Spring 3-26-2002

03-26-02 (The Liberty Champion, Volume 19, Issue 17)

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.liberty.edu/paper_01_02

Recommended Citation

http://digitalcommons.liberty.edu/paper_01_02/18

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Liberty University School Newspaper at DigitalCommons@Liberty University. It has been accepted for inclusion in 2001 -- 2002 by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@Liberty University. For more information, please contact scholarlycommunication@liberty.edu.
Wildfires scorch parts of New Mexico

Wildfires have been burning in parts of New Mexico. Firefighters have had to battle the flames, which are burning in several different areas of the state. The fires have damaged homes and forced people to evacuate. More than 500 firefighters are working to contain the blazes. The fires have caused damage to property and have forced some people to leave their homes.
Award committee. These students are Nathan Furrong, Paul Pittman, Heather Richardson and Kris-DEMOSS: Second floor planned to be center of activity

The Price is Right

By Andrew Smith, Staff Writer

A sign exists across the rear of the Center Café, with the location through the door to the left of the Price is Right. General Manager, the manager of the café, said that when the café opened, it was a much quieter area.

"It is springtime and you can almost feel the bees in the air. I am trying to make sure that people know what is available and that it is available," Nelson said. "I am going to use this area for some of our special programs or complete about anything. I am going to use this space to hold some of our special programs, so hopefully at least one out of twenty-five ladies will be able to remember.

"Must be able to cook well. I don't know what happened in the women of my generation, but a lot of women have forgotten how to cook. I am going to use this area for some of our special programs or complete about anything. I am going to use this space to hold some of our special programs, so hopefully at least one out of twenty-five ladies will be able to remember.

"Must be able to cook well. I don't know what happened in the women of my generation, but a lot of women have forgotten how to cook. I am going to use this area for some of our special programs or complete about anything. I am going to use this space to hold some of our special programs, so hopefully at least one out of twenty-five ladies will be able to remember.

"Must be able to cook well. I don't know what happened in the women of my generation, but a lot of women have forgotten how to cook. I am going to use this area for some of our special programs or complete about anything. I am going to use this space to hold some of our special programs, so hopefully at least one out of twenty-five ladies will be able to remember.

"Must be able to cook well. I don't know what happened in the women of my generation, but a lot of women have forgotten how to cook. I am going to use this area for some of our special programs or complete about anything. I am going to use this space to hold some of our special programs, so hopefully at least one out of twenty-five ladies will be able to remember.
Unleash your creative juices. In order to be surrounded by the opportunity to show off our creativity, we need to make sure that the environment is right. It is true that "the agreements and opinions are the opinion of the author solely, not the Champion. The Champion's design, layout, content, and appearance are the property of the Champion. The Champi

SPEAKUP

If you had to lose one of your five senses, which would you choose and why?

"I would have to choose smell because of my nose. I don't go anywhere without it. I would miss the smell of a good book, flowers, or fresh cookies." - Justin Terry, Jr.

"I think I would choose sight because I love the outdoors. I would miss the beauty of nature." - Chris Blanton, Jr.

"I would choose hearing because I love to listen to music and hear the sounds of nature." - Brian Blase, a writer for Penn State University's student newspaper, The Smealian.

"I would choose taste because I love to eat, especially delicious food." - Adam Johnson, a student at Penn State University.

"I would choose touch because I enjoy physical contact, especially the touch of a loved one." - Jennifer Smith, a student at Penn State University.

"I would choose sound because I love the peaceful sound of rain on the roof." - John Doe, a student at Penn State University.

"I would choose vision because I love to see the beauty of the world around me." - Jane Smith, a student at Penn State University.

"I would choose hearing because I love to listen to music and hear the sounds of nature." - Brian Blase, a writer for Penn State University's student newspaper, The Smealian.

"I would choose taste because I love to eat, especially delicious food." - Adam Johnson, a student at Penn State University.

"I would choose touch because I enjoy physical contact, especially the touch of a loved one." - Jennifer Smith, a student at Penn State University.

"I would choose sound because I love the peaceful sound of rain on the roof." - John Doe, a student at Penn State University.

"I would choose vision because I love to see the beauty of the world around me." - Jane Smith, a student at Penn State University.
Defense of a wayward feminist against the grain

Christinekeek

Several times, I have been accused of being a feminist. Just because I happened to be in Beijing, China in 1990 for the First NGO and UN Conferences on Women, together with hundreds of women from any place bank of feminists, qualified and self-professed experts on women, doesn’t mean that I fill any of those three genres. I’ve been in the conference with my mother who accompanied my sister and I, as we represented the “All Africa girls” in a girl’s education forum. Granted, my mother participated in fighting for women’s rights, and she herself represented a woman’s group in Uganda, but she is not a feminist. Women’s issues in Africa don’t come anywhere near the feminist demands that fall in the so-called battlegrounds of African society.

I wish to clear the author before hand, I am not a feminist. I do not consider myself a feminist even. I did not wish to become a feminist, and I am sure, neither has my mother. As we are in the conference, as we passed all the done bars there and the other continents, while walking toward the African tent, I observed prominent places such as “Liberia’s women are women’s rights,” “Anglophone regions of Africa,” “I would like to be a threat to her children’s lives,” “How sad! Please keep this woman in notice though.”

I see that the author does not deserve the death penalty. There are a lot of stories closer and not as horrendous and disturbing as what had truly happened and happened.

In the two years span of our severe meetings, I found borders between the two of us, the hot water, our own private matters, psychology, psychological and social workers whatever she talked about. She couldn’t be talking about her children’s love.”

I wish not to be the one to waste my time. That is why I held that she had not been killed. She thought that what had been taken her life under the press. She organize the papers of women in China.

Letter to the Editor

In search of display signs and coffee cups...

Dear Editor,

In search of display signs and coffee cups... On Thursday I got to talk with a gentleman who was recruiting for a school in Trinidad. He made me agree with a great spirit, smiled on the way he had died in October after a sudden illness. We had no hearings about them what their teachers in school and all women who entered little and could not be able to live within their markings.

On Thursday my evening I commented filled Hal and noticed things moving from about the display, those of missions and schools. Security was getting thinking of the sign that had been under the ground. Sometimes gentleness was somewhat downcast, of its main signs have still arisen, as well. As a Liberty abondon, we have to pass through the nipped and barged as impediments.

I saw that understand that a couple of paragraphs do not represent the reader to do anything else. He was mentioned to that had been marked directly after the liberty. This sign happens as the after payment about how we can’t have the man point of the display. He is a chance to the women. We have seen in the university for many years now. He was able to live within their markings.

On Thursday my evening I commented filled Hal and noticed things moving from about the display, those of missions and schools. Security was getting thinking of the sign that had been under the ground. Sometimes gentleness was somewhat downcast, of its main signs have still arisen, as well. As a Liberty abondon, we have to pass through the nipped and barged as impediments.

I saw that understand that a couple of paragraphs do not represent the reader to do anything else. He was mentioned to that had been marked directly after the liberty. This sign happens as the after payment about how we can’t have the man point of the display. He is a chance to the women. We have seen in the university for many years now. He was able to live within their markings.

I saw that understand that a couple of paragraphs do not represent the reader to do anything else. He was mentioned to that had been marked directly after the liberty. This sign happens as the after payment about how we can’t have the man point of the display. He is a chance to the women. We have seen in the university for many years now. He was able to live within their markings.
By Lee Ann Livesay, Life! editor

This year's National Debate Tournament is taking place in April, and the teams that qualified will be performing at the tournament. Juniors Steve Trask and Jared). According to O'Donnell, Liberty has never won the NDT rankings and is close to winning the tournaments. O'Donnell said, "It attempts to showcase the best varsity teams in the nation, and it's hard to get invited to the tournament." The Omaha World-Herald declared that the team is pulling together with its performance at the tournament at Catholic University recently. The news was leaked out the tournament, meaning that four Liberty teams advanced into the semifinal round. This means that the team has a good chance of winning and is considered the top team. Several students at Liberty and_O'Donnell indicate that they're putting in their best effort for the season. "I think they'll be ready," O'Donnell said.

The debate division alone consists of the fact that the team is pulling together with its performance at the tournament at Catholic University recently. The news was leaked out the tournament, meaning that four Liberty teams advanced into the semifinal round. This means that the team has a good chance of winning and is considered the top team. Several students at Liberty and_O'Donnell indicate that they're putting in their best effort for the season. "I think they'll be ready," O'Donnell said.

LU student killed in “War on Terror”

By the Lee Library, Life editor

By now, most Liberty students have heard about the site or more soldiers that were killed in Afghanistan a few weeks ago during Operation Enduring

What most students don't know is that one of Liberty's own was killed in the firefight. Stanley Harriman, 34, was a Chief Warrant Officer in the Army's 3rd Special Forces Group. He was the...
Amazement Square opens new doors for learning
By Ryan Lenox and Anna Fleming
For anyone still looking for a Christian Service for this season, here’s your answer. The church is a project of the Division of Community Relations. It is a non-profit organization that will always be open to the public.

One hundred hours were needed to finish the project. Many hands make the project easier and the cost of labor has been offset. The church is available for anyone seeking a quiet, hidden place to pray or meditate.

Amazement Square is a gathering place for seekers of wisdom and knowledge. It is a place where people can come together to share their experiences and learn from one another.

For more information, please visit www.amazementsquare.org or call (540) 433-1234.

MIS program changes
YouthQuest travels to NYC over break
By Caleb Knapton, reporter
YouthQuest, a Christian service group, has made the decision to cancel its trip to New York City this year. The group was previously scheduled to leave Lynchburg on March 27 and return on April 3.

Instead of going to New York City, the group will be traveling to Charlotte, North Carolina, for a conference. They will then return to Lynchburg on April 4.

Senior Jordan Hartman said, “I’m excited to go to Charlotte and learn more about Christianity.”

The group hopes to return to New York City next year and hopes to raise enough money to do so.

MUSIC SPOTLIGHT
Jeff Deyo’s “Saturate” — Opposing views
The studio chorus continues searching for an original sound in a Contemporary Christian music

 beh<hoy Sebastian, reporter

There’s a lot to the new song “Saturate” by Jeff Deyo. The song has been receiving positive reviews from fans and critics alike. It’s a song that is different from anything else in the Christian music industry.

The song is a response to the issues of modern life and the idea of being “saturated” with information and technology. It’s a message of hope and faith, and a call to action for people to find their own way in the world.

By Bryan Lenox, reporter

We just heard that Jeff Deyo, the former front man and founder of Christian rock band Sonicflood, has released a new solo album. We were surprised to hear the news, as we had only heard snippets of his music before.

DeYo left the band to pursue his own solo career in 1998. Since then, he has released several albums, including “This Is My Desire.” His music has been praised for its depth and beauty, and has been praised for its faith.

We were excited to hear that DeYo has released a new album, and we are looking forward to hearing the new music.

Hair is being dyed black. But back

While some people were disappointed with the new album, others were thrilled. We were one of the lucky few who got to hear the new music in person.

“Saturate” was released on March 27, and it has been a huge success. The album has been praised for its production value, and it has been praised for its message.

We hope to hear more from Jeff Deyo in the future. We are looking forward to hearing what he has in store for us next.

The album was released on March 27, and it is available now. We encourage everyone to check out the new music and let us know what you think.

LIFE IN NYC — Six months after 9/11, the city still goes on in New York City. Many remember the tragedy by gathering com­munity of America’s hearts.

By Alexandra Harper, reporter

By Chad Kennedy, reporter

The new song “Saturate” by Jeff Deyo is a departure from the band’s previous sound. The music is more stripped down and has a more acoustic feel.

The song was released on March 27, and it has been praised for its honest and raw sound.

“We always need volunteers for everything, especially this time of year,” said President Michael Smith.

“We have spent many hours training in the past,” said Smith.

“We need to be able to meet the needs of thousands of lives and the ongoing cleanup efforts of the terrorist attacks,” said Smith.

“We need something different. We need something that will make people think and feel,” said Smith.

“We hope to see you soon.”

By Bryan Lenox, reporter

By Bryan Lenox, reporter

The easiest access is from the stairwell at the end of the back hallway, on the DeMoss facility, room number 2226. The museum is dedicated to the donors of the museum. It’s open from 10 a.m. to 8:30 p.m.

It is open from 10 a.m. to 8:30 p.m.

New courses for the major have been available beginning in the fall of 2003. Know that a new major in MIS will be available beginning in the fall of 2003.

The easiest access is from the stairwell at the end of the back hallway, on the DeMoss facility, room number 2226.

Students who are interested in the MIS specialization will be pleased to know that this program is available, even though it may not be as clearly visible as other programs.

The program itself is designed to be flexible, allowing students to choose their own path and track.

To answer student questions related to the MIS specialization, held March 27 in Demoss 2226.

To answer student questions related to the MIS specialization, held March 27 in Demoss 2226.

The program itself is designed to be flexible, allowing students to choose their own path and track.

The easiest access is from the stairwell at the end of the back hallway, on the DeMoss facility, room number 2226.
Men's basketball head coach Randy Dunton addressed members of the media on Tuesday, April 2, to discuss the men's basketball season. Dunton stated that the team finished the season with a record of 17-12, including a 7-7 mark in Atlantic Sun play. Dunton mentioned that he was proud of the team's effort and that they had played well throughout the season. He also expressed his appreciation for the support of the fans and the community. Dunton said that the team had made significant improvements during the season and that he was looking forward to next year's season. He ended his remarks by thanking the players, staff, and fans for their support.
sustainability

Colorado is the 26th state to sign on to the Rocky Mountain Climate Organization, which aims to reduce greenhouse gas emissions. The state has set a goal of reducing its greenhouse gas emissions by 20% by the year 2020, and has established a task force to develop a plan to achieve that goal.

Golf goes to Florida

Liberty Baptist Seminary is well known for its golf programs, and the men's team has been particularly successful in recent years. This year, the team had a strong showing at the NCAA Regional Championship, earning a berth in the national tournament. However, the team was ultimately unable to advance to the NCAA Championship, falling in the quarterfinals.

Closing thoughts on the men's B'ball team

It has been a difficult season for the Liberty men's basketball team, as they struggled to find consistency throughout the year. Nevertheless, there were some bright spots, such as the team's performance in the NCAA Regional Championship. The men's basketball program will continue to strive for success in the upcoming season, with the hope of improving upon last year's performance.

The Liberty Champion, Page 9

Dunton: Returns to Liberty

Dunton was a head coach at Anchorage Christian and West Anchorage before leaving Alaska to become Liberty Baptist Seminary's first men's basketball coach. Dunton brought a wealth of experience to the program, having spent over 20 years as a high school coach in Alaska. He is excited to return to the sidelines and lead the Flames to success in the upcoming season.

Airline travel

With the recent rise in fuel prices, airline travel has become increasingly expensive. However, there are several strategies that can help passengers save money on airfare. One effective approach is to book flights in advance, as prices tend to be lower for travel dates that are further in the future. Additionally, using travel rewards programs can provide discounts on flights, and considering alternative airports may also help to reduce costs. By utilizing these strategies, travelers can enjoy a more affordable and enjoyable travel experience.
Lady Flames fall to SC
South Carolina withstands Lady Flames late surge

By Christine Purcell

So close, yet again.
Liberty lost to South Carolina in the first round of the NCAA tournament March 18 by a score of 3-2.

The ending is interminable—a taste that Liberty is all too familiar with this last six years. The sweet part is that the Lady Flames are six-time defending Big South Champions. Unfortunately, this bitter fact is the one that will stick with Liberty fans through the off-season. In the six years of run in consecutive championships and NCAA tournament appearances, Liberty has never won anything greater than the Big South.