INTRODUCTION: THINKING ABOUT POLITICS

Outline

- A. RELEVANCE OF GREEK FORMS TO A GLOBAL AGE (xi-xix)
1. R. W. and A. J. Carlyle, History of Mediaeval Political Theory in the West
 2. Question of Intellectual Unity
 3. Herodotus
 - a. Whether the Persians had, in the end, defeated the Greeks
 - 1) Greek view of Persia: a system of slaves
 - b. G. W. F. Hegel on oriental despotism
 - c. Persia as the prototype of the modern nation-state
 - d. Essence of the modern state
 - 1) Centralized bureaucracy
 - 2) Bureaucratic management
 - 3) Efficient delivery of public services
 - e. Louis XIV: The state as a legal person [Roman corporation] [cf. Ernest Kantorowicz's The King's Two Bodies; Roger Scruton's The West and the Rest]
 - f. Contrast between the Persian state and the Greek polis [city-state]
 4. Greek vs. Roman Ideas of Freedom and Citizenship
 - a. Unfiltered direct democracy [plebiscitary] vs. structured and controlled rule
 - b. Components of Roman freedom
 - 1) Citizen rather than slave
 - 2) Possession of a legal status sufficient to secure one's rights in court
 - 3) Political rights and duties graded according to financial status [Sir Henry Maine has noted the modern movement from status to contract]
 5. Extension of Roman Citizenship
 - a. Civis sine suffragio = citizen without vote [Jewish residents of Tarsus, a center of learning where the Apostle Paul was born, were granted Roman citizenship]
 - b. Athenian obsession with the right to speak, vote and hold office [even for a day]
 - c. Isegoria = equal rights in the Assembly
 - d. These differences have dominated European and American political thought since the English Civil War of the 1640s [especially the Putney Debates]
 - e. The question: How far to follow the Athenian example
 6. Superficial Understanding of Political Equality
 - a. One person, one vote
 - 1) How democracy can be undermined
 - 2) Discrepancy in political effectiveness in modern industrial societies between the organized and the unorganized
 - 3) Question whether the public can be protected against organized political Interests (Jean-Jacques Rousseau identified the problem)
 7. Roman Arguments in Favor of Political Involvement
 - a. Niccolò Machiavelli's citizen armies
 - b. Views from the Left
 - 1) Instrumental (pragmatic) arguments for universal suffrage
 - 2) History of trade union legislation
 8. Modern Anxiety about Popular Participation in Political Life
 - a. It focuses on the political roles of elites and masses [i.e., status]

- b. "Masses" is a relatively modern term, but the contrast between the elite and the rank-and-file is ancient
 - 1) Critics of Athenian democracy complained of the political arts (Sophism)
 - 2) Platonic vision of the statesman as a shepherd
 - 9. Modern Thinkers Distinguish between an Adept Elite and the Incompetent Many
 - a. Rule by the Few as a reality [Vilfredo Pareto and Robert Michels]
 - 1) Totalitarian vs. democratic elites
 - b. Rule by competing elites
 - 1) Circulation of elites [Robert Michels]
 - 2) Open competition and free elections
 - c. Problems in the Recruitment Process
 - 1) Primary elections were adopted to counteract a restrictive system of recruitment, but with only partial success
 - 10. Rule by Professional Politicians
 - a. Poor results due to conflicting pressures and the near impossibility of tasks
 - b. Whether their role could be diminished and the ordinary citizen be given more work to do
 - 11. Benjamin Constant: Lecture on Classical vs. Modern Conceptions of Freedom
 - a. Ancient Freedom
 - 1) A share of sovereign authority
 - 2) Society depended on the existence of slavery and mutual surveillance
 - b. Modern Freedom
 - 1) Private aspect: Freedom from the political sphere [Pericles' idiotes]
 - 2) Liberal aspect: occupational, educational, religious freedom
 - 3) Democratic aspect: Accountability
 - 4) Contrast with people's democracies, which provide no opportunity to canvass alternatives
 - 12. Social Values of Liberal Democracy
 - a. Alexis de Tocqueville: Equality of condition
 - 1) Western world's commitment to forms of inclusiveness
 - 2) Removal of many grounds for claiming advantage
 - 13. Author's Presupposition
 - a. Project of entering the thoughts of the long dead is both possible and useful
 - b. Question of the sameness of human nature
 - 1) Author's answer: Not exactly
 - c. Reasons for his doubts on the subject: Recent transformative revolutions
 - 1) Industrial revolution [1770 onward]
 - 2) Demographic revolution [enabled by industrial and hygienic revolutions]
 - 3) Literacy and communications revolutions [cf. Marshall McLuhan]
 - 4) Political revolution [two types: 1776, 1789]
 - d. Greatly enhanced technological capacities
 - 14. Technological Advances
 - a. Global scale
 - 1) Politics of an interconnected and increasingly crowded planet
 - b. Greeks shared a rich civic life that even now we contemplate with envy
- B. THINKING ABOUT POLITICS (xx-xxv)
- 1. Political Thought or Political Theory
 - a. Little agreement on its definition, elements of which include
 - 1) History
 - 2) Sociology
 - 3) An obsession with less than two dozen books
 - 4) Eavesdropping on the Elysian Fields
 - 2. Risk of Foisting Our Views on the Unresisting Dead
 - a. Isaiah Berlin's essays in the history of ideas provides a model of this enterprise
 - b. R. G. Collingwood: Historical explanation is a matter of rethinking past thoughts
 - c. Berlin's ability to engage with the temperament of thinkers

3. Public Intellectuals
 - a. Allan Bloom's The Closing of the American Mind
 - b. Francis Fukuyama's The End of History and the Last Man
 - c. Simon Schama and Gordon Wood
 - d. Bertrand Russell's History of Western Philosophy
 - 1) His dismissiveness
 - e. John Stuart Mill's On Liberty
 - f. Plato
 - g. Karl Marx
4. Author's Political Enthusiasm
 - a. Skeptical about the way we talk about politics
 - b. Self-described democracies are really something else
 - c. Impossible expectations: Operation of new institutions under old labels, perhaps enabling a plutocracy to exploit a political system for its own benefit
 - d. Our self-deception: We are subjects, not citizens
 - e. Rome's SPQR (Senātus Populus que Rōmānus): military and bureaucratic dictatorship
5. Modern Politics
 - a. Advantages
 - 1) Rights
 - 2) Women and the poor
 - b. Need to know what we are praising
 - c. Comparative study
 - 1) We have acquired our political vocabulary and assumptions from Greece and Rome
6. Subject of the Book: How we human beings can govern ourselves
 - a. Assumptions
 - b. Two and a half millennia of answers form the subject of the book
 - c. More questions are raised: religious, philosophical, historical, biological, sociological
 - d. Convictions about the goal of politics
7. Book about books
8. No Substitute for the Originals
 - a. It is not a textbook, but rather a context and pretext book

PART I: THE CLASSICAL CONCEPTION

CHAPTER 1: WHY HERODOTUS?

Outline

- A. TALKING GREEK (AND LATIN) ABOUT POLITICS (5-8)
1. Inherited Words
 - a. Shared ideals
 - b. Greek polis: A fragile flowering
 - 1) Origins
 - 2) Diminished self-rule under the Hellenistic and Roman empires
 2. We Describe Ourselves as the Greeks Described Themselves
 - a. Question whether their vocabulary can make sense today
 - 1) Demographic differences
 - 2) Athens as a case in point
 3. Greek Conception of Politics
 - a. Greeks contrasted themselves with the Persians
 - 1) Politics could only exist in a self-governing state under the rule of law
 - 2) Persia's great king was seen as a master of slaves [despotes], not a ruler of citizens
 - b. Demaratus, the ousted king of Sparta
 - 1) Greeks would fight to preserve their freedom
 - 2) Their master was law
 - c. Free citizens are self-disciplined [cf. Victor Davis Hanson, Culture and Carnage]
 - d. Essence of a republic is independence
 - e. Citizenship eventually extended to the lower classes
 4. Political Thought Began in Athens
 - a. Worldly experience of a trading people
 - b. Contrast with Israelites
 - 1) A people who had no politics [contrast two books entitled The Hebrew Republic, one by E. C. Wines and the other by Eric Nelson]
 - 2) Politics as a fall from grace
- B. THE BIRTH OF THE POLIS (8-9)
1. Obscure Origins
 - a. Aristotle's collection of constitutions
 - 1) Two views of how a polis was formed
 - 2) Synoikismos
 - b. First "city-states" were not always based on a city
 - 1) Sparta was a cluster of villages in which every man was a brick in the wall
 2. Division into Rich and Poor
 - a. Eupatridae
 - b. Tyrants
 - c. The Peisistratids
 - d. Reforms of Solon
- C. ATHENIAN DEMOCRACY (9-13)
1. Increasingly Radical Democracy
 - a. An unintended Spartan achievement
 - b. The aristocrat, Cleisthenes, started the process
 - a. The Thetes
 2. Lines of Division
 - a. Free vs. servile
 - b. No naturalization process
 - c. Athenian citizenship was by descent
 - d. Gender
 - 1) High-status women were veiled in public
 - e. Mercantile economy
 3. Ecclesia = Assembly
 - a. No separation of powers
 - 1) No appeal except to a later meeting of the Assembly
 - 2) Boule: Governing council

- 3) Prytany: Managing committee of the boule for a month
 - b. Members chosen by lottery
 - c. No public prosecutors
 - 4. Cleisthenes' Innovations
 - a. Finances of the fleet and army placed on a regular basis
 - 1) Revenues fell heavily on the better-off
 - 2) Silver mines
 - b. Citizens organized into ten tribes
 - c. Demes [villages] of Attica
 - d. Work of the boule
 - e. Prytany = cabinet, led by the president of the day [a position Socrates held at a critical moment in the trial of the generals]
 - 5. Ten Strategoi [generals]
 - a. Military leadership was meritocratic rather than democratic
 - b. Pericles
 - 1) Thucydides: "What was in name democracy, became in actuality rule by the first man"
 - 6. Pericles as Demagogue [People's Leader]
 - a. Cleisthenes' democracy
 - 1) A direct rather than a representative democracy
 - 2) It was not a liberal democracy since it lacked constitutional restrictions on the assembly and no boundaries between public and private life
 - 3) Choice by lot seen as self-evidently egalitarian [similarly, ostracism was by lot]
 - 4) Absolute sovereignty of the Assembly
- D. GLORIES AND FAILURES OF DEMOCRACY (13-18)
 - 1. Two Great Wars of the 5C BC
 - a. Persian Wars
 - b. Peloponnesian War
 - c. Athens: Chief maritime power of Greece after 479 BC
 - d. Defeat and revival of Athens
 - e. Defeats at Chaeronea (338) and Amorgos (322)
 - 2. Herodotus and Thucydides
 - a. Herodotus: Father of history and father of lies
 - b. Thucydides
 - c. Their histories are not even-handed
 - 3. Why Greeks and Persians Were Doomed to Fight Each Other
 - a. Revolt of Miletus and other Ionian cities of Asia Minor (500 BC)
 - 1) Reason for the revolt is obscure
 - 2) It was a revolt of the prosperous and confident
 - 4. Athenian Intervention
 - a. Inevitability issue
 - 5. Persia Crushes the Revolt, Then Turns against Athens
 - a. Abortive first invasion, 492 BC: fleet wrecked by storm [cf. kamikaze winds, 1274 and 1281; Spanish armada, 1588; French armada off New England coast, 1746]
 - b. Murder of the Persian ambassadors by Athens and Sparta
 - c. Battle of Marathon, 490
 - d. Plataea's contribution
 - e. Athenian hubris [overweening [pride that provides the envy of the gods]
 - 6. Xerxes
 - a. Euboea
 - b. Battle of Thermopylae
 - 1) Betrayal by Ephialtes
 - c. King Leonidas and the 300
 - d. Epitaph [cf. the Lion Monument in Lucerne]
 - e. Demaratus

7. Stratagem of Themistocles
 - a. Battle of Salamis
 - b. Battle of Plataea
8. Rise and Fall of the Radical Athenian Democracy
 - a. Athens cited as an object lesson [a “proverb and byword,” to use the Biblical expression] about the perils of hubris
 - 1) Imperial overreach [cf. Paul Kennedy’s Rise and Fall of the Great Powers]
 - b. The Delian League
 - c. Athenian Empire
 - 1) League members became tributary states
 - 2) Beautification of Athens and the subsidization of the lower classes
9. Self-Interest: Check on Athenian Conduct
 - a. Sparta was indecisive and the Athenian allies were weak
 - b. There were no constitutional provisions to ensure the good behavior of the Assembly or the council
 - c. Constitutional checks only came later
10. Practice of Ostracism [Another Example of Direct Democracy]
 - a. Example of Aristides the Just, who was recalled from exile after two years
- E. THUCYDIDES AND HIS HISTORY (18-20)
 1. Military Superiority of the Peloponnesian Alliance (Led by Corinth and Sparta)
 2. Athenian Ingenuity and Energy
 - a. Assembly’s habit of turning against its generals
 - b. Athens’ conduct reflected badly upon itself
 3. Thucydides
 - a. Dismissal and exile, 424 BC
 4. Three Striking Passages from His History
 - a. Funeral Oration of Pericles [See Steinberger, pp. 39-42]
 - 1) Counterpoint to the debates in Athens
 - b. Massacre and Enslavement of the Melians [See Steinberger, pp. 54-58]
 - c. Expedition against Syracuse
 5. Democracy and Human Rights
 - a. Athens was unequivocally democratic and frequently wicked
 - b. Historical parallel: The WWII firebombing of civilian populations
 - c. Athens vs. Syracuse: Democracies did go to war with each other
 - d. Athenian addiction to war
 - 1) Its profitability
 - e. Thucydides believed the aggressiveness of democracies was a universal trait
- F. PERICLES’S FUNERAL ORATION (20-22)
 1. Set-piece Speeches
 2. Comparison with Abraham Lincoln’s Gettysburg Address
 - a. Pep talks
 3. Athenian state funerals
 - a. Praise of the city [encomium or eulogy]
 - 1) Description of Athenian democracy as a meritocracy
 4. Liveliness of a Free and Open Society
 - a. Their own diffidence of others is enlightened
 - b. The business of the people is politics
 - 1) The ideal is participatory democracy
 5. Peroration on the Virtues of the Athenian Dead
 - a. The whole earth is the tomb of famous men
 - b. Pericles’ exhortation to women
- G. THE “MELIAN DIALOGUE” (23-25)
 1. Speeches That “Were Called for in the Situation”
 - a. Athenian demand for the surrender of Melos, 416 BC
 - b. “Might makes right” [The strong do as they will and the weak do as they must]

2. Ryan Contends that Melian Neutrality Was Not the Issue
 - a. Melos was a Spartan colony
 - b. Mytilene as a precedent, 427 BC [See Steinberger, pp. 47-52]
 - c. Spartan precedent: Plataea, 426 BC
3. Artful Construction of the Debate
 - a. Appeal to Athenian self-interest
 - b. Patent injustice
 - c. Capacity of democracies for mass murder should not be underestimated
4. Stalemate
 - a. Athens' survival was its victory
 - b. Spartan crudeness, corruption, unreliability
- H. ALCIBIADES AND THE SICILIAN DISASTER (25-28)
 1. Causes of the Athenian Downfall
 - a. Ambition of Alcibiades
 - 1) His connections
 - 2) His treachery
 - 3) His brilliance as a strategist
 2. Athenian Politics Became Unstable after Pericles: a Competition of Demagogues
 - a. Peace of Nicias
 - b. Sicilian Expedition, 415-413
 - c. Lamachus
 - d. Rivalry between Alcibiades and Nicias
 3. Circumstances
 - a. An unwinnable war crept upon Athens
 - b. Sicilian cities formed an alliance to resist Athens
 - c. Immense resources were dedicated to the expedition
 - d. Alcibiades learned he was sentenced to death in his absence
 - e. Lamachus killed
 - f. Nicias' wavering leadership
 - g. Athenians' surrender and sentence to be worked to death in the quarries
 4. Athenian Agony
 - a. Crash shipbuilding program
 - b. Alcibiades' role as adviser to Sparta
 - c. Oligarchical coup, 411
 - d. Alcibiades restored
 - e. Two blunders
 - 1) Athens' refusal of a Spartan peace offer
 - 2) Second refusal Arginusae

CHAPTER 2: PLATO AND ANTIPOLITICS

Preface

This chapter has the virtue of engagingly arguing an interpretation of Plato's Republic which threatens to remove it from the domain of political theory altogether. The Republic may have pedagogical, literary, spiritual, or entertainment value, as Ryan affirms, but he contends it is essentially unpolitical or antipolitical in its overall character. Indeed, it could be described as a political vendetta against the Athenian democracy. By way of contrast, Eva Brann's Introduction to Reading the Republic, examines the carefully crafted literary forms in order to elicit a deep pedagogical purpose behind its construction. These two pieces are two of the most striking among a rich and varied cavalcade of interpretations.

Outline

- A. THE PARADOXICAL PLATO (30-35)
 - 1. Plato's Political Thought Is Antipolitical
 - a. It is part of a utopian current of European thought
 - 1) Sir Thomas More's Utopia
 - 2) Ryan expects there to be no politics in the heavenly kingdom
 - b. Utopian ideal of a social order without economic or political competition
 - c. Plato: founder of European political thought and antipolitical thinking
 - 1) Disenchantment with Athenian democracy
 - 2) Only Plato provided an elaborate philosophical justification for giving up on politics as such [assuming this is his purpose in the Republic]
 - 2. Gorgias and the Republic
 - a. Modern accusations against Plato

- 1) They are too anachronistic to be taken seriously [e.g., Karl Popper's The Open Society and Its Enemies]
- b. The real complaint: Plato does not take the inescapability of politics seriously
- c. But neither did Marx and Engels
 - 1) Like the "utopian socialists" they disparaged, Marx and Engels believed coercive government would be replaced by technical management
3. Aristotle: Plato Purified Politics to Death
 - a. Over-unification
 - b. Influence of Plato's metaphysics
 - c. The cultural renaissance of the 12C reinvigorated classical scholarship in western Europe, especially Aristotle's Politics
 - d. The revival of Plato emphasized the metaphysics
 - e. The Republic was later regarded as a treatise on education
4. Comparison of Marx with Plato
 - a. Karl Marx sought to replace politics with rational organization [cf. Jürgen Habermas' Toward a Rational Society]
 - 1) But he looked to radical political action to accomplish this egalitarian Utopia
 - b. Plato abolished politics by philosophical fiat
 - 1) Existence of slaves and common laborers is presupposed
 - 2) The myth of the metals
5. Plato's Laws
 - a. Aristotle criticized both the Republic and the Laws
 - 1) Absence of a discussion of constitutions
 - 2) Politeia for Aristotle means constitutional theory
 - b. Plato's subject is the ignorance of politicians
 - 1) Lack of knowledge is regarded as more dangerous than the deadly sins
 - 2) Author's rebuttal: Alcibiades' ambition is a more obvious place to start
6. Socrates
 - a. Mocked by Aristophanes
 - b. Admired by Xenophon
 - c. Socrates' mission
 - d. Oracle at Delphi
7. Doctrines
 - a. Wickedness is error
 - b. Natural world is too difficult to think about
 - c. The invention of writing had enfeebled the intellect [cf. Walter Ong and Marshall McLuhan on the oral/aural culture]
8. Last Plausible Ideas Are the Closest to Socrates' Known Doctrines
 - a. Antidemocratic ideas
 - b. The oligarchy's attempted entrapment of Socrates to make him complicit in crime
 - c. His subsequent execution by the regime that saved him
- B. PLATO'S LIFE (35-38)
 1. Background
 - a. Critias and Charmides
 - b. Seventh Letter
 2. Judicial Murder of Socrates
 - a. Voluntary exile of many of his disciples
 - b. Academy founded in Athens, 387 BC
 - 1) Its 916 year run
 - 2) Equation of intellectual- with character-training
 3. Competing Schools of Rhetoric and Philosophy
 - a. Sophists
 - b. Socrates subverted their worldly ambitions
 4. Plato's Practical Interventions into Politics
 - a. Dionysius I

- b. Dionysius II
 - c. [Third attempt: Reference to Dion, Plato's student, about whom Plutarch wrote]
 - d. Martin Heidegger
 - e. Plato's life in the litigious society of Athens
 - f. His legacy: the Dialogues
5. Plato's Artistry
- a. His belief in the impact of art
 - b. Socrates may be enjoyed as a literary character
- C. GORGIAS (38-47)
1. Attraction of the Dialogue as a Literary Device
 - a. Plato's obsessions
 2. Three Parts of Gorgias
 - a. Interrogation of Gorgias
 - b. Confrontation with Polus
 - c. Rambunctious argument with Callicles
 3. Rhetoric
 - a. Saint Augustine
 - b. Assemblies were also law courts
 - c. Cicero
 4. Socrates Began the Contrary Tradition of Belittling Rhetoric
 - a. He snubbed jurors and rhetorical conventions
 - b. He claimed that his discussion of dangerous subjects in the streets was a divinely appointed duty which he must continue [cf. liberty of conscience]
 - c. Plato's complaints and Socrates' ironies reveal how speakers ingratiated themselves with their hearers
 5. Victims of Socrates' Questioning
 - a. Polus and Callicles
 - 1) Anticipation of Thrasymachus in the Republic
 - b. Socrates unravels Gorgias's claims as a teacher
 - c. Plato evicted rhetoricians from the terrain of the philosopher
 - d. Instead, young men must learn the nature of justice
 6. Upbringing of Aristocratic Young Men
 - a. Corruption by fame
 - 1) Alcibiades
 - 2) Pericles' sons
 - b. The essential question is about proper teaching
 7. Gorgias: Socrates Wonders What Extraordinary Skills He Has for Sale
 - a. Prepping for success
 - b. Philosophy and rhetoric seem to be about nothing in particular
 - c. Subtext to the question
 8. Nature of Rhetoric
 - a. Manipulation of appearances
 - b. Aristophanes' *The Clouds [see Steinberger, pp. 78-117]
 - 1) Art of bamboozling an Athenian jury acquired at the phrontisterion = thinkery
 - c. Plato held that rhetoric was the reverse of philosophy
 - 1) Deceptiveness of appearances makes philosophy necessary
 - d. It is either not a skill at all or it is mere pandering
 - e. Politics of flattery and deceit drives out the politics of truth
 9. The Success of Gorgias's Students Is Bad for the City and Bad for Them
 - a. They make the worse appear better [part of what Socrates rephrasing of the indictment against himself]
 - b. Prostitution of Gorgias's talents
 - 1) In a democracy everything is based on show and appearance, not truth
 - c. Gorgias sins in ignorance
 - d. Ignorance pays off in a democracy and is unlikely to be cured in it

10. Commonplace Greek View that the Unbridled Pursuit of Self-Interest Constitutes Success
 - a. Gorgias claims he has the same power as the tyrant, but through persuasion rather than coercion
 - b. Socrates dismisses this as illusion
 - 1) The only thing worth having is a just soul
 - c. Inner death of the unjust man
 - d. Polus's mockery
 - e. Socrates: Neither mockery nor majority opinion are good guides to the truth
11. Socrates' View: The Unjust Man Is Always Worse Off Than the Just Man
 - a. Polus cites successful villainy [cf. the Ring of Gyges in the Republic]
 - 1) Archelaus
12. Two Issues Are Central to Plato's Distaste for Conventional Politics
 - a. Selfish motives impel people to seek political power
 - 1) Plato assumes we would be unrestrained in gratifying our urges if we had absolute power
 - 2) Lord Acton's dictum: Power tends to corrupt; absolute power corrupts absolutely
 - 3) Oddity for the modern reader: How Polus's sympathies are unabashedly with the holder of absolute power [it seems odd because of the residue of Christian morality]
 - b. Deeper issue is philosophical
 - 1) Socrates disputes Polus's understanding of power
 - 2) Doing what you want must be distinguished from doing what is in your best interest [cf. Rousseau on the general will vs. the will of all]
 - 3) Political ambitions regarded as a sickness of the soul
 - 4) Gorgias and Polus lack power over themselves
13. Socrates' Argument: Justice Must Be Taught
 - a. Justice is good for its possessor no matter what
 - b. Author notes that there are difficulties in defending this claim
 - c. Socrates died for the extreme version [cf. Girard on scapegoating]
 - d. Meaning of dike = all-in rightness
14. Callicles
 - a. Philosophical brawler like Thrasymachus in the Republic
 - b. Socrates: A wicked man is better off if he is punished [NOTE: Punishment must be distinguished from harm]
 - c. Callicles: The good life consists of gratifying our impulses
 - d. Two interpretations of this view
 - 1) The good life is immoral or amoral
 - 2) Natural justice is transgressive: whatever one can get away with
 - e. Plato: Nature is on the side of justice
15. Callicles: Philosophers Are Terrible Politicians
 - a. According to worldly-wise standards
 - b. The true statesman can do nothing useful in a corrupt environment
16. Socrates: The Wise Man Is Committed to Being Just for Its Own Sake
 - a. He leaves consequences out of the account
 - b. Plato imagines an afterlife in both accounts
 - 1) Aristides the Just
17. Callicles Is Mistaken about the Nature of Good and Evil
 - a. His view of natural right
 - 1) He believes that being ruled, even self-rule, is shameful [cf. Thrasymachus]
 - b. His error: Self-control is required for success in even wicked projects
 - 1) Insatiable desires [pleonexia] disprove Callicles' case
18. Callicles Distinguishes Good and Bad Pleasures
 - a. He needs a test for being a good person

- b. The self-aggrandizer needs some of the qualities of the conventionally good man
- 19. Relationship between the Statesman and the Public
 - a. Socrates is the only true statesman
 - b. What the statesman and the public owe one another
 - c. The true statesman serves for nothing
 - d. The innocent man dies with clean hands
- D. THE REPUBLIC (47-48)
 - 1. Differences from Gorgias
 - a. We are left with riddles in Gorgias
 - b. First book of the Republic leaves the subject up in the air
 - c. Socrates then restarts and dominates the discussion
 - d. Exposition of Plato's theory of justice and its political implications
 - 1) How we are to educate and govern ourselves
 - 2. Nature of a Just Society and a Just Political Order
 - a. How Plato's theory of justice differs from that of 21C liberal democracies
 - 1) We think of justice primarily in economic terms
 - 2) Plato looked for the rule of the righteous
 - b. Criticisms of contemporary democracy
 - 1) Psychological chaos that rules the souls of democratic citizens
 - 3. Subject of the Republic
 - a. Search for the just society
 - 1) Rhetorical device of seeking justice first in society
 - 2) Setting up a Kallipolis = Beautiful City
 - b. Cyclical Historical Process
 - c. Wretched State of the Tyrant's Soul
 - d. Conflict between poetry and philosophy
- E. BOOK ONE (49-55)
 - 1. Festival to a Moon Goddess
 - a. Athens, the city of festivals
 - b. Glaucon and Adeimantus
 - 2. House of Polemarchus
 - a. Ironies
 - b. Temple of Bendis
 - 1) Scene of where the Thirty Tyrants were overthrown and Critias killed
 - c. Thrasymachus
 - 3. Cephalus on Old Age
 - a. Sophocles: Old age is liberation from a savage slave master
 - 1) Tranquility of old age
 - b. The importance of good character
 - c. The value of wealth
 - d. Definition of justice: Tell the truth and repay your debts
 - e. Classical view of justice
 - 4. Socrates' Question about Returning What We Have Borrowed
 - a. Polemarchus' response: Give every man his due
 - 1) Socrates asks what is due to everyone
 - b. Polemarchus' traditional reply: Do good to our friends and harm to our enemies
 - 5. Socrates: It Is Never Right to Injure Anybody, Making Him Worse Than He Is
 - a. He views doing justice as a skill
 - 1) Punishment does not injure the person who is properly punished
 - 6. Aristotle: Morality Is a Techné That Controls the Other Arts or Skills
 - a. Who is best able to help our friends and harm our enemies?
 - 1) Doctors [but contrast the Hippocratic Oath: Do no harm] and sailors
 - 7. A Modern Writer Would Not Call Doing Justice a Skill [It would be useful to speculate why that should be the case; perhaps we do not take it seriously]
 - a. Sticking to one's last [keeping to the work in which one is competent and skilled]
 - b. Properly imposed punishment makes people better; it is their due

- c. Premonitions of this view may be found in Sophocles, but not in Homer
- 8. Thrasymachus
 - a. Plato deals him a worse hand than he dealt Callicles
 - 1) His first position: There are no moral standards
 - 2) Second position: A counterintuitive morality
 - b. First position: Moral judgments are depicted as a charade
 - 1) Philosophical amoralism
 - 2) A view later popularized by Friedrich Nietzsche
 - c. Second position: Self-aggrandizing behavior is required
 - 1) It is an alternative morality for greater soul figures like Achilles
 - 2) Its moral ruggedness
- 9. Thrasymachus: Justice Is Whatever Is in the Interest of the Stronger
 - a. Whoever gets the upper hand gets to define morality [This is a variation on the "Golden Rule:" Whoever gets the gold makes the rules]
 - b. Vested interests: People define justice to suit themselves [Observe how interest groups seek either to gain a legal advantage or avoid a legal disadvantage; they then fight to protect their turf against reform. This is the nature of entitlements]
 - c. Socrates then traps him in an incoherent argument
- 10. Digression: Socrates Takes the Arguments on a Detour through the Skills That Minister To Everyday Life
 - a. The question is whose interests these skills promote
 - b. Thrasymachus makes the fatal slip of accepting the ordinary notion of justice
 - c. So he falls back on the argument that doing justice is for idiots
- 11. His Second Card: Justice Is for Idiots
 - a. Thrasymachus still hankers after his original claim
 - b. Alexander and the pirate [illustration from Augustine's City of God]
 - c. Thrasymachus rejects the traditional view
 - 1) He now holds that justice is a virtue only if it pays off
 - d. Greek conception of ethics
 - 1) The "good life" must benefit the individual who leads it
- 12. Socrates on Eudaemonia = Happiness
 - a. Justice is essential to group cooperation
 - b. People do better on average if justice is observed
 - c. The free-rider problem
 - d. Danger of mutual distrust (diffidence)
- 13. Who Will Guard the Guardians?
 - a. We fear there are many instances where the pursuit of economic interests is best served by violating the precepts of justice
 - 1) Rational actor model that people are out to maximize their payoffs
 - 2) Government regulation is no panacea: The state has every incentive to rob the rest of us
- E. THE ARGUMENT AFTER THRASYMACHUS (56-58)
 - 1. The Conflict between Justice and Self-Interest Is Only Apparent
 - a. Most influential utopia in history
 - b. Thrasymachus abandons the argument
 - c. Glaucon restarts the discussion
 - d. The Ring of Gyges
 - e. Glaucon sets Socrates an impossible task
 - 2. Creation of a Perfect Polis and What It Requires by Way of Education
 - a. Origins of justice: Glaucon's commonsensical view which has been taken seriously since Thomas Hobbes (but it falls flat here)
 - b. Glaucon's Thesis: We are selfish creatures whose moral conduct is a form of insurance
 - 1) Justice springs from a hypothetical contract we could have made but did not [anticipation of the later social contract theory]
 - 2) It is a negative Golden Rule

- c. Glaucon failed to start a tradition of natural law thinking; his views are ignored by Socrates
 - 3. Implications: If We Were Immune from the Threat of Punishment (Ring of Gyges), We Would Do Well by Behaving Badly
 - a. Our moral education is via the need to ingratiate ourselves with powerful others
 - b. We thus get educated out of our unrestrained selfishness
 - c. We acquire a conscience and are thereafter kept in check by it
 - d. Glaucon: Morality is artificial and a human invention
 - e. Plato: Morality is inscribed in the natural order
 - 1) Sophist view: Nature is amoral
 - f. Aristotle's middle way
 - 4. Examination of Justice in a Polis
 - a. Division of labor
 - 1) Stoic view is contrasted
 - 2) Plato's more utilitarian picture
 - b. Benefits of specialization: Doing what one does best
 - 1) We unite to get the benefits of specialization
 - c. Plato's Spartan proclivities
 - 1) Glaucon's city of pigs [Athens was a commercial center filled with novelties; oriental spices were rare in medieval Europe; opening the New World added vanilla and chocolate to the diet]
 - 2) Socrates: Greed and self-aggrandizement lead to wars for the acquisition of territory and wealth
 - d. Consequence: Prosperity means warfare and the need for well-trained soldiers (good guard dogs)
 - e. The human equivalent of good guard dogs are philosophers
 - 1) The Republic now becomes a treatise on education
- F. GUARDIANS AND THEIR EDUCATION (58-63)
- 1. The Most Famous Defense of a Meritocracy
 - a. The ruling elite
 - b. Plato's Academy
 - c. Kallipolis
 - d. Expulsion of poets and artists
 - 1) Music
 - 2) Early training
 - 3) Art as a form of attractive lying
 - 2. Plato's Understanding of Art
 - a. Empirical world of everyday appearance: Distorted picture of Truth
 - 1) World of the Forms
 - 2) Allegory of the Cave
 - b. Art is a double misrepresentation
 - 1) This is an artful argument against artists
 - 2) Question of irony
 - c. Plato supposed an inability to say what we know
 - 1) reliance on allegories and parable that point us toward the truth
 - d. Socrates' daimon
 - 1) Allegorical discussions
 - 3. Education of the Ruling Class
 - a. Women
 - b. Lycurgus
 - c. Ceaseless repetition for the sake of unity
 - d. Plato's family was attached to the Spartan oligarchy
 - e. His rashness in putting forward Spartan ideas
 - 4. The Arts and Virtue
 - a. Concern that bad models elicit [what René Girard calls] mimetic desire
 - 1) Cato the Elder and Jean-Jacques Rousseau

- 2) Inculcation of virtue through a tightly constrained syllabus
 - 3) The same training was extended to girls
 - b. Importance of character formation
 - 5. Two Arguments for Training a Virtuous Elite
 - a. Different kinds of souls (the Golden or Noble Lie)
 - 1) Myth of the metals: Three class structure
 - 2) System of breeding [eugenics]
 - 3) Aldous Huxley's antenatal conditioning
 - 4) Bertrand Russell's claim to priority
 - 5) Eugenic science was allegedly needed to produce a pacified society
 - 6) Huxley's ghastly parody of utopia
 - 7) Plato's Golden Lie contains a deep truth
 - 8) Assumption of a cosmic symmetry between the ideal society and the order of nature
 - b. What reconciles physis [nature] with nomos [law or convention]: A social structure that reflects the harmony of the universe can be created
 - 1) What makes a meritocracy attractive is the idea of a harmonious natural hierarchy
 - 2) Another reason for combating Callicles and Thrasymachus
 - 3) The rowers in the fleet expected a payoff from war
 - 6. Thomas Hobbes
 - a. Deep hostility to democracy
 - 1) Equality is natural; hierarchy is conventional (artificial)
 - 2) Obedience is required for the sake of peace
 - b. Plato's cosmology was shared by Aristotle and other classical writers
 - 1) It subsequently reinforced Christian ideas
 - 7. Plato's Case Could Have Been Made Differently
 - a. A Sociological argument that a state functions best with a clear class structure needs no philosophical backing [cf. Robert Michels' iron law of oligarchy]
 - 1) Modern China
 - 2) Dystopia
- G. JUSTICE DEFINED (63-65)
- 1. Cardinal Virtues
 - a. Workers and temperance
 - b. Auxiliaries and courage
 - c. Guardians and wisdom
 - d. Justice governs the whole
 - 2. Justice (Dike) as Overall Rightness
 - a. Aristotle distinguishes two kinds of justice
 - b. Justice and mercy
 - c. Ultimate criterion of rightness: Order in the soul and contributing as we should to the order of the universe and of society
 - d. Contrast with modern liberalism
 - 3. Socrates' Case for a Philosophically-Based Dictatorship [Question: Is This an Allegory of the Role of Reason in the Individual Soul?]
 - a. Bleakness of the lives of Plato's guardians
 - b. Glaucon's and Adeimantus's objections
 - 4. Antipolitical Nature of These Thoughts about Justice
 - a. Two crucial thoughts Plato refused to entertain
 - 1) Rule of law is meant to ensure that individuals are treated justly
 - a) Law and the conflicts that law regulates vanish
 - 2) Fair Allocation of Power
 - a) No place for the idea of legitimate but competing interests
- H. LAST THOUGHTS (65-67)
- 1. Three Later Arguments
 - 2. Why the Rule of the Philosopher Is Required

- a. Need to create a stable polis that reflects the order of nature
 - 1) Later arguments for theocracy
- b. Need to find a central role for a spiritual guardian [ancient rulers were seen as mediators between the divine and human realms]
- 3. Question of How That Authority Is to Be Exercised
 - a. Medieval Christianity and Islam
 - b. Allegory of the Cave
 - 1) Desired reluctance of the enlightened to return to the world of illusion
- 4. Nothing Much Happens in Utopia [i.e., it is boring] [cf. Hegel's idea of the end of history]
- 5. Two Large Questions about the Common People Remain
 - a. Whether they live just lives
 - b. Question of what they do
- I. DECAYING STATES (67-70)
 - 1. Cycle of Political Change [cf. Polybius]
 - a. Honor Supersedes wisdom (timocracy)
 - b. Timocracy degenerates into oligarchy
 - 1) The double nature of oligarchy: It is two states, not one
 - c. Revolution ushers in democracy
 - 2. The Principle of Democracy Is Freedom
 - a. Isegoria
 - b. Result: Eleutheria = The Masterless
 - c. Plato's complaint that democracy is license
 - d. Tyranny
 - 3. Enthusiasm for Cyclical Theories: A Recurrent Feature of the History of Political Thinking
 - a. Spartan timocracy
 - b. Athenian democracy
 - c. Tyranny
 - 4. Plato's Premise: The Souls of Citizens Mirror the Character of States
 - a. Democratic citizens: Half-crazy with a passion for novelties
 - b. The tyrant: An ever-embattled enemy to the world
 - 5. Account of the Fate of the Just and the Unjust Man in the Afterlife
 - a. Scipio's Dream (Cicero)
 - b. Myth of Er
 - 1) Plato Fails to Meet Glaucon's challenge
 - c. Immanuel Kant: Why we hanker after an afterlife
 - d. Worthlessness of the tyrant's life
 - 6. Plato's Ideal Polity Belongs to Soulcraft rather than Statecraft
 - a. Author's conclusion: Plato is in denial
 - 1) He wants people to be of only one mind about all important questions
 - b. Brave New World: A parodic commentary on the corrupt form of 20C utopianism
 - c. Hobbes's Leviathan: Exploration of how far we must agree if there is to be peace
 - d. Plato simply dissolves the problem of establishing a just polity

CHAPTER 3: ARISTOTLE: POLITICS IS NOT PHILOSOPHY

Outline

- A. LIFE AND TIMES (71-73)
1. Aristotle Was Embroiled in Politics
 - a. Tutor of Alexander
 - b. Father-in-law of Antipater [who was the regent of the empire after Alexander's death and rumored to be the assassin]
 - c. Plato's Academy
 - d. Changing fortunes of Athens
 2. Hermias
 - a. Tyrant of Lesbos: former slave of great ability
 - b. Aristotle's marriage to Hermias's niece
 - c. Aristotle summoned to Pella to tutor Alexander
 3. Founding of the Lyceum, 335
 - a. Athenian revolts against Philip
 - b. Destruction of Thebes
 - c. Demosthenes
 - d. Xenocrates took over the Academy
 - e. Aristotle's empirical [experience-based, practical] investigations
 - 1) 158 Greek constitutions
 4. Lack of Tranquility in Athens
 - a. Hostility to Macedonian hegemony
 - b. Unpopularity of Antipater
 - c. Awkwardness of Aristotle's status as a foreigner
 - d. Friendship with Lycurgus
 - e. Withdrawal from Athens following the death of Alexander
 - f. Death
- B. ARISTOTLE'S POLITICAL PREJUDICES (73-75)
1. Repugnant Views on Slavery and Women
 - a. Relation of master to inferior
 - 1) Household (oikos) of a citizen
 - 2) Menial work (manual labor) unfits a man for political life
 - b. Fathers
 - 1) Royal rule over children and constitutional rule over wives
 2. Two Peculiarities
 - a. Acquisition of slaves is a branch of war or hunting
 - b. The notion of natural slaves
 - 1) Hermias
 3. Woman's subordinate role
- C. TELEOLOGY: NATURE AND POLITICS (75-78)
1. Aristotle's Conception of Nature
 - a. Man: A political animal [the city-state is what makes him fully human]
 - b. Doctrine of the four causes: material (matter), formal (form), efficient (how something is effected, produced, originated), and final (the goal or purpose).
 - c. Teleological explanation
 - d. Scientific revolution [17C] banished teleology

- e. Aristotle included human contrivance (what we would call artificial) in the category “natural”
- f. Roman Catholic Church: Natural law and divine law reinforce each other
- g. Aristotle’s nature was itself divine
- 2. Slaves “by Nature”
 - a. Nature exhibits a hierarchy
 - 1) Highest things aim at the highest good
- 3. What Nature Does, Shows What It Aims to Achieve
 - a. Canonical standards
 - b. Four kinds of cause
 - c. Search for self-sufficiency in the state
 - d. Discussion of revolution
- 4. Aristotle Did Not Share Plato’s View of Reality
 - a. Plato: World of sense a poor shadow of reality
 - 1) Empirical world a botched copy of trans-empirical reality
 - b. Aristotle: We perceive reality
 - 1) Successful explanation should save the appearances [which are not necessarily true]: The expression was used by Simplicius (about Aristotle), Milton in Paradise Lost, and by Owen Barfield
 - c. Galileo
- 5. Politics as a Form of Natural History
 - a. Thomas Hobbes admired Aristotle’s biology
 - b. Goal: Aim only at as much precision as the subject matter permits
 - 1) e.g., Aboriculture
 - c. Ethics and Politics: Focus on what is needed
 - 1) We seek knowledge for the sake of action [prudence]
 - 2) Complaint against Plato
 - d. Truth Sought for Practical Purposes
- 6. Polis Is Prior to the Individual
 - a. Politics is the master science
 - b. Role of the Citizen in Enabling the State to Flourish
- D. ETHICS AND THE POLITICS (78-81)
 - 1. Polis Exists by Nature
 - a. Living the good life in common
 - b. Ethics: The study of living well
 - 1) Happiness approved by reason
 - 2. Happiness of a Good Person
 - a. Circular reasoning
 - 1) Virtues
 - b. Examination of particular virtues
 - c. Many excellences are not moral in the modern sense
 - 3. Aristotle’s Understanding of Justice
 - a. Critique of Plato
 - b. Justice in the usual sense is distributive according to merit [what is due]
 - c. Virtue
 - d. Limits of argumentative possibility
 - 4. It Is Rational to Be Just
 - a. Nature means for the just to flourish
 - b. Advantage of a society of just persons
 - c. Justice is easier when supported by the other virtues
 - d. Good person wishes to be just for its own sake
 - 5. Modern View: Self-Seeking Utility Maximizers
 - a. Polus, Callicles, Thrasymachus: Using others as means to our ends
 - b. Aristotle: Hierarchy of goals, each subordinated to a search for excellence
 - c. Aristotle denies the premise of “greed is good”
 - 6. Human Beings Seek Their Own Well-Being, But Not Always Effectively

- a. Misguided wants and mistakes are disconnected from the good
- E. POLITICAL ANALYSIS (81-82)
 - 1. Comparative Studies
 - a. Aristotle sent students to collect information [The historian David Hackett Fischer did the same for Albion's Seed]
 - 1) Constitution of Athens
 - 2. Arrangement of Politics
 - a. Incomplete consideration of the education of the young
 - b. Nature of political association vs. that of the domestic household
 - 3. Sprawling Character of the Book
 - a. Nature of citizenship
 - b. Qualifications of citizenship
 - c. Attack on ideal state theory
- F. POLITICAL MAN (83-85)
 - 1. Three Famous Observations
 - a. Polis exists to satisfy the highest goal of social life
 - b. It is self sufficient
 - c. It alone should be governed politically
 - 1) Authority of the statesman should not be conflated with other leaders
 - 2) An association is to be understood in terms of its purpose rather than its origin
 - 2. Focus on the Greek City-State
 - a. Place where humans can fulfill their potential
 - 3. Philosopher's Life of Contemplation [vita contemplative]
 - a. Most prefer the vita activa
 - b. Self-sufficiency of the philosopher: ordinary categories of success do not apply
 - c. Tension between the search for absolutes and the search for a modus vivendi
 - 4. Analysis of the Nature of Households
 - a. Male head of household
 - 1) Father's authority is not based on force
 - 2) Despotes: Master only over slaves
 - b. Extent and nature of authority is functional
 - c. Locke and the American Constitution
- G. SLAVERY (85-88)
 - 1. Authority Follows Function
 - a. Manual labor seen as beneath the dignity of citizens
 - 1) American South: arguments
 - b. Slaves seen as animated tools
 - c. Military defeat was often a source of slavery
 - 1) Slaves were often better educated than their masters
 - d. Depiction of the idle household slaves in the comedies of Aristophanes
 - e. Hard and dangerous labor:
 - 1) Silver mines of Laurium
 - 2) Sicilian quarries
 - 2. Relationship between Master and Slave
 - a. Slavery is for the most part conventional
 - b. Aristotle's compromise: Greeks should not enslave Greeks
 - c. Differences from modern racism
 - 3. Aristotle's Contradictions
 - a. Friendly with slaves
 - b. Prospect of manumission
 - 1) Antebellum slavery
 - c. POWs in a just war [International law theorist Hugo Grotius endorsed this]
 - d. Slaves and wives
 - e. Robotized plows [Karel Čapek popularized the idea in R.U.R.]
 - f. Choice of slavery: Question is a question of its rationality

4. Aristotle's Second Definition of Politics
 - a. Why only some people can practice politics
 - 1) Cold and barren Scythia
 - 2) Hot and enervating Persia
 - a) Persians were doubly non-self-governing
 - b) Unaccountability of the satraps [administrators]
 - b. Greece's healthy medium
- H. ECONOMIC ACTIVITY (88-92)
1. Economic Activity Can Threaten Political Life
 - a. Spartans
 - 1) Rapacious while away from the repressive discipline of their own city
 - 2) Sparta as a boot camp
 - 3) Spartans were easy to bribe
 2. Aim: Create Public-Spirited Citizens
 - a. Aristotle did not admire the Spartan contempt for physical comfort
 - b. He mocked Plato's belief in common property
 - 1) Neglect: What belongs to everybody, belongs to nobody [cf. Garrett Hardin's Tragedy of the Commons]
 - 2) Need to take ownership
 3. Some Work Regarded as Intrinsically Degrading
 - a. Nature tells us what we need
 - b. Modern Economists
 - 1) Just price disregarded, although it was favored in the Middle Ages
 - c. Trade unions
 - d. Natural needs set the bounds of acceptability
 4. Money is Problematic
 - a. Its value is what needs explaining
 - b. Two plausible views
 - 1) Value is derived from the effort of the producers (labor theory of value)
 - 2) Value is measured by the desires of the purchasers
 - c. Combined view: Price measures scarcity relative to demand
 5. Idea of Natural Value
 - a. Inspiration for medieval usury laws
 - 1) Anti-Semitic aspects
 - b. Aristotle's organic view
 - c. Barren money [economists call this rent] cannot breed
 6. Money and Banking: Solvents of Social Order
 7. Polis Is Best Governed by Gentleman Farmers
 - a. Limited leisure
 - b. Government of laws and not men
 - c. Politics as the master art
- I. CITIZENSHIP AND CONSTITUTION (92-97)
1. The Topics That Keep His Work Alive
 2. Qualities Needed by Citizens and Individuals
 - a. Loyalty
 - b. Whether a good citizen must be a good man
 - c. Machiavelli's denial: Loyalty to country must trump goodness
 - d. Rousseau's fear: He wanted a simple, un-commercial republic
 - e. Difficulty of retraining young soldiers for civilian life
 3. Citizenship
 - a. Modern notion: Citizenship is an entitlement
 - b. Greek ostracism
 - c. Women
 - d. No questions about identities and entitlements in a world devoid of passports
 4. Question of Who Can Safely Be Given the Right to Rule
 - a. Finding virtue in a man

- b. No qualitative difference among men to support absolute authority
- c. Yet there are important differences of degree
- 5. The Common Need for Protection Is Not a Basis for Citizenship, but What Then?
 - a. Aristotle was a resident alien [metic]
 - b. Something like the idea of birthright was suggested by later Stoics
 - c. Best candidates: Properly educated, economically independent, native-born free men
 - d. Servile occupations are a disqualification
 - e. Risk to all from errors of government is not grounds for the citizenship of all
 - f. Test of autonomy
- 6. No Greek Could Be Uninterested in Politics
 - a. Leon Trotsky
 - b. Apathy would have been incomprehensible
 - c. Class warfare
 - d. Struggle to restrict or extend citizenship
 - e. Savagery of political violence
 - f. Thirty Tyrants
- 7. Question of the Best Form of Constitution
 - a. Rule of the best
 - 1) Panbasileus
 - b. Ideal aristocracy
 - 1) Hereditary ruling elite
 - 2) Critique: Genetic transmission cannot be relied on
- 8. An Aristotelian Solution
 - a. Modern representative government
 - b. James Madison and James Mill: Popular government on a large scale
 - c. Idea of representative democracy
 - d. Rousseau supported elective aristocracy but denounced representation
- J. ARISTOTLE'S CLASSIFICATION OF CONSTITUTIONS (97-99)
 - 1. Aristocracy
 - a. Habit of becoming oligarchies
 - b. Sexpartite distinction
 - 2. Three Virtuous Forms of Government
 - a. Kingship, aristocracy, and politeia
 - 3. Three Corrupt Forms
 - a. Tyranny, oligarchy, democracy
 - b. Ochlocracy: Mob rule
 - c. Demos: The poor many
 - d. Aristotle's argument against universal suffrage
 - 1) Banausic trades: Manual labor
 - e. Remedy: Narrow democracy or expanded aristocracy
 - 4. Excellence of Citizens Connected with Constitutional Form
 - a. No man is so naturally superior to others that they will obey him unquestioningly
 - b. What is needed is checks and balances
 - c. Modern concern with human rights and institutions
 - 5. Surprises
 - a. Lottery is the most democratic mode of choice
 - b. Politeia is a happy medium between aristocracy and democracy
- K. THE AVOIDANCE OF STASIS (100-105)
 - 1. Theory of Revolution
 - a. Two parts
 - 1) Stasis: Stalemate
 - 2) Bloody civil war
 - 2. Struggle for Power
 - a. Loss of populace's confidence by the ruling elite
 - b. Seizure of power by some new ruling group

- 1) Revolution vs. *coup d'état
3. Tension between Democratic and Oligarchic Factions
 - a. Conflict of interests and sense of injustice
 - b. Two conceptions of justice
 - 1) Democratic
 - a) Aristotle had no sympathy for economic equality
 - 2) Oligarchic
 - a) Monopolization of power and wealth
4. Aristotle's Recipes for Holding off the Evils of Stasis
 - a. His advice to tyrants
 - 1) Keep opponents divided
 - 2) Rule moderately and virtuously
 - a) Do not affront family pride and honor
 - 3) Tyrants were more uneasy then than now
 - b. His advice to democrats
5. Theory of the Mixed Constitution
 - a. Empirically-minded theorizing
 - b. Polybius
 - c. British politics
 - d. American checks and balances
 - e. Aristotle matched political power with economic interest
 - 1) Lozenge-shaped [bell-curve] distribution of wealth
 - 2) Middle class
 - 3) Economic basis of political stability
6. Aristotle Relied on Good Sense and Steadiness of the Middling Sort
 - a. Seymour Martin Lipset
7. Aristotle's Focus on the Character of the Middle Class
 - a. Moderation of desires
 - b. Lack of precision
 - c. Panic-stricken German middle class
- L. IDEAL STATES (105-110)
 1. Aristotle's Aim: The Best Practicable State
 - a. The good life
 - 1) Development of all the public and private virtues
 - 2) Diversity of people and interest brought together
 2. Animal/Human Distinction
 - a. Gregarious animals
 - b. Political character of human beings: United by agreement
 - c. Hobbes' misuse of Aristotle's argument
 3. Aristotle's Severe Criticism of Plato's Republic and Laws
 - a. Plato was obsessed with disunity
 4. Plato Purifies Politics to Death
 - a. He turns the city into something else
 - b. Impulse to self-sufficiency
 - 1) Polis is logically prior to the individual
 - 2) Without mutual discipline men became worse than animals
 5. Aristotle's Defense of the Family and Private Property
 - a. Question of happiness
 6. Ideal State of Books 7 and 8
 - a. Apparent inconsistency
 - b. The very different tone set in Book 2
 7. Aristotle's Is the Town Planner's Ideal State
 - a. Size: A face-to-face community [Gemeinschaft of Ferdinand Tönnies]
 - b. Common tables
 8. Aristotle Is Not the Ancestor of Pluralism
 - a. Authoritarian perspective

CHAPTER 6: BETWEEN AUGUSTINE AND AQUINAS

Outline

- A. DID MEDIEVAL POLITICAL THEORY EXIST? (193-95)
1. Impact of Christianity on Ideas about Politics
 - a. Focus on issues
 - b. Rebirth of distinctly political thinking in John of Salisbury
 - c. Greeks and early Romans argued about poleis
 - 1) They did not speak the modern language of individual human rights
 2. Roman Empire
 - a. Principate of Caesar Augustus
 - 1) Only one political model, monarchy, was left in command of the field
 - b. Virtual deification of the Christian emperors [which makes the confrontation of Emperor Theodosius by Ambrose, the bishop of Milan, so important]
 - 1) Papacy also copied the thrones, tiaras, and robes of the Roman Empire
 - c. College of Cardinals replaced the Senate
 - d. Papacy in the West
 - e. Question of the relationship between church and state
 3. Thinkers Still Drew on Second-Hand Classical Philosophy
 - a. No direct knowledge of Plato or Aristotle until 12C
 - 1) Modern political institutions have their roots in medieval practice, but we think about them in ways borrowed from the Greeks and Romans
 - b. Roots of modern representative government actually lie in medieval systems of legal administration and military recruitment [see Harold Berman and John Witte]
 - 1) Feudalism had a prehistory in older forms of tribal organization
 - 2) Medieval representation of places and groups [geographic constituencies are still represented, but the “one man, one vote” principle was injected through Baker v. Carr (1962) and other reapportionment decisions]
 - c. British parliamentary government evolved from a king and council system
 - d. US inserted the English representative system into the framework of a Ciceronian republic
 - e. The Polybian view of mixed government aligns easily with the medieval king and council system
 - 1) Consent for taxation from a body representing the “commons”
 - f. Ancient leagues for mutual defense were similarly representative
- B. MEDIEVAL CONCEPTIONS OF AUTHORITY (195-98)
1. Ascending and Descending Theories of Authority
 - a. Feudal institutions combined both conceptions
 - b. Republican institutions
 - c. Justinian
 2. One-Man Rule Prevailed from 476-1945
 - a. Italian and Adriatic city-states
 - b. Charlemagne (Karl or Carol the Great), 800: Emperor of the Romans
 - c. Otto I, 962: Holy Roman Emperor
 - d. Forcible unification of Germany by Prussia, 1870
 3. Subordinate Institutions
 - a. Marsilius of Padua
 - 1) Descending theory of government
 4. The Imperial Cult
 - a. Diocletian [beginning of the Tetrarchy: rule by two Augusti and two Caesars]
 - b. Constantine [son of Constantius, the western Caesar] and his successors
 - 1) Elaborate stage machinery [including a throne that could be elevated]

- 2) Emperor Dei gratia [by the Grace of God]
- 3) Rhum [also the name used by Muslims]
- c. Sicily
- d. Lombards
- e. Two Roman Empires: Eastern (Byzantine) and Western (Carolingian, Ottonian)
- 5. Dismemberment of the Byzantine Empire
 - a. Coronation of Charlemagne in the West
 - b. Holy Spirit
 - c. Final rift in 1054
- 6. Church and State
 - a. Supremacy of the Byzantine emperor
 - b. Imperial and royal meddling in the West was an exception
 - c. Papacy's aim was to preserve its freedom
- C. PASSIVE OBEDIENCE AND POLITICAL OBLIGATION: WHO JUDGES? (198-202)
 - 1. Christian View of Political Authority
 - a. Saint Paul: Obedience for conscience's sake
 - b. Augustine
 - c. Classical value of self-sufficiency
 - 1) Christian critique
 - 2. The Powers That Be Are Divinely Ordained
 - a. Augustine: Respect the office
 - b. Question of when or when not to obey
 - c. Passive disobedience
 - d. Question of martyrdom
 - 3. Duty to Kings Who Do Not Attack the True Faith
 - a. Who is to judge that a ruler lacks God's warrant?
 - b. Papal interdicts
 - 1) John
 - 2) Elizabeth
 - 4. Tyrannicide
 - a. Classical Roman view
 - b. Spheres of authority
 - c. Plot to kill Hitler
 - d. Private individuals were not to make that judgment
 - e. Locke broke with this tradition
 - 5. Who Judges?
 - a. Accountability to a lay body
 - b. Germanic tradition
 - c. Feudal authority based on consent
 - d. The barons of Magna Carta
- D. POPES AND KINGS (202-04)
 - 1. Place of the Church

 - 1) Aristotle
 - 2) Custom
 - 3) Natural equality
 2. Authority of Local Law
 - a. Suttee
 - b. Two views
 - 1) Justinian's Corpus juris civilis: Ruler's will as autocrat
 - 2) Sovereign legislator: person or larger body
 3. Corpus Juris Civilis
 - a. Commentators recorded what they believed to be the traditional Roman view of law
 - b. Cicero: Lex naturae and ius gentium
 - c. How they are differentiated
 4. Ius Civile
 5. Jus Gentium
 - a. Law of nature
 - b. Features of unwritten international law
 - c. Capture of prisoners in a just war [cf. Hugo Grotius]
 6. Are All Creatures Governed by Natural Law?
 - a. Aristotle
 - b. Roman commentators
 - 1) Ulpian
- F. THE ORIGINS AND JUSTIFICATION OF PRIVATE PROPERTY (207-12)
1. Expectation of an Imminent Second Coming of Christ
 - a. Simple form of communism [Some interpreters see this practice as local due to the rapid growth of the Christian community, temporary, and not binding]
 - b. Property ownership by churches and monasteries
 - c. Papacy
 - d. Questions about the nature of property and private ownership
 - e. Slavery employed by early churches
 - f. Labor but not slavery was a part of monastic life [The Benedictine monasteries reclaimed land and laid the foundations of Christendom; see Erik von Kuehnelt-Leddihn's Timeless Christian]
 - g. Need for criminal law
 2. Acquisition and Transfer of Property
 - a. Duty of haves to have-nots
 - b. Christ's admonition
 - c. St. Paul on the love of money
 - d. Christian economics
 3. Less Agreement on the Nature of Ownership
 - a. Ius in rem vs. ius ad personam
 - b. Ownership is good against all the world
 - c. Owner in Roman law is sovereign over the thing owned
 4. Ownership Is Less Clear-Cut under Feudal Conditions
 - a. Chain of tenant and lord terminated in the suzerain: King as feudal superior
 - b. Rights of disposal
 - 1) Fee [of which there were different types]
 - 2) Rights of use and occupation
 5. Vulnerability of Title

- a. Title companies
 - b. Duty of the rich to share their resources with the poor during times of hardship
 - c. John Locke and David Hume
 - d. Property owned by the church
- Tithes and gifts
- 6. Church Property
 - a. Corporate ownership
 - 1) Bishops and deacons
 - b. Publicly owned property
 - c. Gifts deprived the layman's feudal overlord of the "incidents" of ownership
 - 7. The Immortal Church
 - a. Temptation to "sharp" practice [enjoyment of personal benefits from donations]
 - b. Tithes
 - c. Exemption of the property of charities from ordinary taxation
 - 8. These Issues Poisoned Church-State Relations for Centuries
 - a. Germans
 - b. Statute of Mortmain
 - c. Stoic philosophers contended that property was originally held in common [cf. Karl Marx's idea of primitive communism]
 - d. Private property as an incentive for stewardship [cf. Garrett Hardin's argument about "the tragedy of the commons"]
 - e. Overarching notion of the common good
- G. OUTSIDE (NON)INFLUENCES (212-15)
- 1. Collapse of the Western Roman Empire
 - a. Germanic invasions
 - b. Rise of Islam
