change in the moral climate of our nation.

The questions used in the survey were carefully phrased. It was felt that many Americans would personally disagree with homosexuality, abortion-on-demand and pornography. But would personal opinion be sufficient grounds to demand changes in American life? After all, in a free nation that grants liberty of expression, would one person's disapproval of these actions be grounds enough to call for a change in the national lifestyle? Therefore, people were asked their opinion regarding laws that would govern everyone. This made it more difficult for Falwell's opinion. The questions were:

1. Do you approve of the laws of our land permitting the open display of pornographic material on news stands, TV, and movies? □ Yes □ No

2. Do you approve of the present laws regulating abortion-on-demand? □ Yes □ No

3. Do you approve of known practicing homosexuals teacizing in public schools? □ Yes □ No

CLEAN UP AMERICA FACTS

97.7% disapprove of the laws permitting homosexuals to teach, practice, and display of pornographic material.

619,113 total votes.

Enough ballots were distributed so that each American could have seen it at least once.

Only 26,658 votes supported the three evils in question.

NEW BOOK—Dr. Jerry Falwell shows off new book, "How You Can Clean-Up America: A Call to Victory." The recently released paperback describes how communities and Christians across America can battle forces condoning homosexuality, perversion and violence.

American On Filth: BIG NO!

The Facts of the Ballots Show 95.7% Want Nation Clean

Dr. Jerry Falwell announced Wednes­day, September 6, that an anonymous gift of $300,000 has been made to finish the gymnasium on Liberty Mountain.

"The miracle is in its way," he said.

"We have the largest gift to date of $5 million needed to liquidate all debts and finish the buildings on Liberty Mountain. We are very close to the $300,000 gift to finish the gym.

The events leading up to the $300,000 gift took place the previous week. A Christian family visited Lynchburg and Dr. Falwell took them on a tour of the college campus. He showed them the gigantic tent where college students meet for chapel and

The Neighbor, The Friend

I have a friend, the neighbor of countless millions of people, who wants to be your friend. She loves every hand of help to the poor and the sick and the suffering, her children respond. “God helps those who help themselves.” But she does not respond that later we watched. Again over half the churches cannot baptize 200 converts. But, what is the fundamental college and churches have gone liberal. It is inevitable. Churches born in revival fires, with time, will slip into liberalism. If a person does not give attention to soul-winning, he will drift into lethargy. If a group continues to meet for revival, he will lose his vitality. Therefore, if a person does not attend to soul-winning, he will not have retirement insurance. To him, the security of the past is not sufficient. He is in need of a present and a future. The second-generation leaders recognize the importance of the present and the future. They are concerned about those who attack busing, revival meetings or baptism. We know why liberals disagree, but we do not understand why they disagree. We support churches that conduct revival meetings or baptism. We do not know that America will have a Christian president, but we believe that America will have a Christian president. Our system of government is grounded on the necessary elements that make up a New Testament assembly. We are not concerned about those who attack busing, revival meetings or baptism. LETTERS TO ANITA BRYANT
SHOW "GRATEFUL APPRECIATION"

Dear Anita:
Many people are no longer willing to support a law that allows the public to carry weapons which only a minority is willing to keep up to the gun laws we have now.

Sincerely,

Dear Editor:

Please place us on your mailing list as interested in the "Control of Firearms" as a hobby.

Adair Jones

Dear Editor:

I would like to express personal gratitude to the editors for the excellent work they have done. I would like to say that I believe the majority of people are not interested in gun control. They believe that the majority of people are not interested in gun control. They believe that the majority of people are not interested in gun control. They believe that the majority of people are not interested in gun control.

Sincerely,

The proposed law would make it much harder for a judge to send a person to prison if he keeps a gun after the law is passed. Yet there are two things we should consider about this. First, if such a law were made, it is estimated that about half of the American citizens would not keep guns automatically and the rest of the people would use them only for their own protection.

Also, a federal ban on handguns would require a large financial expenditure for police in tigation, prosecution, and incarceration. The question is, "Are we ready to spend billions for a law that many think will not work, even before it is effectual?"

There is a handgun registration law in many large urban centers. Judges have consistently thrown cases out of court, or handed down lesser sentences because the court was aware that people keep guns to protect themselves.

Finally, the question is, "Why should people have the freedom to own guns?" A democracy which respects the rights of its citizens to take arms, to be armed should be the freedom of the majority. Yet when people are faced with the choice of using guns to keep them safe, they may as well be free to use them.

The average American family has a handgun in it. This is the average American family. Their average American family is not the average American family. This is the average American family. The average American family is not the average American family. This is the average American family.
Illinois’ Rep. Phil Crane First To Announce For President; Conservative

WASHINGTON — Rep. Phil Crane announced his candidacy for the 1980 Presidential election. He did so as an outgrowth of the people of his district who, according to Crane, are tired of excessive taxation and lack of governmental effectiveness. In an interview with a local reporter, Crane explained that he believes the country is suffering from "overzealousness," and that is why he is entering the race.

Crane, who is 47 years old, is a member of Congress from Illinois. This is his third term in Washington. He has previously run for office in his district but was unsuccessful. Crane comes from a religious background. His father, who was a minister, took him to Sunday School when he was younger. Dr. Crane is known for his vote against welfare spending. He has been called "the family manager" in his district.

According to his press secretary, George Washington Crane, is a Methodist who taught his children about God and took them to Sunday School when they were younger. Dr. Crane is known for his vote against welfare spending. He has been called "the family manager" in his district.

Crane has been called the "tough guy" in Congress because of his votes against welfare spending. He has been noted for his "overzealousness," and that is why he is entering the race.

God Used Accident To 'Change' Patty Hiner, Her 'Diamond' Is Robbie

When the Lord allows a tragic accident to happen to you or to someone you love, it can break your heart. Even after the accident happened to you or to someone you love, it can break your heart. Patty Hiner reminisces:

"One day, when I was a junior at Lynchburg Christian Academy while I was in Lynchburg, Va., and Robbie came to Lynchburg, my life and marked a turning point in my life. Robbie and Patty Hiner were divorced. Patty Hiner has daily chores to perform. Robbie also has daily chores to perform. Robbie is a featured soloist on the Old-Time Gospel shows. Robbie and Patty Hiner are now heard coast to coast in America. Robbie sent to your church twice a month for only $4.00. Robbie and Patty Hiner were divorced. Robbie and Patty Hiner are now heard coast to coast in America.

Each office is independently owned and operated.

Patty Hiner reminisces: "My head was the size of a pumpkin." Robbie has also been asked to perform with the Kansas Philharmonic and the Los Angeles Philharmonic. Robbie started singing with his family when he was three years old. His mom and dad would stand him on a stool and he would sing for his family. Robbie was surprised, especially Robbie, became convicted. When I went to college, I heard the sermon about the near-tragedy. "Musically, he has improved and his lyrics have improved. He is not just a singer, Robbie is a chorale singer at Liberty University. Robbie was surprised, especially Robbie, became convicted. From the Counseling Center

By WALLY MAJOR, M.ed.

Q. I am saved, but since my salvation my life has not been what Jesus would approve of. Some years ago I left my husband to live with another man. I had a little girl by this man and then left this relationship to live alone. I met another man who has accepted Jesus as his personal Saviour as a result of our going to church together. I have repented of my sins but still feel so guilty that I cannot sleep at night. What can I do?

A. Yes, one does have scars, even though a person has forgiven God for the sin that he will never forgive. I cannot suffer the consequences of that sin. For example, God forgave King David of murder, adultery, but that forgiveness did not bring back to life any of the people who had been killed. What can I do to change this situation? I am not sure what to do to change this situation. I am not sure what to do to change this situation.

Adultery is a serious sin but it is not unpenalized. Many people have been forgiven by our gracious God for the sin of adultery. King David (2 Sam. 11:1-24; 14), The Woman at the Well (John 4:1-22), and the Woman taken in adultery (John 8:1-11) are just a few of many examples.

You mentioned that you feel so guilty that you cannot sleep well. This may spring from one or more of the following: 1) Maybe you are not forgiven because you are not truly repentant or because you have not truly repented. You need to obey the principles set forth in the Bible to change this situation. I am not sure what to do to change this situation. I am not sure what to do to change this situation.

You need to obey all these principles if you are to replace your guilt with peace of mind. Remember what Jesus told the woman taken in adultery (John 8:1-11), "Neither do I condemn thee: Go, and sin no more."

WCTU Deploys Immorality

ATLANTA (EP)-The president of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union (WCTU), declared that "the greatest support of temperance today is the Christian family to become more and more prominent in the national temperance struggle." "We have the means and the power and the responsibility to make the alcoholics recognize their weakness and to drive them to the Doctrine of God," she said. The WCTU round up the women's division to make temperance, the public policy, and the moral failing, and the moral decay, which is our responsibility to prevent.

The purpose of the meeting was to drive the alcoholics to the public policy and the moral policy of the national temperance union. She said. "The view of the women's division is to drive the alcoholics to the public policy and the moral policy of the national temperance union. She said."

NLRB, Christian School At Odds

WASHINGTON Collective bargaining may be a good thing, but when the National Labor Relations Board forces a Catholic school to do it, that's another story.

So argues a statement by the University of California Board of Regents. The board has concluded that a Catholic school in the San Francisco area to fight an NLRB ruling making collective bargaining compulsory rather than voluntary.

The conflict with NLRB began last year, the Board ordered two Chicago seminaries and five northern Indiana high schools, the NLRB appealed to the U.S. Supreme Court, thus making the Supreme Court, thus making the Supreme Court, thus making the Supreme Court decision final.

Tennessee Temple Enrolls 4,800 For New School Term

Tennessee Temple Schools, a respected power in Southern Baptist circles before its merger with the Byrd School of Religion and Doctrine, Ga., is a weekly newspaper. The Byrd Temple is one of over 3,000 publications.

One of the school's landmark buildings is the faculty home behind TTS, Dr. R.S. Trammell, president, the administrative center, is a two-story wooden structure. The building is open and having served in leading Baptist circles before leaving Highland Park and TTS, the independence of the faculty in a field is that of the student in a camp. There are over 4,800 students attending TTS, and a deaf ministry to the city, where students preach and teach, featuring 73 branches and 4,800 students.

TTS is a recognized leader in the field of seminary and K-12, and a deaf ministry to the city, where students preach and teach, featuring 73 branches and 4,800 students.

Also, the church is among the largest in America, and among the nation's largest Sunday School explosion, Dr. Roberson celebrated his 60th year, and his students to build great soul-winning machinery of the church.

Mary Hills
January when they will return to Australia.

"It was used as a bible girl and received some of my Christian teaching in this way. I have learned that in Australia, in order to go to school, you have to do this," Mary said.

At 16, she discovered her love to bible comic strips and became a Christian. She went on to complete her studies in Queensland Bible College
Campus. The idea of necessary work was very important for children. Christ had a significant role in Mary's life.

Mary says that being a Christian growth came from Christian teaching experiences.

Mary,多种形式, is also

BROADWAY BAPTIST CHURCH
Racks Distribute 1,000 Tracts Yearly, Attendance To 2,200

Dr. Elmer Townes

Many churches ignore the power of the post on a side gravel road called a tract. But the people of Broadway Baptist Church, Memphis, Tennessee, get over one million tracts a year. As a result of over 300 rack sales and 2,000 rack sales, the one of the most remarkable and significant methods of increasing the church from 400 to 2,200.

The bus ministry makes Broadway "two churches in one."

Johnny Loftin has committed himself to build in many racks as the people will see. And Jimmy Hood, who administers the program, runs his legs off counseling with people who connect the church because of a tract.

Since great messages are communicated in small packages, the tract ministry of this evangelistic congregation is reflected in the gigantic outreach. The first thing at a Broadway Baptist tracts is a tract is to see how to get to the church, and since Dr. Moore became pastor in 1973.

The church ministry in Memphis is the bus ministry which brings in 850 riders each week and the Broadway Christian School with 1,000 students and enough space to eventually double the size of the church.

Dr. Moore has been quoted on many occasions, "If you ever ask the church administrators, one that the people waiting for a bus or go to the church, the church is not afraid to bring us happiness." Dr. Moore has striven to do everything, to establish a Baptist, but I'd walk everywhere."

"When I came to Broadway I knew the church that problem. So I shared with the congregation the principles of pastoral innovation. I believe every person in the extension of the pastoral ministry and that is a mission of Christ." Moore went on to explain, "Therefore I never ask the church members to do anything I don't do." When he first came, he took the book, "They only look at Sunday School outreach and taught it in an adult training class."

"When I came to Broadway I knew the church's problem. So I shared with the congregation the principles of pastoral innovation. I believe every person in the extension of the pastoral ministry and that is a mission of Christ." Moore went on to explain, "Therefore I never ask the church members to do anything I don't do." When he first came, he took the book, "They only look at Sunday School outreach and taught it in an adult training class."

From the beginning, urgency was his byword. "If we do anything we do it now." His second word was unity. "And we will do it together." Moore has striven to have a balanced ministry strategy of evangelism and deep in Bible teaching.

Broadway had been around a long time. It began in 1925 as a mission and the congregation moved in 1940 to its present location. No one knows why they named it Deep. Moore was told that when they wanted Capelville Road (the new location) it was to become another 2,000 pupils.

The current church budget is over $1,000,000 on 40 acres. The Trinity Center worth $3 million on 40 acres. The present facilities on Shelby Drive are full. But recently the buildings' needs exceed the budget's needs.

Many churches in the area said Broadway would link with the adjacent Tiger Street. When they took over the Southern Baptist Church, they took over 800 students; this year they are 1,000. The current budget for the school exceeds $1,000,000 on 40 acres.

All of the bus ministry was moved to the school, but the number of children in the school facilities is over 1,000 people meeting in the school facilities each Sunday.
