CONFERENCE WELCOME

Thank you for attending this year's public policy conference! We are excited to welcome guests and presenters alike to our fourth annual conference. We hope you will enjoy the wonderful slate of guest speakers who are participating in our plenary sessions, as well as the numerous students, guests, and faculty who will be presenting their own research via 12 panels and in over 40 papers. These panels represent the following areas of law, government, and policy: 1) State & Local Issues; 2) Family & Life Policy Issues; 3) China Policy, 4) Foreign Policy, 5) Philosophy, Politics, & Virtue, and 6) Education & Technology. We hope you will enjoy the hard work and thoughtful efforts of our guests, faculty, and students in these topics!

Each year, we seek to address the pressing policy issues of our time. Our guest speakers will be discussing the challenges of Constitutionalism, national security, family and social policy, economic policy in support of free enterprise, questions of international policy, and human trafficking. From pressing national security issues such as China's growing influence, resource supply chains, and European security, to domestic concerns such as safeguarding elections, human trafficking, and the ongoing challenges of excessive spending, we believe that this year's conference will provide a Biblical, scholarly, and nuanced perspective on these issues. As we discuss and wrestle with these important topics, we are glad for your participation as well and hope you will find all of the presentations useful for equipping you to impact culture in the public arena!

5:15 PM – 7:30 PM..... Citizenship & Virtue Conference Reception

Dr. Jennifer Bauwens serves as the Director of the Center for Family Studies at Family Research Council. In her role, she researches and advocates for policies that will best serve the health and well-being of families and communities. Dr. Bauwens has a Ph.D. from New York University, where she was bestowed the Robert Moore Memorial Award and granted valedictorian for her dissertation on Hurricane Katrina. Dr. Bauwens has worked extensively as a clinician providing trauma-focused treatment, and her scholarship has focused on the effects of psychological trauma, including man-made and natural disasters.

Grace Melton is a Senior Associate for international social issues in The Heritage Foundation's Richard and Helen DeVos Center for Life, Religion, and Family. In this role, Ms. Melton focuses on life, marriage and family, religious liberties, and human rights as they pertain to U.N. policies, as well as in American foreign policy priorities.

Congressman Ben Cline represents Virginia's 6th Congressional District in the U.S. House of Representatives, where he is a member of the House Committee on the Judiciary, the House Committee on Appropriations, and the House Committee on the Budget. He previously served as a Member of the Virginia House of Delegates, representing the 24th District from 2002 – 2018. Prior to his election to the House of Representatives in 2018, Congressman Cline was an attorney in private practice.

Delegate Wendell Walker was first elected in November of 2019, and he represents the 52nd District in the Virginia House of Delegates, which covers the entirety of the City of Lynchburg and a portion of Campbell County.

Wendell has been a consistent voice for the taxpayers, fighting for fiscal responsibility, limited government, and protecting our shared Virginia values. He understands the challenges that currently face our community and has been committed to finding solutions to enhance the quality of life in Central Virginia.

Ms. Lisa Gable is an award-winning author who is highly regarded in business, political, and philanthropic circles for her ability to tackle difficult issues directly and with discipline and diplomacy. As a CEO of several organizations and as a former Presidential appointee, U.S. Ambassador, U.N. Delegate, and advisor to Fortune 500 companies, Ms. Gable has orchestrated and executed the successful turnarounds of well-known private and public organizations.

His Excellency Ambassador Tadeous Tafirenyika Chifamba serves as the Ambassador of Zimbabwe to the United States of America. As a career diplomat and former ambassador to the European Union, Ambassador Chifamba has many years of experience and has held a wide variety of posts. The Embassy of Zimbabwe remains focused in pursuit of economic diplomacy, including diaspora involvement in national development and the normalization of bilateral relations with the USA.

His Excellency Ambassador Alfredo Fabiao Nuvunga is currently the Ambassador of Mozambique to the United States of America. He has held this post since March 2023. Ambassador Nuvunga is a career diplomat with 34 years of experience in foreign service. Prior to this position, he represented his country in the Federal Democratic Republic of Ethiopia, in the African Union (AU), and the Economic Commission for Africa (UNECA). In recognition of his diplomatic achievements, Ambassador Nuvunga was awarded the Medal “Order of Friendship and Peach” by Presidential Decree of the Republic of Mozambique.

Rachel Davis is a senior at Liberty University studying International Relations: Strategic Intelligence with a minor in German. She has focused on China throughout her studies at Liberty and is writing her senior honors thesis on Chinese economic coercion in the Indo-Pacific.

Dr. Carl Rehberg is an adjunct professor for Liberty University and a non-resident senior fellow at the Center for Strategic and Budgetary Assessments. He was founder and director of the Headquarters Air Force Asia-Pacific Cell, which played a pivotal role in the development of Air Force strategy, force development, planning, and analysis, and war fighting concepts supporting initiatives related to Asia-Pacific and the DoD Third Offset Strategy. He spearheaded the establishment of the China Airspace Studies Institute and led the development of innovative concepts and capability proposals to improve DoD's joint resiliency and integrated air and missile defenses.

Rear Admiral Mike Studeman (Ret.), the former Commander of the Office of Naval Intelligence, is one of the nation’s leading national security professionals, with extensive global experience in intelligence, foreign policy, and defense matters. He is an internationally recognized expert on Asian affairs with deep expertise on China. In 2005, President Bush appointed Rear Admiral Studeman as a White House Fellow, where he served at the Department of Homeland Security, on the President’s Hurricane Katrina Recovery Task Force, and as a Special Assistant to the Assistant Secretary of Intelligence and Analysis.

5:15 pm – 7:30 pm

Lieutenant Colonel (Ret.) Allen B. West is a Christian constitutional conservative, combat veteran, and former member of Congress.

West was born and raised in Atlanta, Georgia in the same neighborhood where Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. once preached. He is the third of four generations of military servicemen, all combat veterans, in his family.

West was commissioned through ROTC at the University of Tennessee as a Second Lieutenant (2LT) on July 31, 1982. West's culminating assignment to his career was a Battalion Commander of the 2d Battalion 20th Field Artillery, 4th Infantry Division. He assumed command of this unit on June 6, 2002. He deployed with his unit during the Iraq War in 2003 and continued to command his battalion until his retirement from the Army in 2004 after 22 years of honorable service in defense of the Republic.

In November 2010, Allen was honored to continue his oath of service to his country when he was elected to the United States Congress, representing Florida's 22nd District. As a member of the 112th Congress, West introduced seven major pieces of legislation.

West holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville and two Masters, one from Kansas State University and another from the U.S. Army Command and General Staff Officers College.

West is an avid distance runner, a Master SCUBA diver, a motorcyclist, and in his spare time, he enjoys cheering on his beloved Tennessee Volunteers.
