C. Vision of the plumb line (7:7-9)
1. The revelation (7:7): Amos sees God measuring the "spiritual straightness" of Israel with a plumb line.

   b. The needy in the land are being trampled on (8:4b).
   c. Gross dishonesty can be witnessed everywhere (8:5).
3. The suffering (8:3, 7-14): Sin always results in sorrow, pain, and disaster! Amos now describes a fourfold judgment:
   a. In regard to sinners (8:3, 10)
      (1) Dead bodies will be scattered everywhere (8:3): Singing will turn to wailing.
      (2) Sheer misery will replace mirth (8:10): Celebrations will become times of mourning, and songs of joy will become weeping.

      (2) The fruitless search (8:12-14): Men will wander everywhere attempting to find it!
