Lumley elected Chairman of CR's
Champion Editorial
North will speak at LU graduation ceremonies

BY BRAD TAYLOR

L.C. Oliver North will address graduation ceremonies at Lynchburg College Saturday, May 2, at 10:30 a.m. North's appearance will be a last-minute change as it was originally announced that Dr. Falwell would speak for the graduates, and then changed to being North. Dr. Falwell was not available.

In his appearance in Lynchburg, Dr. Falwell will be speaking to the college's students in the Multi-Purpose Center, which would allow only the press which will begin flocking to Lynchburg the day before commencement.

An expected 40,000 to 60,000 people are expected to attend this event, and Dr. Falwell will provide the staff more practical experience with professional photographers and for television cameras.

The Liberty Champion is (left to right) Steve Sitzai, copy editor; Don Hayden, photography editor; Mark DeMoss, student assistant; Keith Scott, sports editor; and Bruce Stanton, managing editor.

Lumley elected Chairman of CR's
Champion Editorial

BY BRUCE A. STANTON

Jim Lumley was elected Chairman of the College Republicans Club (CR) Thursday. Lumley defeated opponent Kevin Alcock 90-55 in the election.

"My theme was leadership," Lumley said. "I think we'd be ranked in the right direction."

Lumley is a TV production major from Macon. He is a transfer student from Palm Beach Atlantic College where he was involved in SGA. He has also served as a political reporter for radio station in Boynton Beach, Fla., and Chattanooga, Tenn.

"My vision is to make the club more interesting to students so they want to be a part of it. We're not here just to get their dollar and sign them up," Lumley said. "College Republicans is the organization for both Republicans and non-Republicans. We want to double.

The rest of the new staff includes: Keith Miller, sports editor; Ken Proctor, student editor; Steve Sitzai, copy editor, and Don Hayden, photo editor.

Stanton has worked on the commercial "Daily Times" newspaper in Maryville, Tn., for the past three years. His first plan of action was to get the paper to the broadsheet, commercial size.

The bigger size, Stanton says, will provide the staff more practical experience with professional quality layout and design. It will also provide more space for sports, news, other columns.

"I believe community, being able to put my name on two or three columns, will get me noticed," he said. To do this, the bigger would have to be a paper. Stanton wants to spend more time working on feature type items. He feels that feature columns, comics, crossword puzzles and "stuff on the lighter side" will ensure that students want to keep the paper around them instead of throwing it out after a quick glance.

As Stanton steps in, Robin Brooks, graduate assistant from Lynchburg, steps up. "I feel very much the same," she says. "She liked the controversies that was stirred up this year."

"I think the student body will be interested in the paper and that it is a voice on campus."

One of her dislikes about the paper is the fact that people don't seem to understand what it takes to put a paper together. "I think we need to involve our political sides, the party editors, further into the paper."

It will handle publication of the last two issues this year and for the entire 1988-89 school year. The new staff members are: Steve Sitzai, sports editor; Keith Scott, sports editor; and Bruce Stanton, managing editor.

The new staff of The Liberty Champion is (left to right) Stan Holen and Tom Seagraves cook barbecued chicken at the picnic in the LU courtyard. Photo by Don Hayden.

Cookin' Keith Scott (left) and Tom Seagraves cook barbecued chicken at the picnic in the LU courtyard. Photo by Don Hayden.

New staff takes over paper production

BY SCOTTA MORRIS

The Liberty Champion has changed hands.

Bruce Stanton, this year's sports editor, is moving up to editor-in-chief. The rest of the new staff includes: Keith Miller, sports editor; Ken Proctor, student editor; Steve Sitzai, copy editor; and Don Hayden, photo editor.

Stanton has worked on the commercial "Daily Times" newspaper in Maryville, Tn., for the past three years. His first plan of action was to get the paper to the broadsheet, commercial size.

The bigger size, Stanton says, will provide the staff more practical experience with professional quality layout and design. It will also provide more space for sports, news, other columns.

"I believe community, being able to put my name on two or three columns, will get me noticed," he said. To do this, the bigger would have to be a paper. Stanton wants to spend more time working on feature type items. He feels that feature columns, comics, crossword puzzles and "stuff on the lighter side" will ensure that students want to keep the paper around them instead of throwing it out after a quick glance.

As Stanton steps in, Robin Brooks, graduate assistant from Lynchburg, steps up. "I feel very much the same," she says. "She liked the controversies that was stirred up this year."

"I think the student body will be interested in the paper and that it is a voice on campus."

One of her dislikes about the paper is the fact that people don't seem to understand what it takes to put a paper together. "I think we need to involve our political sides, the party editors, further into the paper."

It will handle publication of the last two issues this year and for the entire 1988-89 school year. The new staff members are: Steve Sitzai, sports editor; Keith Scott, sports editor; and Bruce Stanton, managing editor.

The new staff of The Liberty Champion is (left to right) Stan Holen and Tom Seagraves cook barbecued chicken at the picnic in the LU courtyard. Photo by Don Hayden.

Cookin' Keith Scott (left) and Tom Seagraves cook barbecued chicken at the picnic in the LU courtyard. Photo by Don Hayden.

New staff takes over paper production

BY SCOTTA MORRIS

The Liberty Champion has changed hands.

Bruce Stanton, this year's sports editor, is moving up to editor-in-chief. The rest of the new staff includes: Keith Miller, sports editor; Ken Proctor, student editor; Steve Sitzai, copy editor; and Don Hayden, photo editor.

Stanton has worked on the commercial "Daily Times" newspaper in Maryville, Tn., for the past three years. His first plan of action was to get the paper to the broadsheet, commercial size.

The bigger size, Stanton says, will provide the staff more practical experience with professional quality layout and design. It will also provide more space for sports, news, other columns.

"I believe community, being able to put my name on two or three columns, will get me noticed," he said. To do this, the bigger would have to be a paper. Stanton wants to spend more time working on feature type items. He feels that feature columns, comics, crossword puzzles and "stuff on the lighter side" will ensure that students want to keep the paper around them instead of throwing it out after a quick glance.

As Stanton steps in, Robin Brooks, graduate assistant from Lynchburg, steps up. "I feel very much the same," she says. "She liked the controversies that was stirred up this year."

"I think the student body will be interested in the paper and that it is a voice on campus."

One of her dislikes about the paper is the fact that people don't seem to understand what it takes to put a paper together. "I think we need to involve our political sides, the party editors, further into the paper."

It will handle publication of the last two issues this year and for the entire 1988-89 school year. The new staff members are: Steve Sitzai, sports editor; Keith Scott, sports editor; and Bruce Stanton, managing editor.

The new staff of The Liberty Champion is (left to right) Stan Holen and Tom Seagraves cook barbecued chicken at the picnic in the LU courtyard. Photo by Don Hayden.

Cookin' Keith Scott (left) and Tom Seagraves cook barbecued chicken at the picnic in the LU courtyard. Photo by Don Hayden.

New staff takes over paper production

BY SCOTTA MORRIS

The Liberty Champion has changed hands.

Bruce Stanton, this year's sports editor, is moving up to editor-in-chief. The rest of the new staff includes: Keith Miller, sports editor; Ken Proctor, student editor; Steve Sitzai, copy editor; and Don Hayden, photo editor.

Stanton has worked on the commercial "Daily Times" newspaper in Maryville, Tn., for the past three years. His first plan of action was to get the paper to the broadsheet, commercial size.

The bigger size, Stanton says, will provide the staff more practical experience with professional quality layout and design. It will also provide more space for sports, news, other columns.

"I believe community, being able to put my name on two or three columns, will get me noticed," he said. To do this, the bigger would have to be a paper. Stanton wants to spend more time working on feature type items. He feels that feature columns, comics, crossword puzzles and "stuff on the lighter side" will ensure that students want to keep the paper around them instead of throwing it out after a quick glance.

As Stanton steps in, Robin Brooks, graduate assistant from Lynchburg, steps up. "I feel very much the same," she says. "She liked the controversies that was stirred up this year."

"I think the student body will be interested in the paper and that it is a voice on campus."

One of her dislikes about the paper is the fact that people don't seem to understand what it takes to put a paper together. "I think we need to involve our political sides, the party editors, further into the paper."

It will handle publication of the last two issues this year and for the entire 1988-89 school year. The new staff members are: Steve Sitzai, sports editor; Keith Scott, sports editor; and Bruce Stanton, managing editor.

The new staff of The Liberty Champion is (left to right) Stan Holen and Tom Seagraves cook barbecued chicken at the picnic in the LU courtyard. Photo by Don Hayden.

Cookin' Keith Scott (left) and Tom Seagraves cook barbecued chicken at the picnic in the LU courtyard. Photo by Don Hayden.

New staff takes over paper production

BY SCOTTA MORRIS

The Liberty Champion has changed hands.

Bruce Stanton, this year's sports editor, is moving up to editor-in-chief. The rest of the new staff includes: Keith Miller, sports editor; Ken Proctor, student editor; Steve Sitzai, copy editor; and Don Hayden, photo editor.

Stanton has worked on the commercial "Daily Times" newspaper in Maryville, Tn., for the past three years. His first plan of action was to get the paper to the broadsheet, commercial size.

The bigger size, Stanton says, will provide the staff more practical experience with professional quality layout and design. It will also provide more space for sports, news, other columns.

"I believe community, being able to put my name on two or three columns, will get me noticed," he said. To do this, the bigger would have to be a paper. Stanton wants to spend more time working on feature type items. He feels that feature columns, comics, crossword puzzles and "stuff on the lighter side" will ensure that students want to keep the paper around them instead of throwing it out after a quick glance.

As Stanton steps in, Robin Brooks, graduate assistant from Lynchburg, steps up. "I feel very much the same," she says. "She liked the controversies that was stirred up this year."

"I think the student body will be interested in the paper and that it is a voice on campus."

One of her dislikes about the paper is the fact that people don't seem to understand what it takes to put a paper together. "I think we need to involve our political sides, the party editors, further into the paper."

It will handle publication of the last two issues this year and for the entire 1988-89 school year. The new staff members are: Steve Sitzai, sports editor; Keith Scott, sports editor; and Bruce Stanton, managing editor.

The new staff of The Liberty Champion is (left to right) Stan Holen and Tom Seagraves cook barbecued chicken at the picnic in the LU courtyard. Photo by Don Hayden.

Cookin' Keith Scott (left) and Tom Seagraves cook barbecued chicken at the picnic in the LU courtyard. Photo by Don Hayden.
The Liberty Champion. Wednesday, April 20, 1968

BY SCOTT A. MORRIS

the volunteers, recently took a trip to Woodbine Baptist Church in

The general public is invited to attend the first LU stage production, "Arsenic and Old Lace," opening next Wednesday night. The production will be a part of the nationwide celebration centered around Earth Day. The group was rehearsing this week for the presentation of the play in the Lloyd Auditorium, April 26.

Volunteer group ministers with purpose

BY SCOTT A. MORRIS

Single Purpose is a new ministry that seeks to minister to those who are in the last stages of life. The group was founded two years ago with a goal of spreading the word of God to those who are facing death. The group has been well received and their message has been shared in various locations across the country. Their goal is to provide comfort and support to those in need. The group continues to grow and expand their reach, offering hope and love to those they serve.

Report on the First LU Stage Production

The first LU stage production, "Arsenic and Old Lace," was performed on April 26, 1968. The production was a great success, with sold-out crowds and standing ovations. The cast and crew worked tirelessly to bring this classic comedy to life, and their hard work paid off.

The actors and actresses in the production were talented and dedicated, and their performances were outstanding. The cast included Doree Light and Peggy Jarrett, who were fantastic in their roles as the lead characters. The audience was captivated by their comedic timing and memorable lines.

The stage design and set were also impressive, creating a realistic and immersive environment for the audience. The set pieces included a well-furnished parlor and a cozy kitchen, complete with a stove and table. The costumes were also well-chosen, adding to the authenticity of the play.

The audience was thrilled with the production and gave it a standing ovation. The performers were overjoyed with the response and felt that their hard work had paid off. The production was a great success and set a high bar for future performances.

In conclusion, "Arsenic and Old Lace" was a fantastic production that brought joy and laughter to the audience. The performers were talented and dedicated, and their hard work paid off. The production was a great success and set a high bar for future performances.
North would be pardoned

To pardon or not to pardon? That is the question that Ronald Reagan must ponder as Lt. Col. Oliver North goes to trial for involve­ment in the Iran-Contra affair. Facts of the matter are of course disputed, but whether or not he was wrong and will be found guilty of any charges, the trial will be the talk of the world for weeks. If he was found guilty, it would mean more than 100 years of prison for North. This is what we all want, but must ponder as Lt. Col. Oliver North is found guilty for his involvement in the Iran-Contra affair.

Deborah Cooper

Brad Taylor

Brad Taylor is the Editorial Editor for The Liberty Champion.

Olliemania spreads to LU

Ollie standing up is good news as far as the LU community is concerned. It is of the essence.

What is the purpose of practicing some­thing you have never done before? As always, rather dead than Red."

The sequel is right around the corner and a real champion hero that we can be proud of for a long time to come.

Brad Taylor is the Editorial Editor for The Liberty Champion.

‘Olliemania’ spreads to LU

Ollie standing up is good news as far as the LU community is concerned. It is of the essence.

Ollie, or something similar, is spreading the campus following last week’s an­nouncement that Lieutenant Colonel Oliver North will be the keynote speaker at Commencement.

I was only a little surprised. With all of the support the ‘hero’ Ollie For­well has been gathering for North’s peace, I figured they’d probably invite him to speak. When you think about it, though, it’s not that surprising. Take into account some of the other dis­tinguished names that have been invited (graduation) we’ve hosted in the past. Pre­pres­i­dential Ronald Reagan. Vice-pres­i­dential George Bush. Attorney Gen­eral Ed Meese, former Secretary of Transportation Elizabeth Dole, Sen.

Deborah Cooper

Brad Taylor

Brad Taylor is the Editorial Editor for The Liberty Champion.

Ollie Cooper

Ollie Cooper is the gossip columnist for THE LOUISIANA.

Tommy Cooper

Tommy Cooper is a graduating senior in journalism and is former editor of THE LOUISIANA.

Laura Super

Laura Super is an Undergrad in Poughkeepsie, NY.

ROBIN BROOKS

ROBIN BROOKS

Tom Kennedy, former presidential hopeful Jack Kemp, etc.

We are conditioned to having well-known speakers, that is, so very fancy-looking. I think we tend to forget that sometimes. We are so pretrained because we are not and who our champion is that we start taking things for granted.

North would be well liked by the most well-known speakers and faces before the world today.

And so we get it.

I was only a little surprised. With all of the support the ‘hero’ Ollie For­well has been gathering for North’s peace, I figured they’d probably invite him to speak. When you think about it, though, it’s not that surprising. Take into account some of the other dis­tinguished names that have been invited (graduation) we’ve hosted in the past. Pre­pres­i­dential Ronald Reagan. Vice-pres­i­dential George Bush. Attorney Gen­eral Ed Meese, former Secretary of Transportation Elizabeth Dole, Sen.

Deborah Cooper

Brad Taylor

Brad Taylor is the Editorial Editor for The Liberty Champion.

Some firestims now have the courage to speak while we get national lead­ers, presidents, deans, chancellors etc. to speak while we get national lead­ers, presidents, deans, chancellors etc. to speak while we get national lead­ers, presidents, deans, chancellors etc. to speak while we get national lead­ers, presidents, deans, chancellors etc. to speak while we get national lead­ers, presidents, deans, chancellors etc. to speak while we get national lead­ers, presidents, deans, chancellors etc. to speak while we get national lead­ers, presidents, deans, chancellors etc. to speak while we get national lead­ers, presidents, deans, chancellors etc.

The Liberty Champion

The Liberty Champion is a student weekly at Liberty University.

CAMPUS VOICES — Should President Reagan pardon Col. North?

Laura Super

Laura Super is an Undergrad in Poughkeepsie, NY.

President Reagan should uncondi­tionally pardon Col. North. North was held hostage in the Iran-Contra situation. Something bad had to be done to save the hostages. We can’t just let them die. This was the only way to get the hostages back. It was the only way to get the hostages back.

President Reagan should uncondi­tionally pardon Col. North. North was held hostage in the Iran-Contra situation. Something bad had to be done to save the hostages. We can’t just let them die. This was the only way to get the hostages back. It was the only way to get the hostages back.
The liberty Champion Wednesday April 20 1988

other teens. She said, “It was really teens off at their junior high schools.
accepted Christ on her bus. She said with those on the bus.

Champion Reporter

It was the good-bye to Sellars and her boyffriend, and said, “If we don’t see you again, I’ll tell him to pray for you.

FRIED

44 Conquest
43 Eastern
42 Socrates
41 Alfred
40y Greek
200 Smith guitar
200 Smith drum
200 Smith keyboard
200 Smith microphone
200 Smith road case
200 Smith contact email

LIBERTY CHAMPION

Get CSER or class credit.
See Bruce Stanton in DH
159 or call 2420 today!

Photographers, Reporters, and Labor Personnel needed for work on the

WORK OUT WEST
THIS SUMMER
Workers average a 100-125 month
salary, with Southwestern Compamy’s summer program.

Car not required.

INTERVIEWS
Thurs. April 21 1988
3:15 or 5:15
SM 139
Please be on time.

LIBERTY CHAMPION CLASIFIEDS

FOR SALE

BRICK SYDORIACO with this auction
Expiring Dec. 31, 1988
Not recommended with other discount sources
2000 CARLISLE Mln. RD. LYNCHBURG, VA.

PERSONALS
WYANN: I love you. What else can I say except that YOU are the best. Alston.

July 1, 1988 10:00-12:00
300 CARLISLE Mln. RD. LYNCHBURG, VA.

DAYS INN

Free HBO and ESPN
113 GUEST ROOMS
FREE AIRPORT TRANSPORTATION
24 HOUR RESTAURANT
POOL AND PLAYGROUND

TOP OF THE WEEK

YEL A SUPER SAVER

GOSPEL GOLD

WEEK IN REVIEW

NEWSPAPER OF THE WEEKLY SPORTS TRADITION

ED SYDORIACO PAYS THE LOVE
LIBERAL GOSPEL TRADITION (1987 - 88)

THANKS FOR THE MEMORIES

MAY 1988

JOSTENS

Close-up things are always in style. Tailor fashion - Sport - School and social College rings. Get yours from the Gram with the symbol of success.

Apr 18 - Apr 19 10 - 12
10% OFF

Download PDF

More Bookstore

This page of the document contains an article about a student who was saved through YouthQuest, a ministry at Liberty University. The student, Andrea Fisher, was able to lead two boys to Christ at a market place: His conversion brought an end to two years of despair trying to find a personal way to God. Fisher’s mother killed herself because she felt responsible for daughter’s failure when she ran away from home. Fisher admitted that the fact that children must obey their parents lest they come unless others find their family ways. She recalled that the meeting places were held in a small church. Fisher helped the three students to show their appreciation for the YouthQuest Club on April 9. The 34 students participated in singing, giving testimonies and carriage rides. Fisher went to West Germany and Tina McArthur of Bowling Green was two of the students visiting LU for the first time.

The Liberty Champion Thursday, April 20, 1988

By Mary Ellen Siegfried

Last Saturday more than 130 junior high school students were saved through ‘YouthQuest’s Kings Dominion Trip.’

Thirty-five buses filled with junior high students left early that morning for Kings Dominion in Richmond. The team turned out from various junior high schools in the Lynchburg area.

Students from Liberty took part to minister and make friends with the teens on the buses.

That evening, before the buses left the park, a YouthQuest participant on each bus shared the gospel with those on the bus.

Donna Seiner, a sophomore at Liberty, said young students accepted Christ on her bus. She said it was incredible how the teens responded.

YouthQuest trip dropped the teens off at their junior high schools.

At 9 p.m. later that evening, yellow pickup trucks rolled into Seiner’s back yard, and said, “If we don’t see you before we’ll see you in May in Kentucky.”

Shari Harris, also a sophomore at Liberty, was able to tell two teenagers in the Lord on her bus. It was the first time she had ever connected with the Lord.

Bart Harris was able to talk to several other teens. She said, “It was really a good day for the kids. Some of them wouldn’t have been, but for those who did, it was really good.”

Paul Davis, as Liberty student from Michigan, worked on a bus from Sandusky. He was able to talk to a boy named Matt. Davis said that he was not able to lead anyone to the Lord that day, “but through talking in the box, I made a decision that we are not in a protected environment. There is real pain and suffering going on out there.”

This Saturday the YouthQuest club is sponsoring another trip to Kings Dominion. This time they will be taking senior high school students from the Lynchburg area. Anyone interested in working on any of the buses should contact the youth office in the religion hall, or anyone interested in/minority service as a missionary aviation.

The Liberty Champion for further information, “Give Me A Break!”

” ”

30 Blond glistener
32 Black glistener
34 Guido’s low
31 Symbol for
17 Unloaded
15 Fondled
48 Mediterranean
39 Mediterranean
38 High card
37 Unloaded
15 Extra
14 Fencing saw
13 Unloaded
12 Unloaded
11 Unloaded
10 Unloaded
9 Unlabeled
8 Unlabeled
7 Unlabeled
6 Unlabeled
5 Unlabeled
4 Unlabeled
3 Unlabeled
2 Unlabeled
1 Unlabeled
"S5"
36 Unlabeled
35 Unlabeled
34 Unlabeled
33 Unlabeled
32 Unlabeled
31 Unlabeled
30 Unlabeled
29 Unlabeled
28 Unlabeled
27 Unlabeled
26 Unlabeled
25 Unlabeled
24 Unlabeled
23 Unlabeled
22 Unlabeled
21 Unlabeled
20 Unlabeled
19 Unlabeled
18 Unlabeled
17 Unlabeled
16 Unlabeled
15 Unlabeled
14 Unlabeled
13 Unlabeled
12 Unlabeled
11 Unlabeled
10 Unlabeled
9 Unlabeled
8 Unlabeled
7 Unlabeled
6 Unlabeled
5 Unlabeled
4 Unlabeled
3 Unlabeled
2 Unlabeled
1 Unlabeled
"S5"
36 Unlabeled
35 Unlabeled
34 Unlabeled
33 Unlabeled
32 Unlabeled
31 Unlabeled
30 Unlabeled
29 Unlabeled
28 Unlabeled
27 Unlabeled
26 Unlabeled
25 Unlabeled
24 Unlabeled
23 Unlabeled
22 Unlabeled
21 Unlabeled
20 Unlabeled
19 Unlabeled
18 Unlabeled
17 Unlabeled
16 Unlabeled
15 Unlabeled
14 Unlabeled
13 Unlabeled
12 Unlabeled
11 Unlabeled
10 Unlabeled
9 Unlabeled
8 Unlabeled
7 Unlabeled
6 Unlabeled
5 Unlabeled
4 Unlabeled
3 Unlabeled
2 Unlabeled
1 Unlabeled
"S5"
36 Unlabeled
35 Unlabeled
34 Unlabeled
33 Unlabeled
32 Unlabeled
31 Unlabeled
30 Unlabeled
29 Unlabeled
28 Unlabeled
27 Unlabeled
26 Unlabeled
25 Unlabeled
24 Unlabeled
23 Unlabeled
22 Unlabeled
21 Unlabeled
20 Unlabeled
19 Unlabeled
18 Unlabeled
17 Unlabeled
16 Unlabeled
15 Unlabeled
14 Unlabeled
13 Unlabeled
12 Unlabeled
11 Unlabeled
10 Unlabeled
9 Unlabeled
8 Unlabeled
7 Unlabeled
6 Unlabeled
5 Unlabeled
4 Unlabeled
3 Unlabeled
2 Unlabeled
1 Unlabeled
"S5"
Sports

LU golf team wins state

The sun-baked 5,000-yard course in Hot Springs, Va., was bone-dry as the Virginia State Golf Coaches Association's junior golfers took to the links last weekend. The team's new immortality has been carefully nurtured since last year, when they captured their first title. The only setback has been a succession of injuries and illnesses that have forced them to hold their breath for their chances to repeat. But now they have finally put the work behind them and are ready to compete for the national championship once again.

They won't be the only team to get their shot at glory this year. The University of Virginia, the defending champs, will also be there, as well as several other strong teams from around the country. But theавы思сылки team has shown that it is ready for the challenge, and they are determined to bring home the title.

If you've been following the world of golf, you know that the US Open is the ultimate test of a player's skill and determination. But the Virginia State Golf Coaches Association's junior golfers have been putting in the hours and the sweat, and they are ready to show the world what they're made of. The stakes are high, but the team is confident that they can come out on top.

Ron Darling, Bob Ojeda, Sid Fernandez and Rick Aguilera)

That's not to say that the team is not facing any challenges. For one thing, they have to hold their own against the other strong teams from around the country. But they have been preparing for this all year, and they are ready to step up to the plate and show the world what they're made of.

If you're a fan of golf, you won't want to miss this exciting tournament. It's sure to be a match for the ages, and you're sure to see some amazing golf being played. So mark your calendars and get ready for a great weekend of golfing fun!
The Liberty Champion, Wednesday, April 20, 1988

Douses Flames
Old Dominion
Champion Sports Reporter

BY FRANK BANFILL

Old Dominion University doused the Flames baseball team, 4-1, last Saturday at Worthington Field, just inside the left field foul pole.

BY KEITH MILLER

LU quarterback Paul Johnson fades back to pass during spring practice drills last week. The Flames move up to Division I status next season. Photo by Aaron Hamrick.

LU drops two games at home

BY KEITH MILLER

James Madison defeated Liberty 5-0, at Worthington Field, last Thursday as the Dukes Mark Brockell extended his hitting streak to 31 games.

Old Dominion
does Flames at Worthington

Mike Rivas slides in safe at second base for the Flames baseball team. Rivas plays varsity soccer in addition to his duties as a Flame infielder. Sports Photo.

For my first column as sports editor of The Liberty Champion, I would like to focus on the little people, the people that don't get a lot of publicity but work very hard at what they do.

One of those people is Tim Lethers. "I transferred here from Word of Life and never had the chance," he says. "I'm like a babe in the woods on the football field." Lethers says, "You gotta have the attitude that you're not going to quit."

For five years, I've been playing to walk on at Liberty. Lethers says, "You gotta have the attitude that you're not going to quit."

I asked the Lord that if he would give me the opportunity to walk on here at Liberty, I would give Him the job done. Two of them are Don McClintock and John McMillan who have been very inspirational to me. They have proved to 28-3-2.

I think Tim can be inspiration to us all. He's a good athlete and gone after it even when the odds were stacked against him. He's on the spring team. He won't know until fall whether he gets to stay. "I think you have to have confidence in yourself or you won't be here," he says. "You have to have confidence in yourself to walk on or go out there and you have to believe in yourself. You have to believe you can do it." Lethers says, "You can't make the team on talent alone. You can make the team on work ethic and determination."

Sports

Tennis team drops three games in a row

BY KEITH MILLER

The Liberty Champion tennis team has dropped three matches to VMI, Hampden-Sydney and Roanoke College last week.

VMI dropped LU 6-3. The Flames' three wins came from 1 seed Joey Smith, 2-3, 2-4 and 4-2 in the singles match. The doubles teams of Jason Orton/Brian Smith, 6-3, 5-7 and 6-4 and the doubles team of Tracey Fassett/Aaron Morningstar, dropped the Flames 6-3.

Hampden-Sydney dealt LU the second loss, 6-4. Winners for the Flames were 2-3 Scott Grayer, 6-4, 6-6 and the doubles team of Steve Tabb/Eric Seckdor. The doubles team of Mark Brocelli/Matt Smith were 6-4.

Roanoke buried Liberty, 8-1. The Flames' win for the Flames was Bobbi Lewis, in the singles match, 6-4 and 6-1. The Flames' record now stands at 7-9 overall.

Individually, Dan Balistrisci leads the team with a 7-5 record. Hibbard is second at 6-7 mark while Brian Zanation is 6-8.

The doubles team of Smith/Ball has an 8-8 record.

The tennis team wraps up their schedule April 22-24 against Longwood here at Liberty. The action starts at 3:30pm.

LU drops two games at home

BY KEITH MILLER

James Madison defeated Liberty 5-0, at Worthington Field, last Thursday as the Dukes Mark Brockell extended his hitting streak to 31 games.

Brockell is now just five short of the national record of 36 games by Virginia's Bill Virdie. The Flames ended N标题ek's streak three years ago and had hoped to stop Brockell's hit in vain.

Cory McKay continued his torrid hitting for the Flames going 3-4 while Mike Ross went 2-5. John McMillan hit his seventh home run.

Freshman Brayden Bray was two innings and took the loss. He now stands 2-3 this spring.

Former E.C. Glass starst, Greg Harris, started for the Dukes and went the first seven innings before Dan Haycock, came on and picked up the win.

The loss dropped the Flames to 13-25 while James Madison improved to 26-2-2.

Tennis team drops three games in a row

BY KEITH MILLER

The Liberty Champion tennis team has dropped three matches to VMI, Hampden-Sydney and Roanoke College last week.

VMI dropped LU 6-3. The Flames' three wins came from 1 seed Joey Smith, 2-3, 2-4 and 4-2 in the singles match. The doubles teams of Jason Orton/Brian Smith, 6-3, 5-7 and 6-4 and the doubles team of Tracey Fassett/Aaron Morningstar, dropped the Flames 6-3.

Hampden-Sydney dealt LU the second loss, 6-4. Winners for the Flames were 2-3 Scott Grayer, 6-4, 6-6 and the doubles team of Steve Tabb/Eric Seckdor. The doubles team of Mark Brocelli/Matt Smith were 6-4.

Roanoke buried Liberty, 8-1. The Flames' win for the Flames was Bobbi Lewis, in the singles match, 6-4 and 6-1. The Flames' record now stands at 7-9 overall.

Individually, Dan Balistrisci leads the team with a 7-5 record. Hibbard is second at 6-7 mark while Brian Zanation is 6-8.

The doubles team of Smith/Ball has an 8-8 record.

The tennis team wraps up their schedule April 22-24 against Longwood here at Liberty. The action starts at 3:30pm.

LU drops two games at home

BY KEITH MILLER

James Madison defeated Liberty 5-0, at Worthington Field, last Thursday as the Dukes Mark Brockell extended his hitting streak to 31 games.

Brockell is now just five short of the national record of 36 games by Virginia's Bill Virdie. The Flames ended N标题ek's streak three years ago and had hoped to stop Brockell's hit in vain.

Cory McKay continued his torrid hitting for the Flames going 3-4 while Mike Ross went 2-5. John McMillan hit his seventh home run.

Freshman Brayden Bray was two innings and took the loss. He now stands 2-3 this spring.

Former E.C. Glass starst, Greg Harris, started for the Dukes and went the first seven innings before Dan Haycock, came on and picked up the win.

The loss dropped the Flames to 13-25 while James Madison improved to 26-2-2.

Tennis team drops three games in a row

BY KEITH MILLER

The Liberty Champion tennis team has dropped three matches to VMI, Hampden-Sydney and Roanoke College last week.

VMI dropped LU 6-3. The Flames' three wins came from 1 seed Joey Smith, 2-3, 2-4 and 4-2 in the singles match. The doubles teams of Jason Orton/Brian Smith, 6-3, 5-7 and 6-4 and the doubles team of Tracey Fassett/Aaron Morningstar, dropped the Flames 6-3.

Hampden-Sydney dealt LU the second loss, 6-4. Winners for the Flames were 2-3 Scott Grayer, 6-4, 6-6 and the doubles team of Steve Tabb/Eric Seckdor. The doubles team of Mark Brocelli/Matt Smith were 6-4.

Roanoke buried Liberty, 8-1. The Flames' win for the Flames was Bobbi Lewis, in the singles match, 6-4 and 6-1. The Flames' record now stands at 7-9 overall.

Individually, Dan Balistrisci leads the team with a 7-5 record. Hibbard is second at 6-7 mark while Brian Zanation is 6-8.

The doubles team of Smith/Ball has an 8-8 record.

The tennis team wraps up their schedule April 22-24 against Longwood here at Liberty. The action starts at 3:30pm.